

Delegation Order 1-14 (Formerly DO-106, Rev. 16)

Effective: 05-11-2007

- (1) Delegation of Procurement Authority
- (2) Authority: To enter into, make determinations and decisions, and take other actions with respect to purchases, contracts, leases, and other contractual procurement transactions; designate persons qualified in procurement matters as contracting officers; establish clear lines of contracting authority; maintain high qualification standards for procurement personnel; and perform all other delegated functions described in Treasury Directive 12-11.
- (3) Delegated to: Director, Procurement
- (4) Redelegation: This authority may be redelegated to officers and employees of the IRS, except that the authority of Treasury Directive 12-11, paragraphs 1.a.(2) and 1.a.(3) may be redelegated only to personnel meeting the requisite qualification standards to serve as Contracting Officers for the United States for the type and complexity of procurement actions specified.
- (5) Sources of Authority: Treasury Directive 12-11, Procurement Authority, and Treasury Directive 76-02, Use of Procurement Authority.
- (6) To the extent that authority previously exercised consistent with this order may require ratification, it is hereby affirmed and ratified. This order supersedes Delegation Order 106 (Rev. 16).
- (7) Signed: Linda E. Stiff for Mark W. Everson, Commissioner of Internal Revenue
