IRS offers products in languages other than English

The IRS is offering tax forms and publications in other languages to help taxpayers who need translated materials and is committed to providing web-accessible tax information for all taxpayers. IRS.gov is the official site for federal tax information with more than 700 downloadable forms and publications for taxpayers who may not be proficient in English.

The sites below offer products in several languages:

- The Multilingual Gateway provides basic federal tax information in Chinese, Vietnamese, Russian, Korean and Spanish.
- EL IRS en Español is a site especially for Spanish speaking individuals, providing access to information, downloads and tools including the EITC Assistant, on-line payment agreements, Where's My Refund and Spanish Free File.
- The Spanish Multimedia page has links to podcasts, U-Tube, the IRS Video portal and text files.
- IRS en Español - IRS tweets in Spanish on various tax-related announcements, news for tax professionals and hiring initiatives
