

Sample article for organizations to use to reach your customers (215 word count)

Post the following article on your websites and/or use in other communication vehicles to tell your customers about a few IRS Collection procedures.

Learn more about paying your taxes

IRS continues its efforts to educate taxpayers about paying taxes. The three videos below, along with others on the Video Portal website, are linked to related topics on IRS.gov.

Check out the following videos on the IRS Video Portal:

- Understanding IRS Collection Efforts
 - In this video, you'll find eight topics designed to provide basic information regarding the IRS collection process. The topics may be viewed separately allowing you to choose the one that fits your situation.
- How to complete Form 656, Offer in Compromise
 - In this video, we'll show you how to complete an Offer in Compromise application, Form 656, and point out common mistakes that can cause your offer to be returned to you unprocessed. We'll also reference Form 656-B, the Offer in Compromise Booklet.
- Selling or Refinancing When There is an IRS Lien
 - In this three segment video you will find out about the federal tax lien discharge and subordination process. It walks you through the application forms, supporting documents needed, how to submit an application and how the process works.

Do not rely on the information presented in these videos for legal advice. For assistance, you may wish to consult a tax professional. Visit the IRS.gov Collection Procedures page for more information about IRS collection processes.