

Lori Brown

Lori Brown, CPP brings a broad range of experience to CACI where she is the Director of Payroll. She has over 17 years of experience in payroll including time and attendance, payroll tax compliance and payroll systems conversions. She earned the Fundamentals of Payroll (FPC) certificate designation in 2001 and the Certified Payroll Professional (CPP) in 2002.

Lori has been an active member of the American Payroll Association (APA) since 2002. She currently serves on the FPC Certification Board, Payroll Hotline Committee, National Speakers Bureau and the Certification Advisory Group. She has received Citations of Merit from the APA each year since 2005.

Since 2004, Lori has shared her knowledge with other payroll practitioners by teaching CPP/FPC exam preparation classes. She has taught at Prince George's Community College and currently teaches at George Mason University.