Caution: DRAFT—NOT FOR FILING

This is an early release draft of an IRS tax form, instructions, or publication, which the IRS is providing for your information. Do not file draft forms and do not rely on draft forms, instructions, and pubs for filing. We incorporate all significant changes to forms posted with this coversheet. However, unexpected issues occasionally arise, or legislation is passed—in this case, we will post a new draft of the form to alert users that changes were made to the previously posted draft. Thus, there are never any changes to the last posted draft of a form and the final revision of the form. Forms and instructions are subject to OMB approval before they can be officially released, so we post drafts of them until they are approved. Drafts of instructions and pubs usually have some additional changes before their final release. Early release drafts are at IRS.gov/DraftForms and remain there after the final release is posted at IRS.gov/LatestForms. Also see IRS.gov/Forms.

Most forms and publications have a page on IRS.gov: IRS.gov/Form1040 for Form 1040; IRS.gov/Pub501 for Pub. 501; IRS.gov/W4 for Form W-4; and IRS.gov/ScheduleA for Schedule A (Form 1040), for example, and similarly for other forms, pubs, and schedules for Form 1040. When typing in a link, type it into the address bar of your browser, not a Search box on IRS.gov.

If you wish, you can submit comments to the IRS about draft or final forms, instructions, or pubs at IRS.gov/FormsComments. Include “NTF” followed by the form or pub number (for example, “NTF1040”, “NTFW4”, “NTF501, etc.) in the body of the message to route your message properly. We cannot respond to all comments due to the high volume we receive and may not be able to consider many suggestions until the subsequent revision of the product, but we will review each “NTF” message. If you have comments on reducing paperwork and respondent (filer) burden, with respect to draft or final forms, please respond to the relevant information collection through the Federal Register process; for more info, click here.

Continuous-use form and instructions. Form 1099-QA and its instructions, contained herein, have been converted from an annual revision to continuous use. E-filing Form 1099-QA. The Taxpayer First Act of 2019 authorized the Department of the Treasury and the IRS to issue regulations that reduce the 250-return e-file threshold. T.D. 9972, published February 23, 2023, lowered the e-file threshold to 10 (calculated by aggregating all information returns), effective for information returns required to be filed on or after January 1, 2024. Go to IRS.gov/InfoReturn for e-file options.

Qualified ABLER Program

A qualified ABLER program is a program established and maintained by a state, or agency, or instrumentality of a state:

- Under which an ABLER account may be established for a blind or disabled individual whose blindness or disability occurred before age 26 (an "eligible individual"), who is the owner and designated beneficiary of the account;
- Which permits contributions to such ABLER account to pay for the qualified disability expenses of the account's designated beneficiary;
- Which limits a designated beneficiary to one ABLER account; and
- That meets the other requirements of section 529A.

Contributions. A program is not treated as a qualified ABLER program unless it provides that no contribution will be accepted:

1. Unless it is in cash; or
2. Except in the case of a rollover or program-to-program transfer from an ABLER account, if such contribution would result in aggregate contributions from all contributors to the ABLER account for the tax year exceeding the sum of:
 - a. $18,000 (in 2024), plus
 - b. In the case of additional contributions made by certain employed ABLER account designated beneficiaries, an amount up to the lesser of:
 - i. The designated beneficiary's compensation for the tax year, or
 - ii. The poverty line amount for a one-person household (Community Services Block Grant Act (42 U.S.C. 9902)). For 2024, the allowable amount is:
 - $14,580 in the continental United States,
 - $18,210 in Alaska, and
 - $16,770 in Hawaii.

Note. The amount is based on P.L. 115-97, section 11024(a)(1)(B)(ii)(II), which allows for "an amount equal to the poverty line for a one-person household, as determined for the calendar year preceding the calendar year in which the tax year begins." For more information, go to aspe.hhs.gov/topics/poverty-economic-mobility/poverty-guidelines.

The contribution limit is determined using the poverty guideline applicable in the state of the designated beneficiary's residence, rather than the guideline applicable in the state in which the designated beneficiary's ABLÉ account is established, or elsewhere.

An employed designated beneficiary is not eligible for the increased contribution limit for the tax year if any contribution is made on behalf of the employee to a defined contribution plan (within the meaning of section 414(i)), a section 403(b) plan, or a section 457(b) plan. The designated beneficiary is responsible for maintaining adequate records to document the eligibility for increased contributions. See T.D. 9923, available at IRS.gov/IRB/2020-50_IRB#TD-9923.

Separate accounting. A qualified ABLÉ program must provide separate accounting for each designated beneficiary.

Limited investment direction. A qualified ABLÉ program provides that a designated beneficiary may, directly or indirectly, direct the investment of any contributions to the program (or any earnings on it) no more than two times in any calendar year.

Pledging of interest as security. A program is not treated as a qualified ABLÉ program if it allows any interest in the program, or any portion of it, to be used as security for a loan.

Excess aggregate contributions. A qualified ABLÉ program must provide adequate safeguards to prevent aggregate contributions on behalf of a designated beneficiary in excess of the limit established by the state under the state's qualified tuition program (QTP). Aggregate contributions include contributions to any prior ABLÉ account maintained by any qualified ABLÉ program for the same designated beneficiary or any prior designated beneficiary.

Return of excess contributions and excess aggregate contributions. A qualified ABLÉ program must return an excess contribution or excess aggregate contribution (including all net income attributable to that excess contribution or excess aggregate contribution) to the person who made the contribution on or before the due date (including extensions) for the federal income tax return of the designated beneficiary for the tax year in which the excess contribution or excess aggregate contribution was made.

Rollovers and program-to-program transfers. For purposes of these instructions, a "rollover" means a contribution to an ABLÉ account of the designated beneficiary (or of an eligible individual who is a member of the family of the designated beneficiary) of all or a portion of an amount withdrawn from the designated beneficiary's ABLÉ account, provided the contribution is made within 60 days of the date of the withdrawal and, in the case of a rollover to the designated beneficiary's ABLÉ account, no rollover has been made to an ABLÉ account of the designated beneficiary within the prior 12 months.

A "program-to-program transfer" means the direct transfer of the entire balance of an ABLÉ account to an ABLÉ account of the same designated beneficiary in which the transferor ABLÉ account is closed upon completion of the transfer, or of part or all of the balance to an ABLÉ account of another eligible individual who is a member of the family of the former designated beneficiary, without any intervening distribution or deemed distribution to the designated beneficiary.

Specific Instructions for Form 1099-QA

Who Must File

Any state or its agency or instrumentality that establishes and maintains a qualified ABLÉ program must file a Form 1099-QA, Distributions From ABLÉ Accounts, with the IRS on or before March 1, of the following year, for each ABLÉ account from which any distribution was made or which was terminated during the calendar year. The filing may be done by either an officer or employee of the state, or its agency, or instrumentality having control of the qualified ABLÉ program, or the officer's or employee's designee.

Do not file Form 1099-QA for a change in the name of the designated beneficiary on an ABLÉ account if the new designated beneficiary is an eligible individual and a member of the family of the former designated beneficiary. For these purposes, a "member of the family" means a sibling, whether by blood or by adoption, and includes a brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, half-brother, or half-sister. If the new designated beneficiary is not an eligible individual for the tax year or is not a member of the family of the former beneficiary, the Form 1099-QA filed with respect to the former designated beneficiary should include in box 1 the fair market value (FMV) of the assets in the ABLÉ account on the date on which the change is made to the new designated beneficiary.

Statements to Recipients

If you are required to file Form 1099-QA, you must also furnish a statement to the designated beneficiary of the ABLÉ account reporting distributions, and to each contributor who received a returned contribution (plus earnings) attributable to the calendar year. Furnish a copy of Form 1099-QA or an acceptable substitute statement to each recipient, but only with regard to the amounts paid to that recipient. See part M in the current General Instructions for Certain Information Returns.

Truncating recipient's TIN on payee statements.

Pursuant to Regulations section 301.6109-4, all filers of this form may truncate a recipient's TIN (social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN)) on recipient statements. Truncation is not allowed on any documents the filer files with the IRS. A payer's TIN may not be truncated on any form. See part J in the current General Instructions for Certain Information Returns.

Payer's Name and TIN

Enter the name, address, and TIN of the payer. For a program established and maintained by a state that uses the EIN of the state, enter the name of the state on the first name line and the name of the program on the second name line.

Recipient's Name and TIN

List the designated beneficiary as the recipient unless you are reporting a returned excess contribution to the contributor. In that case, list the contributor as the recipient. Enter the TIN of the applicable recipient.

Account Number

The IRS encourages you to designate an account number for all Forms 1099-QA that you file. See part L in the current General Instructions for Certain Information Returns.

Box 1. Gross Distribution

Enter the gross distribution from the ABLE account during the calendar year. The gross distribution includes amounts distributed that the designated beneficiary intends to roll over to another ABLE account, but does not include program-to-program transfers. See Rollovers and program-to-program transfers, earlier. On a Form 1099-QA for a contributor, enter in box 1 the amount(s) of excess contributions returned plus earnings thereon.

Box 2. Earnings

To determine the earnings on the gross distribution reported in box 1, see Regulations section 1.529A-3(c).

The amount of the gross distribution minus the earnings portion of that distribution is the portion of the distribution that constitutes the return of investment in the account. This amount is computed by subtracting the amount in box 2 from the amount in box 1.

Box 4. Program-to-Program Transfer Checkbox

Check this box if a program-to-program transfer was made from this ABLE account to another ABLE account during the calendar year. See Rollovers and program-to-program transfers, earlier.

Box 5. ABLE Account Terminated Checkbox

Check the box if the ABLE account terminated during the calendar year.

Box 6. Other Than Designated Beneficiary Checkbox

Check this box if this form is being filed with respect to a distribution to, or for the benefit of, someone other than the designated beneficiary of the ABLE account, for example, a distribution of an excess contribution to the contributor.
