

Message from the Director

We recently published the results from our fifth annual Customer Satisfaction Survey, and a summary is included in an article in this issue of ITG News. One of the questions posed in the survey seeks tribal input on our role in helping address the individual tax issues faced by tribal members. It has always been cited as an area where we need to improve.

One of the difficulties we face in helping address member issues is that we have no authority over individual federal tax issues. Individual tax matters are assigned to our Wage and Investment, and our Small Business/Self-Employed Divisions. Thus, our role is somewhat limited, but we continue to make efforts to raise issues within the Service, and to assist tribal members with information they need to be fully compliant with federal tax requirements. We have also forged a relationship with the Taxpayer Advocate Service that is designed to elevate systemic problems that are adversely impacting tribal members.

One current example of both the problems we all face, and the steps we are taking to assist on tribal member issues, involves notices that were being issued to tribal members proposing to assert self employment tax on per capita distributions of net gaming revenues. Although we had developed specific language to describe these distributions on Forms 1040, our campuses were issuing notices that proposed to subject these reported payments to social security through the imposition of self employment tax. This is clearly erroneous, and when it was raised to our attention, we took the following steps:

- We contacted the Taxpayer Advocate Service who immediately intervened to correct the computer programming error that was causing the notices to be issued.
- We posted information as the headline on our web site instructing tribes what action to take if tribal members received the erroneous notices.
- We set up internal procedures to collect information from the tribes in regard to the notices, and ensure the notices were promptly reversed.

If you have experienced this issue, I apologize on behalf of the Service, and I urge you to contact your assigned ITG Specialist so that we can resolve the matter. Although ITG cannot control every contact that originates from the Internal Revenue Service, we are committed to resolving unique problems that affect tribes and tribal members.

Christie Jacobs

Customer Satisfaction Survey Results Published

The Office of Indian Tribal Governments recently completed its fifth annual customer survey. The survey gave us feedback from our customers that allows us to measure customer satisfaction with our products and services and determine areas where we need to effect operational changes.

We want to thank everyone who participated. We received 175 responses, which was slightly less than the prior year survey response rate. We are pleased that the overall level of satisfaction rose from 76% to 77%, but there were a number of issues surfaced where we are undertaking actions to address concerns raised in the survey. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Continuing to develop specific materials for tribal members and tribal employees which explain tax issues that affect them
- Further studying the causes of dissatisfaction in the Southwest and Pacific Northwest
- Increasing education and outreach efforts with the Navajo Chapters
- Monitoring work processes to improve responsiveness to tribal inquiries by ITG staff
- Improving the clarity of examination letters, communicating future actions that might mitigate problems found during examinations, and improving the timeliness of actions taken by ITG during examinations

This is the first survey where we have asked specific questions in regard to Compliance Checks and Examination interactions with ITG. Since examinations represent a significant percentage of the work done by ITG, we will focus extra efforts in regard to that specific feedback.

Past analysis of the ITG customer base revealed similarities between the Alaska Native Villages and the Navajo Chapters. Both segments tend to be remotely located, have smaller government structures, few large business or gaming operations, and meager staff resources. It has been difficult to determine the needs and/or effect lasting solutions for these particular customers. In the past year, ITG implemented several initiatives in Alaska to increase our visibility and impact among the tribal villages. These improvements included purchasing copies of the tax/accounting software used by the villages to increase ITG understanding of reporting issues/problems arising from this software, adding a regional location code to the database so that work can be assigned geographically to minimize repeated travel to remote locations, and attending large state-run events for the Native Villages to distribute job-aids and information. In addition, ITG organized and conducted major payroll and information reporting educational seminars for tribal employees. The survey shows the positive results of these efforts. The customers in Alaska are now showing satisfaction rates comparable to the rest of the United States, while the Navajo Chapters are still reflecting much lower satisfaction. ITG will seek to apply best practices used in Alaska in a focused effort to better assist the Navajo Chapters.

In addition to the overall measures, we also looked at satisfaction by geographic area and by common themes within the survey. The table on the following page shows that analysis, and compares the responses this year with the survey responses from the prior year.

A more complete report on the survey is posted to our web site at www.irs.gov/tribes. We look forward to input at the ongoing Consultation Listening meetings to further assist in determining improvement opportunities. Future issues of ITG News will detail operational changes that we effect in response to the survey feedback.

Four Convicted for Conspiracy, Tax Evasion, and Theft from the Kickapoo Traditional Tribe of Texas

In mid-October, a federal jury convicted Kickapoo Traditional Tribe of Texas gaming representative Isidro Garza, Jr., his son, former State Representative Timeteo Garza and Kickapoo Lucky Eagle Casino manager Arthur Lee Martin for scheming to steal over $2 million from the casino as well as the tribe itself. Isidro's wife, Martha Garza, was convicted along with her husband and son of tax evasion and a related conspiracy charge.

In all, the jury convicted:

- Isidro Garza, Jr., of one count of conspiracy to commit theft from an Indian tribal organization and by officers and employees of Gaming Establishments on Indian lands, two substantive counts of theft from an Indian tribal organization, five substantive counts of theft by officers and employees of Gaming Establishments on Indian lands, one count of conspiracy to defraud the Internal Revenue Service and four counts of tax evasion. As a result, Isidro Garza faces up to 55 years in federal prison.
- Martha Garza of one count of conspiracy to defraud the Internal Revenue Service plus four counts of tax evasion. As a result, Martha Garza faces up to 25 years in federal prison.
- Timeteo Garza of one count of conspiracy to commit theft from an Indian tribal organization and by officers and employees of Gaming Establishments on Indian lands, two counts of theft by officers and employees of Gaming Establishments on Indian lands and one count of conspiracy to defraud the Internal Revenue Service. As a result, Timeteo Garza faces up to 20 years in federal prison.
- Arthur Lee Martin of one count of conspiracy to commit theft from an Indian tribal organization and by officers and employees of Gaming Establishments on Indian lands and two counts of theft by officers and employees of Gaming Establishments on Indian lands. As a result, Martin faces up to 15 years in federal prison.

The jury found that between February 13, 1998, and October 28, 2002, the defendants misused tribal credit cards, took cash directly from the casino cash cage and had checks from tribal and casino accounts written to pay for personal expenses.

On May 17, 2007, Raul Garza, Sr., former chairman of the Kickapoo Traditional Tribe of Texas, was sentenced to three years in federal prison and ordered to pay more than $2 million restitution for his role in the scheme.

ITG was instrumental in bringing this case forward for prosecution, and we remain committed to helping protect tribal assets for the benefit of tribal members by identifying financial abuses. We are pleased to partner with tribes in this regard, and although the outcomes can have short-term pain, the long term effect should make a clear statement that neither tribes nor the federal government will knowingly permit individuals to use tribal assets for their personal gain.

Reporting Abuses/Schemes

We continue to work with tribes and tribal officials to address financial abuses and schemes being promoted in Indian country. Working together can help ensure the integrity of tribal finances, and eliminate the threats posed by individuals with schemes that appear "too good to be true" and often are. If you are aware of financial impropriety, or of a promoter advocating a scheme that appears highly suspect, you can contact the ITG Abuse Detection and Prevention Team at (716) 686-4860, or via e-mail at tege.itg.schemes@irs.gov

IRS Grants Tax Relief for Southern California Wildfire Victims

The Internal Revenue Service is granting tax relief for Southern California taxpayers recently affected by the October Wildfires in the presidential disaster area counties of Los Angeles, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego, Santa Barbara and Ventura.

If you have been impacted by the recent wildfires in your area and are unable to meet your tax obligations, the IRS may be able to assist with payment and filing extensions. Affected taxpayers include individuals who lived and businesses whose principal place of business was located in the covered disaster area. Taxpayers not in the covered disaster area, but whose books, records, or tax professionals' offices were in the covered disaster area, are also entitled to relief.

Filing and Payment Penalty Relief

The IRS gives affected taxpayers until January 31, 2008, to file most tax returns (including individual, corporate, partnership, employment and certain excise tax returns) or to make tax payments that have either an original or extended due date falling between October 21, 2007 and January 31, 2008. If additional time to file is needed beyond January 31, an affected taxpayer may file the appropriate extension request to obtain the remainder of the 6-month period.

The postponement of time to file and pay does not apply to information returns in the W-2, 1098, 1099 or 5498 series, or to Forms 1042-S or 8027. Penalties for failure to timely file information returns, however, can be waived under existing procedures for reasonable cause.

FTD Penalty Relief

The IRS will abate penalties for failure to make timely employment and excise deposits, due between October 21, 2007 and November 5, 2007, provided the taxpayer made the deposits by November 5, 2007.

Casualty Losses

Affected taxpayers in a presidentially declared disaster area have the option of claiming disaster-related casualty losses on their federal income tax return for either this year or last year. Claiming the loss on an original or amended return for last year will get the taxpayer an earlier refund, but waiting to claim the loss on this year's return could result in a greater tax saving, depending on the other income factors. Affected taxpayers claiming the disaster loss on last year's return should put the Disaster Designation "California Wildfires" at the top of the form so the IRS can expedite the processing of the refund.

Self-Assess Your Federal Tax Compliance Risks

Tribal entities can now self-assess their federal tax compliance and work with ITG to address any problems they uncover. Entities electing to participate receive a fillable template from ITG, and are provided with the name of a local ITG Specialist who will serve as their resource during the process.

Information on the program, as well as an on-line request form, is available through the "Enhancing Federal Tax Compliance" link on the right-hand of the ITG web site landing page at www.irs.gov/tribes, or you can make an inquiry about the program via e-mail to tege.itg.tefac@irs.gov

Other Relief

The IRS will waive the usual fees and expedite requests for copies of previously filed tax returns for affected taxpayers who need them to apply for benefits or to file amended returns claiming casualty losses. Such taxpayers should put the assigned Disaster Designation in red ink at the top of Form 4506, "Request for Copy of Tax Return," or Form 4506-T, "Request for Transcript of Tax Return," as appropriate, and submit it to the IRS.

Affected taxpayers who are contacted by the IRS on a collection or examination matter should explain how the disaster impacts them so that the IRS can provide appropriate consideration to their case.

Taxpayers may download forms and publications from the IRS Web site at www.irs.gov or may order them by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676). If you have access to the Internet, you may log onto www.irs.gov and use the keyword "disaster" to view additional information.

2008 Standard Mileage Rate

Beginning January 1, 2008, the standard mileage rates for the use of a car (including vans, pickups or panel trucks) will be:

- 50.5 cents per mile for business miles driven;
- 19 cents per mile driven for medical or moving purposes; and
- 14 cents per mile driven in service of charitable organizations.

These mileage rates are important to employers, such as Tribes, since the rates can be used to calculate reimbursements to employees who incur mileage on behalf of their employer under an Accountable Plan.

The new rate for business miles compares to a rate of 48.5 cents per mile for 2007. The new rate for medical and moving purposes compares to 20 cents in 2007. The rate for miles driven in service of charitable organizations has remained the same. The standard mileage rate for business is based on an annual study of the fixed and variable costs of operating an automobile.

Employee Tip Income Program Questions

ITG has a full-time Tip Coordinator to assist you with any questions about tip reporting agreements. If you are interested in securing a Tip Agreement, have questions concerning your existing agreement, or have received a notice about tip reporting responsibilities that is unclear, please contact Suzanne Perry at (602) 207-8254.

Tax Return Preparer Fraud

Return preparer fraud generally involves the preparation and filing of false income tax returns by preparers who claim inflated personal or business expenses, false deductions, unallowable credits or excessive exemptions on returns prepared for their clients. This includes inflated requests for the special one-time refund of the long-distance telephone tax. Preparers may also manipulate income figures to obtain tax credits, such as the Earned Income Tax Credit, fraudulently.

In some situations, the client (taxpayer) may not have knowledge of the false expenses, deductions, exemptions and/or credits shown on their tax returns. However, when the IRS detects the false return, the taxpayer — not the return preparer — must pay the additional taxes and interest and may be subject to penalties.

The IRS Return Preparer Program focuses on enhancing compliance in the return-preparer community by investigating and referring criminal activity by return preparers to the Department of Justice for prosecution and/or asserting appropriate civil penalties against unscrupulous return preparers.

While most preparers provide excellent service to their clients, the IRS urges taxpayers to be very careful when choosing a tax preparer. Taxpayers should be as careful as they would be in choosing a doctor or a lawyer. It is important to know that even if someone else prepares a tax return, the taxpayer is ultimately responsible for all the information on the tax return.

Helpful Hints When Choosing a Return Preparer

- Be careful with tax preparers who claim they can obtain larger refunds than other preparers.
- Avoid preparers who base their fee on a percentage of the amount of the refund.
- Stay away from preparers who claim that many, if not most, phone customers can get hundreds of dollars or more back under the telephone tax refund program.
- Use a reputable tax professional who signs your tax return and provides you with a copy for your records.
- Consider whether the individual or firm will be around to answer questions about the preparation of your tax return, months, or even years, after the return has been filed.
- Review your return before you sign it and ask questions on entries you don't understand.
- No matter who prepares your tax return, you (the taxpayer) are ultimately responsible for all of the information on your tax return. Therefore, never sign a blank tax form.
- Find out the person's credentials. Only attorneys, CPAs and enrolled agents can represent taxpayers before the IRS in all matters including audits, collection and appeals. Other return preparers may only represent taxpayers for audits of returns they actually prepared.
- Find out if the preparer is affiliated with a professional organization that provides its members with continuing education and resources and holds them to a code of ethics.
- Ask questions. Do you know anyone who has used the tax professional? Were they satisfied with the service they received?
