Post the following article on your websites and/or in other communication vehicles to tell your customers about online tax assistance for people who are not proficient in English

On-line tax assistance is available for people who speak other languages

Finding federal income tax forms and publications for people who are not proficient in English is as easy as going to the IRS website. IRS.gov is the official site for federal tax information and has more than 700 downloadable forms and publications in other languages.

The IRS site features Chinese, Russian, Vietnamese and Korean pages with links to publications, how to get IRS assistance and more.

EL IRS en Español is a site especially for Spanish-speaking individuals, and provides access to information, downloads and on-line tools including the EITC Assistant, on-line payment agreements, Where's My Refund and Spanish Free File.

The Spanish Multimedia page has links to podcasts, YouTube, the IRS Video portal and text files.

Visit our social media page for Facebook, Twitter, the IRS2Go APP and downloadable widgets and podcasts.
