

Agenda:

The Identity Protection Forum will consist of individual presentations as well as interactive panels with representation from experts in the fields of privacy and identity theft from the Federal Government and private industry. See below for the planned Forum agenda.

9:00 – 10:00 Registration

10:00 – 10:15 Welcome & Introductions

Deborah Wolf, Director, Privacy, Information Protection and Data Security, Internal Revenue Service

10:15 – 10:30 Opening Speaker

Mark Ernst, Deputy Commissioner, Internal Revenue Service

10:30 – 11:15 Guest Speaker

Tom Donahue, Director, National Security Council, White House

11:15 – 12:00 Victim Protection

Panelists will discuss proactive IRS initiatives regarding victim assistance, victim protection, and also explore industry/government leading practices.

12:00 – 1:00 Lunch

1:00 – 1:45 External Authentication

Panelists will discuss IRS initiatives to improve identity proofing and authentication procedures, industry and government leading practices, and the future of authentication.

1:45 – 2:30 Technology and Fraud

Panelists will discuss efforts to proactively protect their business/tax system from online fraud and provide their perspective on the threat environment and organizational approaches to countering fraud.

2:30 – 2:45 Break

2:45 – 3:30 Emerging Privacy Changes

Panelists will explore new and emerging privacy and privacy-related issues including pending legislation being considered (e.g., identity theft, data breaches, updating the Privacy Act) and the potential effects on tax administration from these changes.

3:30 – 3:55 Closing Speaker

Mary Ellen Callahan, Chief Privacy Officer, Department of Homeland Security

3:55 – 4:00 Wrap-Up

Key staff from the IRS' Office of Privacy, Information Protection and Data Security will be present to answer any questions you may have regarding specific privacy programs, privacy awareness or victim assistance efforts.