General Instructions

The executor of the decedent's estate must file Form 706-CE before the IRS can allow a credit for foreign death taxes claimed on Form 706, United States Estate (and Generation-Skipping Transfer) Tax Return. As explained in the instructions for Schedule P (Form 706), the credit for foreign death taxes is authorized either by statute or treaty. See the instructions for Schedule P (Form 706), section 2014, and the related regulations for more information on the credit for foreign death taxes and its application in cases involving a death tax treaty, including how to figure the amount of the credit.

Prepare three copies of Form 706-CE for each foreign country's death tax for which you are claiming credit. Send the original form and one copy to the foreign government to whom you paid the tax. Ask that office to certify the form and send it to the Internal Revenue Service Center, see Where to file, later. Keep the third copy for your records.

If the foreign government refuses to certify Form 706-CE, the executor must file it directly with the Internal Revenue Service Center, see Where to file, later. Complete the entire form, except Part III. Attach a statement under penalties of perjury to explain why the foreign government did not certify it. In addition, attach a copy of the foreign death tax return and a copy of the receipt or canceled check for the payment of the foreign death tax.

If you or any other person receives a refund of any of the foreign death tax for which you are claiming this credit, you or the person receiving the refund must notify the Internal Revenue Service Center listed in Where to file, next, within 30 days of receiving any refund. Regulations section 20.2016-1 describes what information to include in this notice. The persons who received the refund must pay any additional federal estate tax due.

Where to file. File Form 706-CE and amended Form 706-CE at the following address.
