IRS offers assistance for people with disabilities

For people with disabilities, federal income tax forms and publications are a click away. The IRS is committed to providing web-accessible tax information for all taxpayers. The IRS' website hosts a full line of tax products and services, including federal tax forms and publications for people who use special assistive technology, including screen reading software, refreshable Braille displays, and voice recognition software.

We've prepared hundreds of our most popular tax forms and publications, using full text descriptions where needed, and made them available for download:
