Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form 944-X and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to IRS.gov/ Form944X.

Before you proceed with these instructions and completing Form 944-X, you'll need a copy of the Instructions for Form 944 because these instructions don't repeat all of the information included in the Instructions for Form 944. For example, these instructions don't discuss who is eligible to claim the credit for qualified sick and family leave wages or the COBRA premium assistance credit. The current Instructions for Form 944 are available at IRS.gov/Form944. If you need a prior revision of the Instructions for Form 944, select the link for "All revisions for Form 944" under "Other items you may find useful."

What's New

Period of limitations to make certain corrections expired; Form 944-X, lines 17a, 23, 24, 26a, 30, 31, 32, 39, and 40 are now reserved for future use. Lines 17a, 23, 24, 26a, 30, 31, 32, 39, and 40 are now reserved for future use because the period of limitations for correcting these lines has generally expired for most employers. Generally, you may correct overreported taxes on a previously filed Form 944 if you file Form 944-X within 3 years of the date Form 944 was filed or 2 years from the date you paid the tax reported on Form 944, whichever is later. You may correct underreported taxes on a previously filed Form 944 if you file Form 944-X within 3 years of the date the Form 944 was filed. We call each of these time frames a period of limitations.

For purposes of the period of limitations, Form 944 for a calendar year is considered filed on April 15 of the succeeding year if filed before that date. For an example of the period of limitations, see Is There a Deadline for Filing Form 944-X, later. Before using any line on Form 944-X, you must consider if the period of limitations, as described above, is still open for the year that you're correcting.

Lines 23 and 24 were previously used to correct the deferred amount of the employer and employee share of social security tax for 2020. The period of limitations for making corrections to the deferred amount of the employer or employee share of social security tax generally expired for most employers on April 15, 2024. These instructions no longer discuss these deferrals. If you think that the period of limitations is still open for correcting your 2020 Form 944, you can still file the February 2024 revision of Form 944-X to use lines 23 and 24.

Lines 17a, 26a, 30, 31, 39, and 40 were used only when correcting qualified wages paid for the employee retention credit and qualified health plan expenses allocable to those wages on a Form 944 filed for 2020 and 2021. The period of limitations for making corrections to qualified wages paid in 2020 for the employee retention credit and qualified health plan expenses allocable to those wages generally expired for most employers on April 15, 2024. The period of limitations for making corrections to qualified wages paid in 2021 for the employee retention credit and qualified health plan expenses allocable to those wages generally expired for most employers on April 15, 2025. Lines 39 and 40 were used only if your business was a recovery startup business in the third or fourth quarter of 2021. These instructions no longer discuss these lines. If you think that the period of limitations is still open for correcting your 2020 or 2021 Form 944, you can still file the February 2024 revision of Form 944-X to use lines 17a, 26a, 30, 31, 39, and 40.

Line 32 was used only when correcting qualified wages paid in 2020 for the work opportunity tax credit against payroll tax liability for qualified tax-exempt organizations that hire eligible unemployed veterans (Form 5884-C). The period of limitations for making corrections to line 32 generally expired for most employers on April 15, 2024. These instructions no longer discuss this line. If you think that the period of limitations is still open for correcting your 2020 Form 944, you can still file the February 2024 revision of Form 944-X to use line 32.

Reminders

If a line on Form 944-X doesn't apply to you, leave it blank. If you're correcting a year before 2021, you must leave blank lines 17b, 17c, 17d, 26b, 26c, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, and 38.

Unless otherwise noted, references throughout these instructions to Form W-2 include Forms W-2AS, W-2CM, W-2GU, W-2VI, and 499R-2/W-2PR; references to Form W-2c include Form 499R-2c/W-2cPR; references to Form W-3 include Form W-3SS and Form W-3 (PR); and references to Form W-3c include Form W-3C (PR).

The COVID-19 related credit for qualified sick and family leave wages is limited to leave taken after March 31, 2020, and before October 1, 2021, and can no longer be claimed on Form 944. Generally, the credit for qualified sick and family leave wages, as enacted under the Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA) and amended and extended by the COVID-related Tax Relief Act of 2020, for leave taken after March 31, 2020, and before April 1, 2021, and the credit for qualified sick and family leave wages under sections 3131, 3132, and 3133 of the Internal Revenue Code, as enacted under the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (the ARP), for leave taken after March 31, 2021, and before October 1, 2021, have expired. However, employers that pay qualified sick and family leave wages in a later year for leave taken after March 31, 2020, and before October 1, 2021, are eligible to claim a credit for qualified sick and family leave wages paid in that year. Effective for tax periods beginning after December 31, 2023, the lines used to claim the credit for qualified sick and family leave wages were removed from Form 944 because it would be extremely rare for an employer to pay wages after December 31, 2023, for qualified sick and family leave taken after March 31, 2020, and before October 1, 2021. Instead, if you're eligible to claim the credit for qualified sick and family leave wages because you paid the wages after December 31, 2023, for an earlier applicable leave period, file Form 944-X to claim the credit for qualified sick and family leave wages paid for the year that you paid the wages after you file Form 944. Filing a Form 944-X before filing a Form 944 for the year may result in errors or delays in processing your Form 944-X.

You will also continue to use Form 944-X to make corrections to the credit for qualified sick and family leave wages for earlier years if the period of limitations is still open.

Corrections to amounts reported on Form 944, lines 4a(i), 4a(ii), 8b, 10d, 15, and 16, for the credit for qualified sick and family leave wages for leave taken after March 31, 2020, and before April 1, 2021, are reported on Form 944-X, lines 9, 10, 16, 25, 28, and 29, respectively.

Corrections to amounts reported on Form 944, lines 8d, 10f, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, and 24, for the credit for qualified sick and family leave wages for leave taken after March 31, 2021, and before October 1, 2021, are reported on Form 944-X, lines 17b, 26b, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, and 38, respectively.

Credit for COBRA premium assistance payments is limited to periods of coverage beginning on or after April 1, 2021, through periods of coverage beginning on or before September 30, 2021. Section 9501 of the ARP provides for COBRA premium assistance in the form of a full reduction in the premium otherwise payable by certain individuals and their families who elect COBRA continuation coverage due to a loss of coverage as the result of a reduction in hours or an involuntary termination of employment (assistance eligible individuals). This COBRA premium assistance was available for periods of coverage beginning on or after April 1, 2021, through periods of coverage beginning on or before September 30, 2021. A premium payee was entitled to the COBRA premium assistance credit at the time an eligible individual elects coverage. Therefore, other than in rare circumstances, due to the COBRA notice and election period requirements (generally, employers have 60 days to provide notice and assistance eligible individuals have 60 days to elect coverage), January 2022 was generally the end of the period in which an assistance eligible individual would have elected coverage. Under some rare circumstances, it may be possible for a premium payee to become entitled to the COBRA premium assistance credit after January 2022. In these rare instances, the credit was still claimed on Form 944 filed for 2022 and an adjustment, if needed, can be made on Form 944-X for 2022. Employers eligible to claim the COBRA premium assistance credit after 2022 must file Form 944-X to claim the credit.

For more information on COBRA premium assistance payments and the credit, see Notice 2021-31, 2021-23 I.R.B. 1173, available at IRS.gov/irb/2021-23_IRB#NOT-2021-31; and Notice 2021-46, 2021-33 I.R.B. 303, available at IRS.gov/irb/2021-33_IRB#NOT-2021-46.

Corrections to amounts reported on Form 944, lines 8e, 8f, and 10g, for the COBRA premium assistance credit are reported on Form 944-X, lines 17c, 17d, and 26c, respectively.

If you claimed the credit for qualified sick and family leave wages for leave taken after March 31, 2020, and before April 1, 2021, and you make any corrections on Form 944-X to amounts used to figure this credit, you'll need to refigure the amount of this credit using Worksheet 1. You'll also use this worksheet to figure this credit if you're claiming it for the first time on Form 944-X.

If you claimed the credit for qualified sick and family leave wages for leave taken after March 31, 2021, and before October 1, 2021, and you make any corrections on Form 944-X to amounts used to figure this credit, you'll need to refigure the amount of this credit using Worksheet 2. You'll also use this worksheet to figure this credit if you're claiming it for the first time on Form 944-X. If you claimed the COBRA premium assistance credit and you make any corrections on Form 944-X to amounts used to figure this credit, you'll need to refigure the amount of this credit using Worksheet 3. You'll also use this worksheet to figure this credit if you're claiming it for the first time on Form 944-X.

Qualified small business payroll tax credit for increasing research activities.

For tax years beginning before January 1, 2023, a qualified small business may elect to claim up to $250,000 of its credit for increasing research activities as a payroll tax credit. The Inflation Reduction Act of 2022 (the IRA) increases the election amount to $500,000 for tax years beginning after December 31, 2022. The payroll tax credit election must be made on or before the due date of the originally filed income tax return (including extensions). The portion of the credit used against payroll taxes is allowed in the first calendar quarter beginning after the date that the qualified small business filed its income tax return. The election and determination of the credit amount that will be used against the employer's payroll taxes are made on Form 6765, Credit for Increasing Research Activities. The amount from Form 6765 must then be reported on Form 8974, Qualified Small Business Payroll Tax Credit for Increasing Research Activities.

For quarters beginning before January 1, 2023, the payroll tax credit can be used only against the employer share of social security tax for the quarter and any remaining credit is carried forward to the next quarter. Starting in the first quarter of 2023, the payroll tax credit is first used to reduce the employer share of social security tax up to $250,000 per quarter and any remaining credit reduces the employer share of Medicare tax for the quarter. Any remaining credit, after reducing the employer share of social security tax and the employer share of Medicare tax, is then carried forward to the next quarter. Form 8974 is used to determine the amount of the credit that can be used in the current quarter. Corrections to this credit are made on Form 944-X, line 15. If you make a correction to Form 944-X, line 15, you must attach a corrected Form 8974. For more information, see the Instructions for Form 8974 and go to IRS.gov/ResearchPayrollTC.

Forms in Spanish. Many forms and instructions discussed in these instructions have Spanish-language versions available for employers and employees. Some examples include Form 941 (sp), Form 944 (sp), Form SS-4 (sp), Form W-4 (sp), and Form W-9 (sp). Although these instructions don't reference Spanish-language forms and instructions in each instance that one is available, you can see Pub. 15 (sp) or go to IRS.gov/ SpanishForms to determine if a Spanish-language version is available.

Payroll tax credit for certain tax-exempt organizations affected by qualified disasters. Section 303(d) of the Taxpayer Certainty and Disaster Tax Relief Act of 2020 allows for a payroll tax credit for certain tax-exempt organizations affected by certain qualified disasters not related to COVID-19. This credit is claimed on Form 5884-D. If applicable to the year that you're correcting, you'll enter the credit claimed on Form 5884-D on Worksheet 1 to figure your credit for qualified sick and family leave wages for leave taken before April 1, 2021. For more information about this credit, go to IRS.gov/Form5884D.

Employee consents to support a claim for refund. Rev. Proc. 2017-28, 2017-14 I.R.B. 1061, available at IRS.gov/irb/2017-14_IRB#RP-2017-28, provides guidance to employers on the requirements for employee consents used by an employer to support a claim for refund of overcollected social security tax and Medicare tax. The revenue procedure clarifies the basic requirements for both a request for employee consent and for the employee consent, and permits a consent to be requested, furnished, and retained in an electronic format as an alternative to a paper format. The revenue procedure also contains guidance concerning when an employer may claim a refund of only the employer share of overcollected social security tax and Medicare tax.

The revenue procedure requires that any request for consent include an Additional Medicare Tax notice indicating that any claim on the employees' behalf won't include a claim for overpaid Additional Medicare Tax.

Correcting federal income tax withheld.

Generally, you may only correct administrative errors to federal income tax withholding (that is, errors in which the amount reported on Form 944, line 2, isn't the amount you actually withheld from an employee's wages) and errors for which section 3509 rates apply. See section 13 of Pub. 15, Employer's Tax Guide, for more information about corrections during the calendar year and about administrative errors. See section 2 of Pub. 15 for more information about section 3509. If section 3509 rates apply, see the instructions for lines 18–21, later.

Only transposition or math errors involving the inaccurate reporting of the amount actually withheld are administrative errors.

You can't file a Form 944-X to correct federal income tax withholding for prior years for nonadministrative errors. In other words, you can't correct federal income tax actually withheld from an employee in a prior year if you discover that you didn't withhold the right amount. For example, you can't correct federal income tax withheld in a prior year because you used the wrong income tax withholding table or you didn't treat a payment correctly as taxable or nontaxable. Similarly, if you paid federal income tax in a prior year on behalf of your employee, rather than deducting it from the employee's pay (which resulted in additional wages subject to tax), and in a subsequent year you determine that you incorrectly calculated the amount of tax, you can't correct the federal income tax withholding. However, you must still make any necessary corrections to the amount of wages you reported on Form 944 and Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, for a prior year by filing Form 944-X and Form W-2c, Corrected Wage and Tax Statement, respectively. You'll report the correct wages on Form 944-X, line 6, column 1.

The amount actually withheld is reflected on payroll information or on Form W-2, which can be used by the employee to claim a credit for withholding for individual income tax return purposes.

Correcting Additional Medicare Tax withholding and wages and tips subject to Additional Medicare Tax withholding.

Wages and tips subject to Additional Medicare Tax withholding are reported on Form 944, line 4d. Certain errors discovered on a previously filed Form 944 are corrected on Form 944-X, line 13.

However, you can't file a Form 944-X to correct the wrong amount of Additional Medicare Tax actually withheld from an employee in a prior year, including any amount you paid on behalf of your employee rather than deducting it from the employee's pay (which resulted in additional wages subject to tax). See the instructions for line 13, later, for more information on the types of errors that can be corrected and how the correction is reported on Form 944-X. For more information about Additional Medicare Tax withholding, see the Instructions for Form 944 or go to IRS.gov/ADMTfaq.

General Instructions:

Understanding Form 944-X

What Is the Purpose of Form 944-X?

References to federal income tax withholding don't apply to employers in American Samoa, Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands (CNMI), the U.S. Virgin Islands (USVI), and Puerto Rico, unless you have employees who are subject to U.S. income tax withholding.

Use Form 944-X to correct errors on a previously filed Form 944. Use Form 944-X to correct:

- Wages, tips, and other compensation;
- Federal income tax withheld from wages, tips, and other compensation;
- Taxable social security wages;
- Taxable social security tips;
- Taxable Medicare wages and tips;
- Taxable wages and tips subject to Additional Medicare
- Tax withholding;
- Qualified small business payroll tax credit for increasing research activities;

- Amounts reported on Form 944 for the credit for qualified sick and family leave wages for leave taken after March 31, 2020, and before April 1, 2021, including adjustments to Form 944, lines 4a(i), 4a(ii), 8b, 10d, 15, and 16;
- Amounts reported on Form 944 for the credit for qualified sick and family leave wages for leave taken after March 31, 2021, and before October 1, 2021, including adjustments to Form 944, lines 8d, 10f, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, and 24; and
- Amounts reported on Form 944 for the COBRA premium assistance credit for periods of coverage beginning on or after April 1, 2021, through periods of coverage beginning on or before September 30, 2021, including adjustments to Form 944, lines 8e, 8f, and 10g.

Use Form 843, Claim for Refund and Request for Abatement, to request a refund or abatement of assessed interest or penalties.

Don't request a refund or abatement of assessed interest or penalties on Form 944 or Form 944-X.

We use the terms "correct" and "corrections" on Form 944-X and in these instructions to include interest-free adjustments under sections 6205 and 6413 and claims for refund and abatement under sections 6402, 6414, and 6404. See Rev. Rul. 2009-39 for examples of how the interest-free adjustment and claim for refund rules apply in 10 different situations. You can find Rev. Rul. 2009-39, 2009-52 I.R.B. 951, at IRS.gov/irb/ 2009-52 IRB#RR-2009-39.

When you discover an error on a previously filed Form 944, you must:

- Correct that error using Form 944-X;
- File a separate Form 944-X for each Form 944 that you're correcting; and
- Generally, file Form 944-X separately. Don't file Form 944-X with Form 944.

However, if you didn't previously file Form 944 because you mistakenly treated your employees as nonemployees, you may have to file Form 944-X with Form 944. See the instructions for line 42, later.

If you didn't file a Form 944 for 1 or more years for which you should have filed Form 944, don't use Form 944-X. Instead, file Form 944 for each of those years. Also, see When Should You File Form 944-X, later. However, if you didn't file Forms 944 because you improperly treated workers as independent contractors or nonemployees and are now reclassifying them as employees, see the instructions for line 42, later.

Unless otherwise specified in these instructions, an underreported employment tax credit should be treated like an overreported tax amount. An overreported employment tax credit should be treated like an underreported tax amount.

For more information, including which process to select on lines 1 and 2, see Correcting an employment tax credit, later.

Report the correction of underreported and overreported tax amounts for the same year on a single Form 944-X, unless you're requesting a refund or abatement. If you're requesting a refund or abatement and you're correcting both underreported and overreported tax amounts, file one Form 944-X correcting the underreported tax amounts only and a second Form 944-X correcting the overreported tax amounts.

You'll use the adjustment process if you underreported employment taxes and are making a payment, or if you overreported employment taxes and will be applying the credit to Form 944 for the period during which you file Form 944-X. However, see the Caution under Is There a Deadline for Filing Form 944-X, later, if you're correcting overreported tax amounts during the last 90 days of a period of limitations. You'll use the claim process if you overreported employment taxes and are requesting a refund or abatement of the overreported tax amount. Follow the chart on page 6 of Form 944-X for help in choosing whether to use the adjustment process or the claim process. Be sure to give us a detailed explanation on line 43 for each correction that you show on Form 944-X.

Continue to report current year adjustments for fractions of cents, third-party sick pay, tips, and group-term life insurance on Form 944, line 6.

You have additional requirements to complete when filing Form 944-X, such as certifying that you filed (or will file) all applicable Forms W-2 and Forms W-2c. For corrections of overreported federal income tax, social security tax, Medicare tax, or Additional Medicare Tax, you must make any certifications that apply to your situation.

Don't use Form 944-X to correct Form CT-1, 941, 941-SS, 943, or 945.

Instead, use the "X" form that corresponds to those forms (Form CT-1 X, 941-X, 943-X, or 945-X).

Where Can You Get Help?

For help filing Form 944-X or for questions about federal employment taxes and tax corrections, you can:

- Go to IRS.gov/EmploymentTaxes and IRS.gov/CorrectingEmploymentTaxes;
- See Pub. 15 or Pub. 80, Federal Tax Guide for Employers in the U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, and the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands; or
- Call the IRS Business and Specialty Tax Line toll free at 800-829-4933 or 800-829-4059 (TDD/TTY for persons who are deaf, hard of hearing, or have a speech disability), Monday–Friday from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. local time (Alaska and Hawaii follow Pacific time; employers in Puerto Rico receive service from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. local time).

See also How Can You Get Forms, Instructions, and Publications From the IRS, later.

For tax years beginning after December 31, 2023, Pub. 15 is used by all employers, including employers in the U.S. territories. Pub. 80 is discontinued, but you may still need to reference the Pub. 80 that was applicable for the tax year that you’re correcting.

When Should You File Form 944-X?

File Form 944-X when you discover an error on a previously filed Form 944.

However, if your only errors on Form 944 relate to federal tax liabilities reported in Part 2 of Form 944 or on Form 945-A, Annual Record of Federal Tax Liability, don't file Form 944-X. To correct federal tax liabilities reported in Part 2 of Form 944, file Form 945-A, but only enter the monthly totals. The daily entries aren't required. For more information about correcting federal tax liabilities reported on Form 945-A, see the Form 945-A instructions.

Due dates. The due date for filing Form 944-X depends on when you discover an error and if you underreported or overreported tax. If you underreported tax, see Underreported tax next. For overreported tax amounts, you may choose to either make an interest-free adjustment or file a claim for refund or abatement. If you're correcting overreported tax amounts, see Overreported tax—Adjustment process and Overreported tax—Claim process, later.

If any due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, you may file Form 944-X on the next business day. If we receive Form 944-X after the due date, we will treat Form 944-X as filed on time if the envelope containing Form 944-X is properly addressed, contains sufficient postage, and is postmarked by the U.S. Postal Service (USPS) on or before the due date, or sent by an IRS-designated private delivery service (PDS) on or before the due date. If you don't follow these guidelines, we will consider Form 944-X filed when it is actually received. See Pub. 15 for more information on legal holidays. For more information about PDSs, see Where Should You File Form 944-X, later.

Underreported tax. If you're correcting underreported tax, you must file Form 944-X by the due date of the return for the return period in which you discovered the error (January 31 of the following year) and pay the amount you owe by the time you file.

Doing so will generally ensure that your correction is interest free and not subject to failure-to-pay (FTP) or failure-to-deposit (FTD) penalties. See What About Penalties and Interest, later. For details on how to make a payment, see the instructions for line 27, later.

If Form 944-X is filed late (after the due date of the return for the return period in which you discovered the error), you must attach an amended Form 945-A to Form 944-X.

Otherwise, the IRS may assess an “averaged” FTD penalty. See “Averaged” FTD penalty in section 11 of Pub. 15 for more information about “averaged” FTD penalties.

The total tax reported on Form 945-A, line M, must match the corrected tax (Form 944, line 9, combined with any correction entered on Form 944-X, line 22) for the year, less any previous abatements and interest-free tax assessments.

Example—You owe tax. On February 14, 2025, you discovered that you underreported $1,000 of social security and Medicare wages on your 2024 Form 944. File Form 944-X and pay the amount you owe by February 2, 2026 (January 31, 2026, is a Saturday), because you discovered the error in 2025 and February 2, 2026, is the due date for that year. If you file Form 944-X before February 2, 2026, pay the amount you owe by the time you file.

Form 944-X can't be used to correct underreported amounts of Additional Medicare Tax unless the amounts were withheld from employee wages.

Overreported tax—Adjustment process. If you overreported tax and choose to apply the credit on Form 944 or Form 941, file an adjusted return on Form 944-X soon after you discover the error but more than 90 days before the period of limitations on the credit or refund for Form 944 expires. See Is There a Deadline for Filing Form 944-X, later.

Form 944-X can't be used to correct overreported amounts of Additional Medicare Tax unless the amounts were not withheld from employee wages.

Example—You want your credit applied to Form 944. You filed your 2024 Form 944 on January 31, 2025, and payments were timely made. On May 5, 2025, you discover that you overreported tax on your 2024 Form 944. You file Form 944-X on June 6, 2025, and check the box on line 1 to indicate you want to use the adjustment process. The IRS treats your credit as a tax deposit made on January 1, 2025. When you file your 2025 Form 944, include the amount from Form 944-X, line 27, on the “Total deposits” line of your 2025 Form 944.

Overreported tax—Claim process. If you overreported tax on Form 944, you may choose to file a claim for refund or abatement on Form 944-X any time before the period of limitations on credit or refund expires. If you also need to correct any underreported tax amounts, you must file another Form 944-X reporting only corrections to the underreported tax amounts. See Is There a Deadline for Filing Form 944-X next.

You may not file a refund claim to correct federal income tax or Additional Medicare Tax actually withheld from employees.

Is There a Deadline for Filing Form 944-X?

Generally, you may correct overreported taxes on a previously filed Form 944 if you file Form 944-X within 3 years of the date Form 944 was filed or 2 years from the date you paid the tax reported on Form 944, whichever is later.

You may correct underreported taxes on a previously filed Form 944 if you file Form 944-X within 3 years of the date the Form 944 was filed. We call each of these time frames a period of limitations. For purposes of the period of limitations, Form 944 is considered filed on April 15 of the succeeding year if filed before that date.

Example. You filed your 2023 Form 944 on January 31, 2024, and payments were timely made. The IRS treats the return as if it were filed on April 15, 2024. On January 22, 2027, you discover that you overreported social security and Medicare wages on that form by $350. To correct the error, you must file Form 944-X by April 15, 2027, and use the claim process.

If you file Form 944-X to correct overreported tax amounts in the last 90 days of a period of limitations, you must use the claim process. You can't use the adjustment process.

If you're also correcting underreported tax amounts, you must file another Form 944-X to correct the underreported tax amounts using the adjustment process and pay any tax due.

How Should You Complete Form 944-X?

Use a Separate Form 944-X for Each Year You're Correcting

Use a separate Form 944-X for each Form 944 you're correcting. For example, if you found errors on your Forms 944 for 2023 and 2024, file one Form 944-X to correct the 2023 Form 944. File a second Form 944-X to correct the 2024 Form 944.

Employer Identification Number (EIN), Name, and Address

Enter your EIN, name, and address in the spaces provided. Also enter your name and EIN on the tops of pages 2, 3, 4, and 5, and on any attachments. If your address has changed since you filed your Form 944, enter the corrected information and the IRS will update your address of record. Be sure to write your name, EIN, "Form 944-X," and the calendar year you're correcting on the top of any attachments.

Return You're Correcting

Enter the calendar year of the Form 944 you're correcting in the box at the top of page 1. Enter the same calendar year on pages 2, 3, 4, and 5, and on any attachments.

Enter the Date You Discovered Errors

You must enter the date you discovered errors. You discover an error when you have enough information to be able to correct the error. If you're reporting several errors you discovered at different times, enter the earliest date you discovered an error here. Report any subsequent dates and related errors on line 43.

Must You Make an Entry on Each Line?

You must provide all of the information requested at the top of Form 944-X, page 1.

You must check one box (but not both) in Part 1. In Part 2, you must check the box on line 3 and any applicable boxes on lines 4 and 5. In Part 3, if any line doesn't apply, leave it blank. Complete Parts 4 and 5 as instructed.

How Should You Report Negative Amounts?

Form 944-X uses negative numbers to show reductions in tax (credits) and positive numbers to show additional tax (amounts you owe).

When reporting a negative amount in columns 3 and 4, use a minus sign instead of parentheses. For example, enter "-10.59" instead of "(10.59)." However, if you're completing the return on your computer and your software only allows you to use parentheses to report negative amounts, you may use them.

How Should You Make Entries on Form 944-X?

You can help the IRS process Form 944-X timely and accurately if you follow these guidelines.

- Type or print your entries.
- Use Courier font (if possible) for all typed or computer-generated entries.
- Omit dollar signs. You may use commas and decimal points, if desired. Enter dollar amounts to the left of any preprinted decimal point and cents to the right of it.
- Always show an amount for cents, even if it is zero. Don't round entries to whole dollars.
- Complete all five pages and sign Form 944-X on page 5.
- Staple multiple sheets in the upper-left corner.

What About Penalties and Interest?

Generally, your correction of an underreported tax amount won't be subject to an FTP penalty, an FTD penalty, or interest if you:

- File on time (by the due date of Form 944 for the year in which you discover the error),
- Pay the amount shown on line 27 by the time you file Form 944-X,
- Enter the date you discovered the error, and
- Explain in detail the grounds and facts relied on to support the correction.
- No correction will be eligible for interest-free treatment if any of the following apply.
- The amounts underreported relate to an issue that was raised in an examination of a prior period.

- You knowingly underreported your employment tax liability.
- You received a notice and demand for payment.
- You received a notice of determination under section 7436.

If you receive a notice about a penalty after you file this return, reply to the notice with an explanation and we will determine if you meet reasonable-cause criteria. Don't attach an explanation when you file your return.

Overview of the Process

To correct a previously filed Form 944, use Form 944-X to file either an adjusted employment tax return or a claim for refund or abatement. The adjustment process and the claim process are outlined below.

If you underreported the tax. If you underreported the tax on a previously filed Form 944, check the box on line 1 and pay any additional amount you owe by the time you file Form 944-X. For details on how to make a payment, see the instructions for line 27, later.

Example—You underreported employment taxes. On June 18, 2025, you discovered an error that results in additional tax on your 2024 Form 944. File Form 944-X by February 2, 2026 (January 31, 2026, is a Saturday), and pay the amount you owe by the time you file. See When Should You File Form 944-X, earlier. Don't attach Form 944-X to your 2025 Form 944.

If you overreported the tax. If you overreported the tax on a previously filed Form 944, choose one of the following options.

- Use the adjustment process. Check the box on line 1 to apply any credit (negative amount) from line 27 to Form 944 for the year during which you file Form 944-X.

- Use the claim process. Check the box on line 2 to file a claim on Form 944-X requesting a refund or abatement of the amount shown on line 27.

To ensure the IRS has enough time to process a credit for an overreporting tax adjustment in the year in which you file Form 944-X, you're encouraged to file Form 944-X correcting the overreported tax amount in the first 11 months of a year. For example, if you discover an overreported tax amount in December, you may want to file Form 944-X during the first 11 months of the next year. However, there must be 90 days remaining on the period of limitations when you file Form 944-X. See the Caution under Is There a Deadline for Filing Form 944-X, earlier. This should ensure the IRS will have enough time to process the Form 944-X so the credit will be posted before you file Form 944, thus avoiding an erroneous balance due notice from the IRS. See the example below.

If you currently file Form 941 instead of Form 944 and will claim a credit on Form 941, file Form 944-X in the first 2 months of a quarter in any quarter before the expiration of the period of limitations on Form 944. In the year of the expiration of the period of limitations on Form 944, file Form 944-X at least 90 days before the expiration date.

Example—You want your overreported tax applied as a credit on Form 944. On December 20, 2024, you discovered you overreported your tax on your 2023 Form 944 and wanted to choose the adjustment process. To allow the IRS enough time to process the credit, you filed Form 944-X on January 3, 2025, and take the credit on your 2025 Form 944.

Specific Instructions:

Part 1: Select ONLY One Process

Because Form 944-X may be used to file either an adjusted employment tax return or a claim for refund or abatement, you must check one box on either line 1 or line 2. Don't check both boxes.

Correcting an employment tax credit. For lines 1 and 2, if you underreported an employment tax credit, treat it like you overreported a tax amount. If you overreported an employment tax credit, treat it like you underreported a tax amount. If you're filing Form 944-X to adjust only an employment tax credit and you're not correcting any overreported taxes on Form 944-X, lines 6–13, skip lines 4 and 5.

1. Adjusted Employment Tax Return

Check the box on line 1 if you're correcting underreported tax amounts or overreported tax amounts and you would like to use the adjustment process to correct the errors.

If you're correcting both underreported tax amounts and overreported tax amounts on this form, you must check this box. If you check this box, any negative amount shown on line 27 will be applied as a credit (tax deposit) to your Form 944 or Form 941 for the period in which you're filing this form. See Example—You want your overreported tax applied as a credit on Form 944, earlier.

Form 944-X can't be used to correct overreported amounts of Additional Medicare Tax unless the amounts were not withheld from employee wages.

If you owe tax. Pay the amount shown on line 27 by the time you file Form 944-X. Generally, you won't be charged interest if you file on time, pay on time, enter the date you discovered the error, and explain the correction on line 43.

If you have a credit. You overreported employment taxes (you have a negative amount on line 27) and want the IRS to apply the credit on Form 944 (or Form 941) for the period during which you filed Form 944-X. The IRS will apply your credit on the first day of the Form 944 year (or Form 941 quarter) during which you filed Form 944-X. However, the credit you show on Form 944-X, line 27, may not be fully available on your Form 944 (or Form 941) if the IRS corrects it during processing or you owe other taxes, penalties, or interest. The IRS will notify you if your claimed credit changes or if the amount available as a credit on Form 944 or Form 941 was reduced because of unpaid taxes, penalties, or interest.

Don't check the box on line 1 if you're correcting overreported tax amounts and the period of limitations on credit or refund for Form 944 will expire within 90 days of the date you file Form 944-X.

See Is There a Deadline for Filing Form 944-X, earlier.

2. Claim

Check the box on line 2 to use the claim process if you're correcting overreported tax amounts only and you're claiming a refund or abatement for the negative amount (credit) shown on line 27. Don't check this box if you're correcting any underreported tax amounts on this form.

You must check the box on line 2 if you have a credit (a negative amount on line 27) and the period of limitations on credit or refund for Form 944 will expire within 90 days of the date you file Form 944-X. See Is There a Deadline for Filing Form 944-X, earlier.

The IRS usually processes claims shortly after they are filed. The IRS will notify you if your claim is denied, accepted as filed, or selected to be examined. See Pub. 556, Examination of Returns, Appeal Rights, and Claims for Refund, for more information.

Unless the IRS corrects Form 944-X during processing or you owe other taxes, penalties, or interest, the IRS will refund the amount shown on line 27, plus any interest that applies.

You may not file a refund claim to correct federal income tax or Additional Medicare Tax actually withheld from employees.

Part 2: Complete the Certifications

You must complete all certifications that apply by checking the appropriate boxes. If all of your corrections relate to underreported tax amounts, complete line 3 only; skip lines 4 and 5 and go to Part 3. If your corrections relate to overreported tax amounts, other than corrections related to underreported employment tax credits, you have a duty to ensure that your employees' rights to recover overpaid employee social security and Medicare taxes that you withheld are protected. The certifications on lines 4 and 5 address the requirement to:

- Repay or reimburse your employees for the overcollection of employee social security and Medicare taxes, or
- Obtain consents from your employees to file a claim on their behalf. See Rev. Proc. 2017-28 for guidance on the requirements for both a request for employee consent and for the employee consent.

3. Filing Forms W-2 or Forms W-2c

Check the box on line 3 to certify that you filed or will file

Forms W-2 or Forms W-2c with the Social Security Administration (SSA), as required, showing your employees' correct wage and tax amounts. See the General Instructions for Forms W-2 and W-3 for detailed information about filing requirements.

You must check the box on line 3 to certify that you filed Forms W-2 or Forms W-2c even if your corrections on Form 944-X don't change amounts shown on those forms. For example, if your only correction to Form 944 involves misstated tax adjustments, which don't impact the amounts reported on your employees' Forms W-2 (see the instructions for line 14, later), check the box on line 3 to certify that you already filed all required Forms W-2 and W-2c with the SSA. In this situation, you're certifying that you don't need to file Form W-2c because you already filed a correct Form W-2.

4. Certifying Overreporting Adjustments

If you overreported federal income tax, social security tax, Medicare tax, or Additional Medicare Tax and checked the box on line 1, check the appropriate box on line 4. You may need to check more than one box.

If you obtained written statements from some employees but you couldn't locate employees or secure the statements of the remaining employees, check all applicable boxes.

Provide a summary on line 43 of the amount of the corrections for the employees who provided written statements and for those who didn't.

You may not use Form 944-X to correct overreported amounts of Additional Medicare Tax unless the amounts weren't withheld from employee wages.

4a. Check the box on line 4a if your overreported amount includes each affected employee share of overcollected taxes. You're certifying that you repaid or reimbursed the employee share of prior year taxes and you received written statements from the employees stating that they didn't and won't receive a refund or credit for the prior year taxes.

Don't send these statements to the IRS. Keep them for your records. Generally, all employment tax records must be kept for at least 4 years. Records related to qualified sick leave wages and qualified family leave wages for leave taken after March 31, 2021, and before October 1, 2021, should be kept for at least 6 years. Copies must be submitted to the IRS if requested.

4b. Check the box on line 4b to certify that your overreported amount is only for the employer share of taxes on those employees who you were unable to find or those who didn't give you a statement described on line 4a.

4c. Check the box on line 4c to certify that your overreported amount is only for federal income tax, social security tax, Medicare tax, or Additional Medicare Tax that you didn't withhold from your employees.

5. Certifying Claims

If you're filing a claim for refund or abatement of overreported federal income tax, social security tax, Medicare tax, or Additional Medicare Tax and checked the box on line 2, check the appropriate box on line 5. You may need to check more than one box. If you obtained written statements or consents from some employees but you couldn't locate employees or secure the statements of the remaining employees, check all applicable boxes. Provide a summary on line 43 of the amount of the corrections for the employees who provided statements or consents and for those who didn't.

You may not file a refund claim to correct the incorrect amount of federal income tax or Additional Medicare Tax actually withheld from employees. If you request their consent to file a claim for social security tax or Medicare tax, you must tell your employees that you can't claim a refund of any Additional Medicare Tax on their behalf. See Rev. Proc. 2017-28 for sample language to use in your request.

5a. Check the box on line 5a if your overreported tax includes each affected employee share of prior year social security and Medicare taxes. You're certifying that you repaid or reimbursed the employees their shares of prior year social security and Medicare taxes and you received written statements from those employees stating that they didn't and won't receive a refund or credit for the prior year taxes. Don't send these statements to the IRS. Keep them for your records. Generally, all employment tax records must be kept for at least 4 years. Records related to qualified sick leave wages and qualified family leave wages for leave taken after March 31, 2021, and before October 1, 2021, should be kept for at least 6 years. Copies must be submitted to the IRS if requested.

5b. Check the box on line 5b if your overreported tax includes each affected employee share of prior year social security and Medicare taxes and you haven't yet repaid or reimbursed the employee share of taxes. You're certifying that you received consent from each affected employee to file a claim on the employee share of those taxes and you received written statements from those employees stating that they didn't and won't receive a refund or credit for the prior year taxes. An employee consent must:

- Contain the name, address, and social security number (or truncated taxpayer identification number, when appropriate) of the employee;
- Contain the name, address, and EIN of the employer;
- Contain the tax period(s), the type of tax, and the amount of tax for which the consent is provided;

- Affirmatively state that the employee authorizes the employer to claim a refund for the overpayment of the employee share of tax;
- Include the employee's written statement certifying that the employee hasn't made any previous claims (or the claims were rejected) and won't make any future claims for refund or credit of the amount of the overcollection;
- Identify the basis of the claim; and
- Be dated and contain the employee's signature under penalties of perjury. The penalties of perjury statement should be located immediately above the required signature.

Don't send these statements and consents to the IRS. Keep them for your records.

Generally, all employment tax records must be kept for at least 4 years.

Records related to qualified sick leave wages and qualified family leave wages for leave taken after March 31, 2021, and before October 1, 2021, should be kept for at least 6 years. Copies must be submitted to the IRS if requested.

In certain situations, you may not have repaid or reimbursed your employees or obtained their consents before filing a claim, such as in cases where the period of limitations on credit or refund is about to expire. In those situations, file Form 944-X but don't check a box on line 5. Tell us on line 43 that you haven't repaid or reimbursed employees or obtained consents at the time you file the claim. However, you must repay or reimburse your employees and certify that you have done so before the IRS can allow the claim.

5c. Check the box on line 5c to certify that your overreported tax is only for the employer share of social security and Medicare taxes.

This applies when affected employees didn't give you consent to file a claim for refund for the employee share of social security and Medicare taxes, they couldn't be found, or they didn't give you a statement described on line 5b.

5d. Check the box on line 5d to certify that your overreported amount is only for federal income tax, social security tax, Medicare tax, or Additional Medicare Tax that you didn't withhold from your employees.

Part 3: Enter the Corrections for the Calendar Year You're Correcting Employers in American Samoa, Guam, the CNMI, the USVI, and Puerto Rico must skip lines 6 and 7, unless you have employees who are subject to U.S. income tax withholding.

What Amounts Should You Report in Part 3?

On lines 6–13, columns 1 and 2, for each line you're correcting, show amounts for all of your employees, not just for those employees whose amounts you're correcting.

If a correction you report in column 4 includes both underreported and overreported amounts (see the instructions for line 41, later), give us details for each error on line 43.

Because special circumstances apply for lines 14–16, 17b–21, 25, 26b, 26c, 28, 29, and 33–38, read the instructions for each line carefully before entering amounts in the columns.

If any line doesn't apply to you, leave it blank.

If you previously adjusted or amended Form 944 using Form 944-X or because of an IRS examination change, show amounts in column 2 that include those previously reported corrections.

6. Wages, Tips, and Other Compensation

If you're correcting the wages, tips, and other compensation you reported on Form 944, line 1, enter the total corrected amount for all employees in column 1. In column 2, enter the amount you originally reported or as previously corrected. In column 3, enter the difference between columns 1 and 2.

If you or the IRS previously corrected the amount reported on Form 944, line 1, enter in column 2 the amount after any previous corrections.

line 6 (column 1)
line 6 (column 3)	If the amount in column 2 is larger than the amount in column 1, use a minus sign in column 3.

Example—Wages, tips, and other compensation increased. You reported $900 as total wages, tips, and other compensation on line 1 of your 2024 Form 944. In July of 2025, you discover that you had overlooked $100 in tips for one of your part-time employees. To correct the error, figure the difference on Form 944-X as shown.

Column 1 (corrected amount)	1,000.00
Column 2 (Form 944, line 1)	- 900.00
Column 3 (difference)	<hr/> 100.00

Example—Wages, tips, and other compensation decreased. You reported $900 as wages, tips, and other compensation on line 1 of your 2024 Form 944. In December of 2025, you discover that you included $200 in wages for one of your employees twice. To correct the error, figure the difference on Form 944-X as shown.

Column 1 (corrected amount)	700.00
Column 2 (Form 944, line 1)	- 900.00
Column 3 (difference)	-200.00

Example—Auto allowance; wages, tips, and other compensation increased. You paid one of your employees a $50 monthly auto allowance from October– December 2024 and didn't treat the payments as taxable wages. In February 2025, you realized that the payments were wages because they weren't reimbursements of deductible business expenses that were substantiated and paid under an accountable plan. You correct the error by treating the auto allowance as wages subject to income, social security, and Medicare taxes. Report the additional $150 of wages on Form 944-X, lines 6, 8, 12, and, if applicable, 13.

Be sure to explain the reasons for the corrections on line 43.

The amount on line 6, column 1, should be used on your Forms W-2 or Forms W-2c. This amount should also generally be used for any business expense deduction on your income tax return (or amended return) for wages paid.

7. Federal Income Tax Withheld From Wages, Tips, and Other Compensation

If you're correcting the federal income tax withheld from wages, tips, and other compensation you reported on Form 944, line 2, enter the total corrected amount in column 1. In column 2, enter the amount you originally reported or as previously corrected.

In column 3, enter the difference between columns 1 and 2.

line 7 (column 1)

- line 7 (column 2)

line 7 (column 3) If the amount in column 2 is larger than the amount in column 1, use a minus sign in column 3.

Copy the amount in column 3 to column 4.
Include any minus sign shown in column 3.

Generally, you may only correct administrative errors to federal income tax withholding (that is, errors in which the amount reported on Form 944, line 2, isn't the amount you actually withheld from an employee's wages) and errors for which section 3509 rates apply.

Only transposition or math errors involving the inaccurate reporting of the amount withheld are administrative errors. The administrative error adjustment corrects the amount reported on Form 944 to agree with the amount actually withheld from employees. See section 2 of Pub. 15 for more information about section 3509. If section 3509 rates apply, see the instructions for lines 18– 21, later.

You can't file a Form 944-X to correct federal income tax withholding for prior years for nonadministrative errors. In other words, you can't correct federal income tax actually withheld from an employee in a prior year if you discover that you didn't withhold the right amount. For example, you can't correct federal income tax withheld in a prior year because you used the wrong income tax withholding table or you didn't treat a payment correctly as taxable or nontaxable.

Similarly, if you paid federal income tax in a prior year on behalf of your employee rather than deducting it from the employee's pay (which resulted in additional wages subject to tax), and in a subsequent year you determine that you incorrectly calculated the amount of tax, you can't correct the federal income tax withholding.

Example—Prior year nonadministrative error (failure to withhold federal income tax when required). You were required to withhold $400 of federal income tax from an employee's bonus that was paid in December of 2024 but you withheld nothing. You discovered the error on March 14, 2025. You can't file Form 944-X to correct federal income tax withheld reported on your 2024 Form 944 because the error involves a previous year and the amount previously reported for the employee represents the actual amount withheld from the employee during 2024.

Example—Prior year administrative error (incorrectly reported amount of federal income tax actually withheld).

You had three employees. In 2024, you withheld $100 of federal income tax from Nathan Black, $200 from Leah Green, and $600 from Becky Lee. The total amount of federal income tax you withheld was $900. You mistakenly reported $600 on line 2 of your 2024 Form 944. You discovered the error on March 14, 2025. This is an example of an administrative error that may be corrected in a later calendar year because the amount actually withheld from employees' wages isn't the amount reported on Form 944. Use Form 944-X to correct the error. Enter $900 in column 1 and $600 in column 2. Subtract the amount in column 2 from the amount in column 1.

Column 1 (corrected amount)	900.00
Column 2 (Form 944, line 2)	- 600.00
Column 3 (difference)	<hr/> 300.00

Report the $300.00 as a tax correction in column 4.

Be sure to explain the reasons for this correction on line 43.

Example—Nonadministrative error reporting income tax because of repayment of wages paid in prior year.

You prepaid Jack Brown $4,000 of wages for 2 months of work in September 2024. You withheld $400 of federal income tax at the time you paid Jack. These amounts were reported on your 2024 Form 944. Jack left employment in October 2024 (after only 1 month of service). In February 2025, Jack repaid $2,000 to you for the 1 month Jack didn't work. You can't file Form 944-X to reduce the federal income tax withheld because you actually withheld the federal income tax from wages. You also can't file Form 944-X to reduce wages because the wages were income to Jack for the prior year.

These amounts were correctly reported on Form 944.

8. Taxable Social Security Wages

Qualified sick leave wages and qualified family leave wages for leave taken after March 31, 2021, and before October 1, 2021, were included on Form 944, line 4a, column 1, and can be adjusted only on Form 944-X, line 8.

If you're correcting the taxable social security wages you reported on Form 944, line 4a, column 1, enter the total corrected amount in column 1. In column 2, enter the amount you originally reported or as previously corrected. In column 3, enter the difference between columns 1 and 2.

line 8 (column 1)
- line 8 (column 2)

line 8 (column 3)

If the amount in column 2 is larger than the amount in column 1, use a minus sign in column 3.

Multiply the amount in column 3 by 0.124 (12.4% tax rate) and enter the result in column 4.

line 8 (column 3)

line 8 (column 4) If the amount in column 3 used a minus sign, also use a minus sign in column 4.

Note. If you checked the box on Form 944-X, line 4b or line 5c, because you're correcting only the employer share of tax on a decrease to social security wages, use 0.062 (6.2%) when multiplying the amount shown in column 3.

If you're correcting both shares of tax for some employees and only the employer share for other employees, enter the properly calculated amount in column 4. Be sure to show your calculations on line 43.

Example—Social security wages decreased. Following Example—Wages, tips, and other compensation decreased in the instructions for line 6, earlier, the wages that you counted twice were also taxable social security wages. To correct the error, figure the difference on Form 944-X as shown.

Column 1 (corrected amount)	700.00
Column 2 (Form 944, line 4a, column 1)	- 900.00
Column 3 (difference)	<hr/> -200.00

Use the difference in column 3 to determine your tax correction.

Column 3 (difference)	-200.00
Tax rate (12.4%)	x 0.124
Column 4 (tax correction)	-24.80

Be sure to explain the reasons for this correction on line 43.

9. Qualified Sick Leave Wages (For Leave Taken After March 31, 2020, and Before April 1, 2021)

Generally, the period of limitations for correcting qualified sick leave wages paid in 2020 expired on April 15, 2024, for most employers. Generally, the period of limitations for correcting qualified sick leave wages paid in 2021 expired on April 15, 2025, for most employers. For more information about the period of limitations, see Is There a Deadline for Filing Form 944-X, earlier.

Adjustments to the social security tax on qualified sick leave wages and qualified family leave wages for leave taken after March 31, 2020, and before April 1, 2021, are reported on Form 944-X, lines 9 and 10, respectively. Adjustments to the nonrefundable portion of the credit for qualified sick and family leave wages for leave taken after March 31, 2020, and before April 1, 2021, are reported on Form 944-X, line 16, and adjustments to the refundable portion of the credit are reported on Form 944-X, line 25. Adjustments to qualified health plan expenses allocable to qualified sick leave wages and to qualified family leave wages for leave taken after March 31, 2020, and before April 1, 2021, are reported on Form 944-X, lines 28 and 29, respectively. For corrections to a 2020 Form 944, the credit for qualified sick and family leave wages is only available for wages paid with respect to leave taken after March 31, 2020, and before January 1, 2021.

If you claimed the credit for qualified sick and family leave wages for leave taken after March 31, 2020, and before April 1, 2021, on your original Form 944, and you make any corrections on Form 944-X to amounts used to figure this credit, you'll need to refigure the amount of this credit using Worksheet 1. You'll also use this worksheet to figure this credit if you're claiming the credit for the first time on Form 944-X. For more information about the credit for qualified sick and family leave wages, go to IRS.gov/PLC.

Qualified sick leave wages paid with respect to leave taken after March 31, 2020, and before April 1, 2021, aren't subject to the employer share of social security tax; therefore, the tax rate on these wages is 6.2% (0.062). For more information about qualified sick leave wages, see Definition of qualified sick and family leave wages for leave taken after March 31, 2020, and before April 1, 2021, later, and go to IRS.gov/PLC.

If you're correcting the qualified sick leave wages you reported on Form 944, line 4a(i), column 1, enter the total corrected amount in column 1. In column 2, enter the amount you originally reported or as previously corrected. In column 3, enter the difference between columns 1 and 2.

line 9 (column 1)
line 9 (column 3)	If the amount in column 2 is larger than the amount in column 1, use a minus sign in column 3.

Multiply the amount in column 3 by 0.062 and enter that result in column 4.

line 9 (column 3)

x 0.062

line 9 (column 4) If the amount in column 3 used a minus sign, also use a minus sign in column 4.

Note. If you erroneously reported qualified sick leave wages for leave taken after March 31, 2020, and before April 1, 2021, on Form 944, line 4a, instead of on line 4a(i), you'll need to make a correction on Form 944-X, lines 8 and 9, and enter the properly calculated amount in column 4 for each line.

Example—Qualified sick leave wages increased. You paid $2,000 of qualified sick leave wages to only one of your employees on March 26, 2021. In March 2025, you discovered that you only reported $1,000 of qualified sick leave wages on your 2021 Form 944. To correct the error, figure the difference on Form 944-X as shown.

Column 1 (corrected amount)	2,000.00
Column 2 (Form 944, line 4a(i), column 1)	- 1,000.00
Column 3 (difference)	<hr/> 1,000.00

Use the difference in column 3 to determine your tax correction.

Column 3 (difference)	1,000.00
Tax rate (6.2%)	x 0.062
Column 4 (tax correction)	<hr/> 62.00

Be sure to explain the reasons for this correction on line 43.

10. Qualified Family Leave Wages (For Leave Taken After March 31, 2020, and Before April 1, 2021)

Generally, the period of limitations for correcting qualified family leave wages paid in 2020 expired on April 15, 2024, for most employers.

Generally, the period of limitations for correcting qualified family leave wages paid in 2021 expired on April 15, 2025, for most employers. For more information about the period of limitations, see Is There a Deadline for Filing Form 944-X, earlier.

Qualified family leave wages paid with respect to leave taken after March 31, 2020, and before April 1, 2021, aren't subject to the employer share of social security tax; therefore, the tax rate on these wages is 6.2% (0.062). For more information about qualified family leave wages, see Definition of qualified sick and family leave wages for leave taken after March 31, 2020, and before April 1, 2021, later, and go to IRS.gov/PLC. If you're correcting the qualified family leave wages you reported on Form 944, line 4a(ii), column 1, enter the total corrected amount in column 1. In column 2, enter the amount you originally reported or as previously corrected.

In column 3, enter the difference between columns 1 and 2.

line 10 (column 1)

- line 10 (column 2)

line 10 (column 3) If the amount in column 2 is larger than the amount in column 1, use a minus sign in column 3.

Multiply the amount in column 3 by 0.062 and enter that result in column 4.

line 10 (column 3)

x 0.062

line 10 (column 4) If the amount in column 3 used a minus sign, also use a minus sign in column 4.

Note. If you erroneously reported qualified family leave wages for leave taken after March 31, 2020, and before April 1, 2021, on Form 944, line 4a, instead of on line 4a(ii), you'll need to make a correction on Form 944-X, lines 8 and 10, and enter the properly calculated amount in column 4 for each line.

Example—Qualified family leave wages decreased. You paid $1,000 of qualified family leave wages to only one of your employees on March 26, 2021. In March 2025, you discovered that you erroneously reported $3,000 of qualified family leave wages on your 2021 Form 944. To correct the error, figure the difference on Form 944-X as shown.

Column 1 (corrected amount)	1,000.00
Column 2 (Form 944, line 4a(ii), column 1)	- 3,000.00
Column 3 (difference)	<hr/> -2,000.00
