Caution: DRAFT—NOT FOR FILING

This is an early release draft of an IRS tax form, instructions, or publication, which the IRS is providing for your information. Do not file draft forms and do not rely on draft forms, instructions, and pubs for filing. We incorporate all significant changes to forms posted with this coversheet. However, unexpected issues occasionally arise, or legislation is passed—in this case, we will post a new draft of the form to alert users that changes were made to the previously posted draft. Thus, there are never any changes to the last posted draft of a form and the final revision of the form. Forms and instructions are subject to OMB approval before they can be officially released, so we post drafts of them until they are approved. Drafts of instructions and pubs usually have some additional changes before their final release. Early release drafts are at IRS.gov/DraftForms and remain there after the final release is posted at IRS.gov/LatestForms. Also see IRS.gov/Forms.

Most forms and publications have a page on IRS.gov: IRS.gov/Form1040 for Form 1040; IRS.gov/Pub501 for Pub. 501; IRS.gov/W4 for Form W-4; and IRS.gov/ScheduleA for Schedule A (Form 1040), for example, and similarly for other forms, pubs, and schedules for Form 1040. When typing in a link, type it into the address bar of your browser, not a Search box on IRS.gov.

If you wish, you can submit comments to the IRS about draft or final forms, instructions, or pubs at IRS.gov/FormsComments. Include “NTF” followed by the form or pub number (for example, “NTF1040”, “NTFW4”, “NTF501, etc.) in the body of the message to route your message properly. We cannot respond to all comments due to the high volume we receive and may not be able to consider many suggestions until the subsequent revision of the product, but we will review each “NTF” message. If you have comments on reducing paperwork and respondent (filer) burden, with respect to draft or final forms, please respond to the relevant information collection through the Federal Register process; for more info, click here.

In completing the application, pay careful attention; the IRS may, at its discretion, require a plan restatement or additional information any time it’s deemed necessary.

The IRS annually updates the revenue procedure which sets forth the procedures for issuing determination letters to qualified plans, including determination letters for group trusts. The annual revenue procedure may be found in the Internal Revenue Bulletin. For example, the revenue procedure for 2023 is Rev. Proc. 2023-4.

Specific Instructions

Line 1a and 1b

Enter the name and address of the trust sponsor.

Address should include the suite, room, or other unit number after the street address. If the post office doesn't deliver mail to the street address and the plan has a P.O. box, show the box number instead of the street address. The address should be the address of the sponsor/employer.

Line 1g

Enter the 9-digit trust employer identification number (EIN) assigned to the trust sponsor.

The trust sponsor must have an EIN. To apply for an EIN:

- Online—Generally, a plan sponsor can receive an EIN by Internet and use it immediately to file a return. Go to IRS.gov/EIN.
- By mail or fax—Send in a completed Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN.

Note. This EIN must be used in all subsequent filings of the trust determination letter requests.

Line 1j

Due to space restrictions this field is limited to 70 characters, including spaces. Please complete this item with how the trust name should read on the trust determination letter to the extent permitted. Due to this restriction, please keep in mind that "Employees" and "Trust" are not needed and will be left off if space doesn't permit.

Line 1k

Enter the date the trust agreement was executed.

Line 1l

Enter the EIN of the group trust. Enter "N/A" if the trust doesn't have a separate EIN.

Line 2

Complete this line with the contact person, and attach a power of attorney or other written designation. The contact person will receive copies of all correspondence as authorized. See instructions for Form 2848 or Form 8821.

Line 3

A group trust retiree benefit plan is defined as the following.

- A pension, profit-sharing, and stock bonus trust or custodial account qualifying under section 401(a) that is exempt under section 501(a).
- An individual retirement account that is exempt under section 408(e).
- An eligible governmental plan trust or custodial account under section 457(b) that is exempt under section 457(g).
- A custodial account under section 403(b)(7).
- A retirement income account under section 403(b)(9).
- A section 401(a)(24) governmental plan.
- A retirement plan that is qualified under the Puerto Rico Code and described in section 1022(i)(1) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

Line 4

The group trust instrument must expressly limit participation in the group trust to group trust retiree benefit plans. The group trust instrument may also limit participation in the group trust to certain types of group trust retiree benefit plans. For example, the group trust instrument may limit participation in the group trust to pension, profit-sharing, and stock bonus trusts qualifying under section 401(a) that are exempt under section 501(a), and individual retirement accounts exempt under section 408(e). See Rev. Rul. 2011-1 for information on the assets of commingled trust funds.

A group trust retiree benefit plan may invest directly in the group trust or through a separate account maintained by an insurance company. See Rev. Rul. 2014-24.

The Path Act section 336(e) permits Church Plans to invest in group trusts after December 18, 2015, with the group trust permitted to hold:

1. The assets of a church plan; and
2. The assets of an organization controlled by or associated with a church that is described in IRC section 414(e)(3)(A), if the principal purpose or function is the administration of the plan described in 1, above.

The assets eligible for investment in a group trust also include church assets eligible to be commingled for investment purposes.

Line 5

The group trust instrument must expressly prohibit any part of its corpus or income that equitably belongs to any adopting group trust retiree benefit plan from being used for, or diverted to, any purpose other than for the exclusive benefit of the participants and the beneficiaries of the group trust retiree benefit plan.

Plan assets are treated as used for, or diverted to, a purpose other than for the exclusive benefit of the plan participants or beneficiaries, if the assets of one group trust retiree benefit plan are used to provide benefits under another group trust retiree benefit plan even if the plan participant or beneficiary receiving the benefits is a participant or beneficiary under both plans.

The Path Act effective December 18, 2015, permits assets that are permitted to be commingled with Church Plan assets to be held in a group trust.

Line 6

A group trust retiree benefit plan that is a governmental plan for purposes of section 401(a)(24) is treated as meeting the requirement to be tax exempt if it isn't subject to federal income taxation.

Line 7

Each group trust retiree benefit plan which adopts the group trust must expressly provide in its governing document that it's impossible for any part of the corpus or income of the group trust retiree benefit plan to be used for, or diverted to, purposes other than for the exclusive benefit of the plan participants and their beneficiaries. For more information, see Rev. Rul. 2011-1.

Line 8

The group trust instrument must expressly limit the assets that may be held by the group trust to assets that are contributed by, or transferred from, a group trust retiree benefit plan to the group trust (and the earnings on the assets), and the group trust instrument must expressly provide for the separate accounts (and appropriate records) to reflect the interest which each adopting group trust retiree benefit plan has in the group trust. This includes separate accounting for contributions to the group trust from the adopting plan, disbursements made from the adopting plan's account in the group trust, and investment experience of the group trust allocable to that account.

A transaction or accounting method which has the effect of directly or indirectly transferring value from the account of one adopting plan into the account of another adopting plan violates this separate accounting requirement. However, a transaction that merely exchanges investments at fair market value between the accounts of one adopting plan to another account of that adopting plan doesn't violate this separate accounting requirement.

Line 9

The group trust instrument must prohibit assignment by an adopting group trust retiree benefit plan of any part of its equity or interest in the group trust.

Line 10

The group trust instrument must be created or organized in the United States and be maintained at all times as a domestic trust in the United States.
