Instructions for Form 2441

Child and Dependent Care Expenses

Reminder

Married persons filing separately checkbox.

Generally, married persons must file a joint return to claim the credit. If you claim the credit and your filing status is married filing separately, you are required to show you meet the special requirements listed in sections, Married Persons Filing Separately and Who Can Take the Credit or Exclude Dependent Care Benefits, by checking the checkbox located above Part I on Form 2441. See Married Persons Filing Separately Checkbox, for more information.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form 2441 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to IRS.gov/Form2441.

Purpose of Form

If you paid someone to care for your child or other qualifying person so you (and your spouse if filing jointly) could work or look for work in 2020, you may be able to take the credit for child and dependent care expenses.

In addition, if you (or your spouse if filing jointly) received any dependent care benefits for 2020, you must use Form 2441 to figure the amount, if any, of the benefits you can exclude from your income. You must complete Part III of Form 2441 before you can figure the credit, if any, in Part II.

You (and your spouse if filing jointly) must have earned income to take the credit or exclude dependent care benefits from your income. But, see If You or Your Spouse Was a Student or Disabled, later, if either of these circumstances apply.

Additional information. See Pub. 503, Child and Dependent Care Expenses, for more details.

Definitions

Dependent Care Benefits

Dependent care benefits include:

- Amounts your employer paid directly to either you or your care provider for the care of your qualifying person(s) while you worked,
- The fair market value of care in a daycare facility provided or sponsored by your employer, and
- Pre-tax contributions you made under a dependent care flexible spending arrangement (FSA).

Your salary may have been reduced to pay for these benefits. If you received dependent care benefits as an employee, they should be shown in box 10 of your 2020 Form(s) W-2. Benefits you received as a partner should be shown in box 13 of your Schedule K-1 (Form 1065) with code O.

Qualifying Person(s)

A qualifying person is:

1. A qualifying child under age 13 whom you can claim as a dependent. If the child turned 13 during the year, the child is a qualifying person for the part of the year he or she was under age 13;
2. Your disabled spouse who wasn't physically or mentally able to care for himself or herself;
3. Any disabled person who wasn't physically or mentally able to care for himself or herself whom you can claim as a dependent or could claim as a dependent except:
 - a. The disabled person had gross income of $4,300 or more,
 - b. The disabled person filed a joint return, or
 - c. You (or your spouse if filing jointly) could be claimed as a dependent on another taxpayer's 2020 return.

If you are divorced or separated, see Special rule for children of divorced or separated parents or parents who live apart below.

To find out who is a qualifying child and who is a dependent, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information.

To be a qualifying person, generally the person must have lived with you for more than half of 2020.

Special rule for children of divorced or separated parents or parents who live apart. Even if you can't claim your child as a dependent, he or she is treated as your qualifying person if:

- The child was under age 13 or wasn't physically or mentally able to care for himself or herself, and
- You were the child's custodial parent. Generally, the custodial parent is the parent with whom the child lived for the greater number of nights in 2020. If the child was with each parent for an equal number of nights, the custodial parent is the parent with the higher adjusted gross income. For details and an exception for a parent who works at night, see Pub. 501.

Generally, the noncustodial parent can't treat the child as a qualifying person even if that parent is entitled to claim the child as a dependent under the special rules for a child of divorced or separated parents or parents who live apart.

Qualified Expenses

These include amounts paid for household services and care of the qualifying person while you worked or looked for work. Child support payments aren't qualified expenses. Also, expenses reimbursed by a state social service agency aren't qualified expenses unless you included the reimbursement in your income.

Generally, if you worked or actively looked for work during only part of the period in which you incurred the expenses, you must figure your expenses for each day. However, there are special rules for temporary absences or part-time work. See Pub. 503 for more details.

Household Services

These are services needed to care for the qualifying person as well as to run the home. They include, for example, the services of a cook, maid, babysitter, housekeeper, or cleaning person if the services were partly for the care of the qualifying person. Don't include services of a chauffeur or gardener.

You can also include your share of the employment taxes paid on wages for qualifying child and dependent care services.

Care of the Qualifying Person

The cost of care of the qualifying person includes the cost of services for their well-being and protection. It doesn't include the cost of food, lodging, education, clothing, or entertainment.

You can include the cost of care provided outside your home for your dependent under age 13 or any other qualifying person who regularly spends at least 8 hours a day in your home. If the care was provided by a dependent care center, the center must meet all applicable state and local regulations. A dependent care center is a place that provides care for more than six persons (other than persons who live there) and receives a fee, payment, or grant for providing services for any of those persons, even if the center isn't run for profit.

You can include amounts paid for items other than the care of your child (such as food and schooling) only if the items are incidental to the care of the child and can't be separated from the total cost. But don't include the cost of schooling for a child in kindergarten or above. You can include the cost of a day camp, even if it specializes in a particular activity, such as computers or soccer. But don't include any expenses for sending your child to an overnight camp, summer school, or a tutoring program.

Medical Expenses

Some disabled spouse and dependent care expenses can qualify as medical expenses if you itemize deductions on Schedule A (Form 1040). However, you can't claim the same expense as both a dependent care expense and a medical expense. See Pub. 502, Medical and Dental Expenses, and Pub. 503 for details.

Who Can Take the Credit or Exclude Dependent Care Benefits?

You can take the credit or the exclusion if all five of the following apply.

1. Your filing status may be single, head of household, qualifying widow(er) with dependent child, or married filing jointly. If your filing status is married filing separately, see Married Persons Filing Separately, later.

2. The care was provided so you (and your spouse if filing jointly) could work or look for work. However, if you didn't find a job and have no earned income for the year, you can't take the credit or the exclusion. But if you or your spouse was a full-time student or disabled, see the instructions for lines 4 and 5, later.

3. The care must be for one or more qualifying persons.

4. The person who provided the care wasn't your spouse, the parent of your qualifying child, or a person whom you can claim as a dependent. If your child provided the care, he or she must have been age 19 or older by the end of 2020, and he or she can't be your dependent.

5. You report the required information about the care provider on line 1 and, if taking the credit, the information about the qualifying person on line 2.

Married Persons Filing Separately

Generally, married persons must file a joint return to claim the credit. If your filing status is married filing separately and all of the following apply, you are considered unmarried for purposes of claiming the credit on Form 2441.

- You lived apart from your spouse during the last 6 months of 2020.
- Your home was the qualifying person's main home for more than half of 2020.
- You paid more than half of the cost of keeping up that home for 2020.

If you meet all of the requirements to be treated as unmarried and meet items 2 through 5 listed earlier, you can generally take the credit or the exclusion. If you don't meet all of the requirements to be treated as unmarried, you can't generally take the credit. However, you can generally take the exclusion if you meet items 2 through 5.

Example. Amy separated from her spouse in March. She isn't separated under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance agreement and uses the married filing separately filing status. Amy maintains a home for herself and Sam, her disabled father. Sam is permanently and totally disabled and unable to care for himself.

Because Sam earns $5,600 in interest income, Amy can't claim him as a dependent (his gross income is greater than $4,300). And, because Amy isn't able to claim Sam as a dependent and she is still married as of the end of the year, she can't use the head of household filing status. Amy's filing status is married filing separately and Sam is a qualifying person for the child and dependent care credit.

Because of the following facts, Amy is able to claim the credit for child and dependent care expenses even though Amy uses the married filing separately filing status.

- Amy didn't live with her spouse for the last 6 months of the year.

- She has maintained a home for herself and Sam (a qualifying individual) since she separated from her spouse in March.
- She maintains her own household and provides more than half of the cost of maintaining that home for herself and Sam.
- Amy pays an adult daycare center to care for Sam to allow her to work.

Line Instructions

Married Persons Filing Separately Checkbox

If your filing status is married filing separately and you meet the requirements to claim the credit for child and dependent care expenses, complete the statement above Part I on Form 2441 by checking the checkbox, confirming you meet those requirements listed, earlier, under Married Persons Filing Separately and Who Can Take the Credit or Exclude Dependent Care Benefits.

Line 1

Complete columns (a) through (d) for each person or organization that provided the care. You can use Form W-10, Dependent Care Provider's Identification and Certification, or any other source listed in its instructions to get the information from the care provider. If you don't give correct or complete information, your credit (and exclusion, if applicable) may be disallowed unless you can show you used due diligence in trying to get the required information.

If you have more than two care providers, attach a statement to your return with the required information. Be sure to put your name and social security number (SSN) on the statement. Also, enter "See Attached" right above the Caution under line 1.

If you had neither a qualifying person nor any care providers for 2020, and you are filing Form 2441 only to report taxable income in Part III, enter "none" on line 1, column (a).

Due Diligence

You can show a serious and earnest effort (due diligence) to get the information by keeping in your records a Form W-10 completed by the care provider. Or you may keep one of the other sources of information listed in the instructions for Form W-10. If the provider doesn't give you the information, complete the entries you can on line 1. For example, enter the provider's name and address. Enter "See Attached Statement" in the columns for which you don't have the information. Then, attach a statement to your return explaining that the provider didn't give you the information you requested.

Columns (a) and (b)

Enter the care provider's name and address. If you were covered by your employer's dependent care plan and your employer furnished the care (either at your workplace or by hiring a care provider), enter your employer's name in column (a). Next, enter "See W-2" in column (b). Then, leave columns (c) and (d) blank. But if your employer paid a third party (not hired by your employer) on your behalf to provide the care, you must give information on the third party in columns (a) through (d).

Column (c)

If the care provider is an individual, enter his or her SSN. Otherwise, enter the provider's employer identification number (EIN). If the provider is a tax-exempt organization, enter "Tax-Exempt" in column (c).

U.S. citizens and resident aliens living abroad. If you are living abroad, your care provider may not have, and may not be required to get, a U.S. taxpayer identification number (for example, an SSN or EIN). If so, enter "LACFP" (Living Abroad Foreign Care Provider) in the space for the care provider's taxpayer identification number.

Column (d)

Enter the total amount you actually paid in 2020 to the care provider. Also, include amounts your employer paid to a third party on your behalf. It doesn't matter when the expenses were incurred. Don't reduce this amount by any reimbursement you received.

Line 2

Complete columns (a) through (c) for each qualifying person. If you have more than two qualifying persons, attach a statement to your return with the required information. Be sure to put your name and SSN on the statement. Also, enter "See Attached" on the dotted line next to line 3.

Column (b)

You must enter the qualifying person's SSN. Be sure the name and SSN entered agree with the person's social security card. Otherwise, at the time we process your return, we may reduce or disallow your credit. If the child was born and died in 2020 and didn't have an SSN, enter "Died" in column (b) and attach a copy of the child's birth certificate, death certificate, or hospital medical records.

To find out how to get an SSN, see Social Security Number (SSN) in the Instructions for Forms 1040 and 1040-SR or Identifying Number in the Instructions for Form 1040-NR. If the name or SSN on the person's social security card isn't correct, call the Social Security Administration at 800-772-1213.

Column (c)

Enter the qualified expenses you incurred and paid in 2020 for the person listed in column (a). Prepaid expenses are treated as paid in the year the care is provided. Don't include in column (c) qualified expenses:

- You incurred in 2020 but didn't pay until 2021. You may be able to use these expenses to increase your 2021 credit;
- You incurred in 2019 but didn't pay until 2020. Instead, see the instructions for line 9; or
- You prepaid in 2020 for care to be provided in 2021. These expenses can only be used to figure your 2021 credit.

TIP If you paid qualified expenses for the care of two or more qualifying persons, the applicable dollar limit is $6,000. This limit doesn't need to be divided equally. For example, if you paid and incurred $2,500 of qualified expenses for the care of one qualifying person and $3,500 for the care of another qualifying person, you can use the total, $6,000, to figure the credit.

To qualify for the credit, you must have one or more qualifying persons. You should show the expenses for each child in column (c) of line 2. However, it is possible a qualifying child could have no expenses and a second child could have expenses exceeding $3,000. You should list -0- for the one child and the actual amount for the second child. The $6,000 limit would still be used to compute your credit unless you have already excluded or deducted, in Part III, certain dependent care benefits paid to you (or on your behalf) by your employer.

Lines 4 and 5

If filing jointly, figure your and your spouse's earned income separately. Enter your earned income on line 4 and your spouse's earned income on line 5.

Earned income for figuring the credit generally includes the following amounts.

1. The amount shown on Form 1040 or 1040-SR, line 1; or Form 1040-NR, line 1a; minus any amount:
 - a. Included for a scholarship or fellowship grant that wasn't reported to you on a Form W-2,
 - b. Excluded as foreign earned income (including any housing exclusion) on Form 2555, line 43,
 - c. Also reported on Schedule SE (Form 1040) because you were a member of the clergy or you received $108.28 or more of church employee income,
 - d. Received for work performed while an inmate in a penal institution, or
 - e. Received as a pension or annuity from a nonqualified deferred compensation plan or a nongovernmental section 457(b) plan. This amount may be reported in box 11 of Form W-2. If you received such an amount but box 11 is blank, contact your employer for the amount received as a pension or annuity.
2. The amount shown on Schedule SE (Form 1040), line 3, minus any deduction you claim on Schedule 1 (Form 1040), line 14.

If you use either optional method to figure self-employment tax, subtract any deduction you claim on Schedule 1 (Form 1040), line 14, from the total of the amounts shown on Schedule SE (Form 1040), lines 3 and 4b.

If you received church employee income of $108.28 or more, subtract any deduction you claim on Schedule 1 (Form 1040), line 14, from the total of the amounts shown on Schedule SE (Form 1040), lines 3, 4b, and 5a.

3. If you are filing Schedule C (Form 1040) as a statutory employee, the amount shown on line 1 of the schedule.
4. Nontaxable combat pay, if you elect to include it in earned income. However, including this income will only give you a larger credit if your (or your spouse's) other earned income is less than the amount entered on line 3. To make the election, include all of your nontaxable combat pay in the amount you enter on line 4 (line 5 for your spouse if filing jointly).

If you are filing jointly and both you and your spouse received nontaxable combat pay, you can each make your own election. (In other words, if one of you makes the election, the other one can also make it but doesn't have to.) The amount of your nontaxable combat pay should be shown in box 12 of your Form(s) W-2 with code Q.

You can choose to include your nontaxable combat pay in earned income when figuring your credit, even if you choose not to include it in earned income for the earned income credit (EIC) or the exclusion or deduction for child and dependent care benefits.

You must reduce your earned income by any loss from self-employment.

Child support payments received by you aren't included in your gross income and aren't considered as earned income for figuring this credit.

If You or Your Spouse Was a Student or Disabled

Your spouse's earned income. Your spouse was a full-time student if he or she was enrolled as a full-time student at a school for some part of each of 5 calendar months during 2020. The months need not be consecutive. A school doesn't include an on-the-job training course, a correspondence school, or a school offering courses only through the Internet. Your spouse was disabled if he or she wasn't physically or mentally capable of self-care. Figure your spouse's earned income on a monthly basis.

For each month or part of a month your spouse was a student or was disabled, he or she is considered to have worked and earned income. His or her earned income for each month is considered to be at least $250 ($500 if more than one qualifying person was cared for in 2020). Enter that amount on line 5. If your spouse also worked during that month, use the higher of $250 (or $500) or his or her actual earned income for that month.

For any month that your spouse wasn't a student or disabled, use your spouse's actual earned income if he or she worked during the month.

Your earned income. These rules for a spouse who was a student or disabled also apply to you if you were a student or disabled. For each month or part of a month you were a student or disabled, your earned income is considered to be at least $250 ($500 if more than one qualifying person was cared for in 2020). Enter that amount on line 4. If you also worked during that month, enter the higher of $250 (or $500) or your actual earned income for that month.

Both spouses were students or disabled. If, in the same month, both you and your spouse were either students or disabled, only one of you can be treated as having earned income in that month under these rules.

Special Situations

- If you are filing jointly, disregard community property laws in determining the earned income of an individual.
- If your spouse died in 2020, see Pub. 503.

Line 9

Credit for Prior Year's Expenses

If you had qualified expenses for 2019 that you didn't pay until 2020, you may be able to increase the amount of credit you can take in 2020. To figure the credit, see Worksheet A in Pub. 503. If you can take a credit for your 2019 expenses, enter the amount of the additional credit and "CPYE" (Credit for Prior Year Expenses) on the dotted line next to line 9. Add the credit to the amount on line 9 and replace the amount on line 9 with that total. Also, enter the name and taxpayer identification number of the person for whom you paid for care, the name and taxpayer identification number of the individual or organization providing the care, and how you figured the credit.

Line 10

Credit Limit Worksheet

Complete this worksheet to figure the amount to enter on line 10.

- | | |
|---|----------|
| 1. Enter the amount from Form 1040, 1040-SR, or
1040-NR, line 18 | 1. _____ |
| 2. Enter the amount from Schedule 3 (Form 1040),
line 1 | 2. _____ |
| 3. Subtract line 2 from line 1. Also enter this amount on Form 2441, line 10. But if zero or less, stop ; you cannot take the credit | 3. _____ |

Line 13

If you had an employer-provided dependent care plan, your employer may have permitted you to carry forward any unused amount from 2019 to use during a grace period in 2020. Enter on line 13 the amount you carried forward and used in 2020 during the grace period.

Line 14

If you had an employer-provided dependent care plan, enter on line 14 the total of the following amounts included on line 12.

- Any amount you forfeited. You forfeited an amount if you didn't receive it because you didn't incur the expense. Don't include amounts you expect to receive at a future date.
- Any amount you didn't receive but are permitted by your employer to carry forward and use in the following year during a grace period.

Example. Under your employer's dependent care plan, you chose to have your employer set aside $5,000 to cover your 2020 dependent care expenses. The $5,000 is shown on your Form W-2, in box 10. In 2020, you incurred and were reimbursed for $4,950 of qualified expenses. You would enter $5,000 on line 12 and $50, the amount forfeited, on line 14. You would also enter $50 on line 14 if, instead of forfeiting the amount, your employer permitted you to carry the $50 forward to use during the grace period in 2021.

Line 15

Add the amounts on lines 12 and 13 and subtract from that total the amount on line 14. Enter the result on line 15.

Line 16

Enter the total of all qualified expenses incurred in 2020 for the care of your qualifying person(s). It doesn't matter when the expenses were paid.

Example. You received $2,000 in cash under your employer's dependent care plan for 2020. The $2,000 is shown on your Form W-2, in box 10. Only $900 of qualified expenses were incurred in 2020 for the care of your 5 year old dependent child. You would enter $2,000 on line 12 and $900 on line 16.

Line 18

If filing jointly, figure your and your spouse's earned income separately. Enter your earned income on line 18 and your spouse's earned income on line 19. If your filing status is married filing separately or you or your spouse was a student or disabled, see the instructions for line 19.

Earned income for figuring the amount of dependent care benefits you are able to exclude or deduct from your income generally includes the following amounts.

1. The amount shown on Form 1040 or 1040-SR, line 1; or Form 1040-NR, line 1a; minus any amount:
 - a. Included for a scholarship or fellowship grant that wasn't reported to you on a Form W-2,
 - b. Excluded as foreign earned income (including any housing exclusion) on Form 2555, line 43,
 - c. Also reported on Schedule SE (Form 1040) because you were a member of the clergy or you received $108.28 or more of church employee income,
 - d. Received for work performed while an inmate in a penal institution, and
 - e. Received as a pension or annuity from a nonqualified deferred compensation plan or a nongovernmental section 457(b) plan. This amount may be reported in box 11 of Form W-2. If you received such an amount but box 11 is blank, contact your employer for the amount received as a pension or annuity.
2. The amount shown on Schedule SE (Form 1040), line 3, minus any deduction you claim on Schedule 1 (Form 1040), line 14.

If you use either optional method to figure self-employment tax, subtract any deduction you claim on Schedule 1 (Form 1040), line 14, from the total of the amounts shown on Schedule SE (Form 1040), lines 3 and 4b.

If you received church employee income of $108.28 or more, subtract any deduction you claim on Schedule 1 (Form 1040), line 14, from the total of the amounts shown on Schedule SE (Form 1040), lines 3, 4b, and 5a.

3. If you are filing Schedule C (Form 1040) as a statutory employee, the amount shown on line 1 of the schedule.

4. Nontaxable combat pay, if you elect to include it in earned income. However, including this income will only give you a larger exclusion or deduction if your (or your spouse's) other earned income is less than the amount entered on line 17. To make the election, include all of your nontaxable combat pay in the amount you enter on line 18 (line 19 for your spouse if filing jointly).

If you are filing jointly and both you and your spouse received nontaxable combat pay, you can each make your own election. (In other words, if one of you makes the election, the other one can also make it but doesn't have to.) The amount of your nontaxable combat pay should be shown in box 12 of your Form(s) W-2 with code Q.

TIP You can choose to include your nontaxable combat pay in earned income when figuring your exclusion or deduction, even if you choose not to include it in earned income for the earned income credit (EIC) or the credit for child and dependent care expenses.

CAUTION For purposes of line 18, earned income doesn't include any dependent care benefits shown on line 12.

CAUTION You must reduce your earned income by any loss from self-employment.

Special Situations

- If you are filing jointly, disregard community property laws in determining the earned income of an individual.
- If your spouse was a full-time student or disabled in 2020, see the instructions for lines 4 and 5, earlier.

Line 19

If your filing status is married filing separately, see Married Persons Filing Separately, earlier. Are you considered unmarried under that rule?

- Yes. Enter your earned income (from line 18) on line 19. On line 21, enter $5,000.
- No. Enter your spouse's earned income on line 19. If you or your spouse was a full-time student or disabled in 2020, see the instructions for lines 4 and 5. On line 21, enter $2,500.

Line 24

Include your deductible benefits in the total entered on Schedule C (Form 1040), line 14; Schedule E (Form 1040), line 19 or line 28; or Schedule F (Form 1040), line 15; whichever applies.

Line 26

If line 26 is more than zero, you have taxable dependent care benefits. Include this amount in the total on Form 1040 or 1040-SR, line 1; or Form 1040-NR, line 1a; whichever applies. Enter "DCB" in the space to the left of that line to show that taxable dependent care benefits are included in that amount.

Lines 27 through 31

If you are reporting dependent care benefits in Part III of the form, you will need to complete lines 27 through 31 if you are also claiming the credit for child and dependent care expenses in Part II of the form.
