

Caution: DRAFT FORM

This is an advance proof copy of an IRS tax form. It is subject to change and OMB approval before it is officially released. You can check the scheduled release date on our web site (www.irs.gov).

If you have any comments on this draft form, you can submit them to us on our web site. Include the word DRAFT in your response. You may make comments anonymously, or you may include your name and e-mail address or phone number. We will be unable to respond to all comments due to the high volume we receive. However, we will carefully consider each suggestion. So that we can properly consider your comments, please send them to us within 30 days from the date the draft was posted.

Give the bottom part to your employer; keep the top part for your records.

Earned Income Credit Advance Payment Certificate

- Use the current year's certificate only.
Give this certificate to your employer.
This certificate expires on December 31, 2009.

OMB No. 1545-0074

2009

Your social security number

Note. If you get advance payments of the earned income credit for 2009, you must file a 2009 federal income tax return. To get advance payments, you must have a qualifying child and your filing status must be any status except married filing a separate return.

- 1 I expect to have a qualifying child and be able to claim the earned income credit for 2009 using that child. I do not have another Form W-5 in effect with any other current employer, and I choose to get advance EIC payments.
2 Check the box that shows your expected filing status for 2009:
3 If you are married, does your spouse have a Form W-5 in effect for 2009 with any employer?.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that the information I have furnished above is, to the best of my knowledge, true, correct, and complete.
