ADMINISTRATIVE

T. D. 10060, page 1070.

These final regulations remove the prohibition in the current regulation under section 6311(d)(2) that prevents the IRS from paying a fee under a contract that allows the receipt of credit card or debit card payments from a taxpayer and will remove the prohibition on charging the taxpayer a fee for paying taxes by credit or debit card, reflecting changes in the Taxpayer First Act. The final regulation does not require the IRS to change its current procedure of using third parties to process credit and debit card tax payments.

The IRS Mission

Provide America's taxpayers top-quality service by helping them understand and meet their tax responsibilities and enforce the law with integrity and fairness to all.

Introduction

The Internal Revenue Bulletin is the authoritative instrument of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue for announcing official rulings and procedures of the Internal Revenue Service and for publishing Treasury Decisions, Executive Orders, Tax Conventions, legislation, court decisions, and other items of general interest. It is published weekly.

It is the policy of the Service to publish in the Bulletin all substantive rulings necessary to promote a uniform application of the tax laws, including all rulings that supersede, revoke, modify, or amend any of those previously published in the Bulletin. All published rulings apply retroactively unless otherwise indicated. Procedures relating solely to matters of internal management are not published; however, statements of internal practices and procedures that affect the rights and duties of taxpayers are published.

Revenue rulings represent the conclusions of the Service on the application of the law to the pivotal facts stated in the revenue ruling. In those based on positions taken in rulings to taxpayers or technical advice to Service field offices, identifying details and information of a confidential nature are deleted to prevent unwarranted invasions of privacy and to comply with statutory requirements.

Rulings and procedures reported in the Bulletin do not have the force and effect of Treasury Department Regulations, but they may be used as precedents. Unpublished rulings will not be relied on, used, or cited as precedents by Service personnel in the disposition of other cases. In applying published rulings and procedures, the effect of subsequent legislation, regulations, court decisions, rulings, and procedures must be considered, and Service personnel and others concerned are cautioned against reaching the same conclusions in other cases unless the facts and circumstances are substantially the same.

The Bulletin is divided into four parts as follows:

Part I.—1986 Code.
This part includes rulings and decisions based on provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

Part II.—Treaties and Tax Legislation.
This part is divided into two subparts as follows: Subpart A, Tax Conventions and Other Related Items, and Subpart B, Legislation and Related Committee Reports.

Part III.—Administrative, Procedural, and Miscellaneous.
To the extent practicable, pertinent cross references to these subjects are contained in the other Parts and Subparts. Also included in this part are Bank Secrecy Act Administrative Rulings. Bank Secrecy Act Administrative Rulings are issued by the Department of the Treasury's Office of the Assistant Secretary (Enforcement).

Part IV.—Items of General Interest.
This part includes notices of proposed rulemakings, disbarment and suspension lists, and announcements.

The last Bulletin for each month includes a cumulative index for the matters published during the preceding months. These monthly indexes are cumulated on a semiannual basis, and are published in the last Bulletin of each semiannual period.

The contents of this publication are not copyrighted and may be reprinted freely. A citation of the Internal Revenue Bulletin as the source would be appropriate.

Part I

Section 995.—Taxation of DISC Income to Shareholders

2026 Base Period T-Bill Rate. The "base period T-bill rate" for the period ending September 30, 2026, is published as required by section 995(f) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Rev. Rul. 2026-23

Section 995(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code provides that a shareholder of a domestic international sales corporation ("DISC") shall pay interest for each taxable year in an amount equal to the product of the "shareholder's DISC-related deferred tax liability" for the year (as defined in section 995(f)(2)) and the "base period T-bill rate." Under section 995(f)(4), the base period T-bill rate is "the annual rate of interest determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to the average of the 1-year constant maturity Treasury yields, as published by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, for the 1-year period ending on September 30 of the calendar year ending with (or of the most recent calendar year ending before) the close of the taxable year of the shareholder."

The base period T-bill rate for the period ending September 30, 2026, is 3.78 percent.

Pursuant to section 6622 of the Internal Revenue Code, interest must be compounded daily. The table below provides factors for compounding the 2026 base period T-bill rate daily for any number of days in the shareholder's taxable year (including for a 52-53 week taxable year). To compute the amount of the interest charge for the shareholder's taxable year, multiply the amount of the shareholder's DISC-related deferred tax liability for that year by the base period T-bill rate factor corresponding to the number of days in the shareholder's taxable year for which the interest charge is being computed. Generally, one would use the factor for 365 days. One would use a different factor only if the shareholder's taxable year for which the interest charge is being determined is a short taxable year, if the shareholder uses a 52-53 week taxable year, or if the shareholder's taxable year is a leap year.

For the base period T-bill rates for periods ending in prior years, see Rev. Rul. 2025-23, 2025-49 I.R.B. 749; Rev. Rul. 2024-27, 2024-51 I.R.B. 1240; Rev. Rul. 2023-23, 2023-51 I.R.B. 1472; Rev. Rul. 2022-21, 2022-47 I.R.B. 468; Rev. Rul. 2021-22, 2021-47 I.R.B. 726; and Rev. Rul. 2020-25, 2020-48 I.R.B. 1109.

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY
Internal Revenue Service
26 CFR Part 301

Regulations Regarding Payment of Tax by Commercially Acceptable Means

AGENCY: Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Treasury.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This document contains final regulations regarding the payment of tax by commercially acceptable means. The final regulations reflect changes to the law made by the Taxpayer First Act that would allow the IRS to directly accept payments of tax by credit or debit card, without having to connect taxpayers to third-party payment processors. These final regulations remove restrictions on the payment of any fee by the IRS under any contracts related to payment of taxes by credit, debit, or charge card, and on the IRS imposing any fee or charge on persons paying taxes by credit or debit card.

DATES: Effective date: These final regulations are effective on October 19, 2026.

Applicability date: For date of applicability, see § 301.6311-2(g).

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Crystal Jackson-Kaloz of the Office of the Associate Chief Counsel (Procedure and Administration), (202) 317-5191 (not a toll-free number).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Authorityss

This document contains amendments to the Procedure and Administration Regulations (26 CFR part 301) issued by the Secretary of the Treasury or the Secretary's delegate (Secretary) under the authority granted by sections 6311 and 7805(a) of the Internal Revenue Code (Code) regarding the payment of internal revenue taxes by commercially acceptable means.

Section 6311(a) provides an express delegation of authority to the Secretary, stating that the Secretary may receive payment of internal revenue taxes by any commercially accepted means under conditions provided by regulations prescribed by the Secretary. Section 6311(d)(1)(A) directs the Secretary to prescribe regulations as the Secretary deems necessary to receive payment by commercially acceptable means, including regulations that specify which methods of payment by commercially acceptable means will be accepted.

Section 7805(a) authorizes the Secretary to "prescribe all needful rules and regulations for the enforcement of [the Code], including all rules and regulations as may be necessary by reason of any alteration of law in relation to internal revenue."

Background and Explanation of Provisions

This document contains final regulations under section 6311. These final regulations amend provisions of § 301.6311-2 of the existing regulations (existing § 301.6311-2) to implement the changes made to section 6311 by section 2303 of the Taxpayer First Act (TFA), Public Law 116-25, 133 Stat. 981, 1013 (July 1, 2019).

Section 6311(a) provides that it is lawful for the Secretary to receive payment for internal revenue taxes by any commercially acceptable means that the Secretary deems appropriate to the extent and under the conditions provided in regulations prescribed by the Secretary. Existing § 301.6311-2, which was adopted by the publication of TD 8969 in the Federal Register (66 FR 64740) on December 14, 2001, authorizes payment of internal revenue taxes by credit or debit card so long as such payments are made in the manner and in accordance with the forms, instructions, and procedures prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue (Commissioner).

Prior to passage of the TFA, section 6311(d)(2) authorized the Secretary to enter into contracts to obtain services related to receiving payment of taxes by credit card or debit card, or charge card, but prohibited the Secretary from paying any fee or other consideration under any such contract. Existing § 301.6311-2(f) implements this provision. Existing § 301.6311-2(e) prohibits the IRS from imposing any fee or charge on persons making payment of taxes by credit card or debit card.

Section 2303 of the TFA amended section 6311(d)(2) by adding a discretionary exception whereby the Secretary is no longer prohibited from paying a fee under a contract related to receiving payment of taxes by credit or debit card to the extent that the Secretary ensures that any such fee is fully recouped from the persons paying taxes by credit or debit card pursuant to such contract. This provision enables the IRS to receive benefits similar to other entities that accept credit or debit cards, including guaranteed receipt of funds and reduction of paper check processing costs. This provision also enables taxpayers to make a payment more easily by credit or debit card directly to the IRS, such as over the telephone, without having to separately wait for the IRS to connect them to third-party processors. See H. Rept. 116-39(I), 116th Cong., 1st Sess. at 90 (2019).[1]

On July 02, 2024, the Treasury Department and the IRS published in the Federal Register (89 FR 54746) a notice of proposed rulemaking (REG-120137-19) proposing amendments to § 301.6311-2 (proposed regulations). In response to proposed amendments to the regulations, the Treasury Department and the IRS received eight comments. The comments are available at https://www.regulations.gov. A public hearing was requested; however, because no one requested to speak at the public hearing, the hearing was cancelled. After careful consideration of the comments, the Treasury Department and the IRS adopt the text of the proposed regulations with no change.

Summary of Comments

Most comments were supportive of the proposed amendments to the regulations. Commenters generally noted that the ability of taxpayers to pay taxes by credit or debit card directly to the IRS would simplify the payment process, reduce the costs to taxpayers, and would encourage more taxpayers to timely pay their taxes.

One comment neither supported nor opposed the proposed amendments but requested that the IRS implement a better fee reimbursement model to improve the costs to taxpayers who pay taxes using credit or debit cards regardless of whether the proposed amendments are adopted. The concerns identified in the comment are outside the scope of these regulations, which do not actually implement any particular payment process or contract. Accordingly, a change to the proposed regulatory text is not necessary and the final regulations do not adopt this comment.

Another comment expressed the view that simpler language could be used in the proposed regulations and that certain terms may be ambiguous or have multiple interpretations. The Treasury Department and the IRS considered these recommendations but determined that the language used in the proposed regulations, which these final regulations adopt, is drafted in a straightforward way that is consistent with the statutory text, and that no further changes are necessary.

Another comment expressed support for the proposed regulations with the caveat that no fee should be associated with using a credit or debit card. The final regulations, consistent with the proposed regulations and the requirements of section 2303 of the TFA, will provide the Secretary with the discretion to pay a fee under a contract relating to receiving payment of taxes by credit or debit card to the extent the Secretary ensures that any such fee is fully recouped from the persons paying taxes by credit or debit card pursuant to such contract.

Another comment argued that the IRS must undertake a cost-comparison under Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular A-76 (Circular) "in keeping with the philosophy of" the Federal Activities Inventory Reform Act of 1998 (FAIR Act), codified at 31 U.S.C. 501, which identifies activities that are commercial in nature. The comment stated that the proposed regulations "would potentially unwind the longstanding policy of the Federal Government to contract with the private sector to provide purely commercial services such as card payment processing." Because neither section 6311 nor these regulations change the IRS's obligations under the Circular, and to the extent that IRS activities regarding collection of taxes by credit and debit card are subject to the requirements of the Circular and related laws, those activities will continue to be reviewed, and all

[1] In 2019, different versions of the TFA were introduced in the House and Senate and both bills contained provisions to amend section 6311 of the Code. H. Rept. 1957 was introduced in the House on March 28, 2019, and passed the House on April 9, 2019, but did not pass the Senate. Section 2303 of H. Rept. 1957 contained proposed statutory language amending section 6311(d) that was identical to the statutory language that was enacted a short time later on July 1, 2019, in section 2303 of H. Rept. 3151. Due to the procedural way in which H. Rept. 3151 became a vehicle for enacting the TFA, there are no separate House, Senate, or Conference Reports regarding H. Rept. 3151, which became the TFA, Public Law 116-25. Therefore, it is appropriate for the Treasury Department and the IRS to look to the House Ways and Means Committee Report for H. Rept. 1957, the immediate predecessor to H. Rept. 3151, to understand the intended scope of section 2303 of the TFA.

applicable requirements will be met upon implementation of the final rule. Accordingly, the Treasury Department and the IRS have determined that the requested cost comparison is beyond the scope of these regulations.

Finally, the Treasury Department and the IRS received one submitted comment that did not address the proposed regulations.

Special Analyses

I. Regulatory Planning and Review

These regulations are not subject to review under section 6(b) of Executive Order 12866 pursuant to the Memorandum of Agreement (July 4, 2025) between the Treasury Department and the OMB regarding review of tax regulations. Therefore, a regulatory impact assessment is not required.

II. Regulatory Flexibility Act

It is hereby certified that this regulation will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities pursuant to the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 6). This certification is based on the fact that the regulation would apply only to the IRS's ability to (1) pay a fee under a contract related to receiving payment of taxes by credit or debit card, and (2) recoup processing fees from the person paying taxes by credit or debit card. Under existing regulations, the IRS may not do either of those things. These final regulations would also implement a requirement under the TFA that the IRS must seek to minimize any fee the IRS is required to pay under such a contract. Because persons choosing to pay tax by credit or debit card are ordinarily required to pay processing fees to a third-party processor, the final regulations would not have a significant economic impact on such persons.

III. Unfunded Mandates Reform Act

Section 202 of the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (UMRA) requires that agencies assess anticipated costs and benefits and take certain other actions before issuing a final rule that includes any Federal mandate that may result in expenditures in any one year by a State, local, or Tribal government, in the aggregate, or by the private sector, of $100 million in 1995 dollars, updated annually for inflation. This rule does not include any Federal mandate that may result in expenditures by State, local, or Tribal governments, or by the private sector in excess of that threshold.

IV. Executive Order 13132: Federalism

Executive Order 13132 (Federalism) prohibits an agency from publishing any rule that has federalism implications if the rule either imposes substantial, direct compliance costs on State and local governments, and is not required by statute, or preempts State law, unless the agency meets the consultation and funding requirements of section 6 of the Executive order. These regulations do not have federalism implications and do not impose substantial direct compliance costs on State and local governments or preempt State law within the meaning of the Executive order.

V. Small Business Administration

Pursuant to section 7805(f) of the Code, the notice of proposed rulemaking preceding this regulation was submitted to the Chief Counsel for the Office of Advocacy of the Small Business Administration for comment on its impact on small business, and no comments were received.

VI. Congressional Review Act

Pursuant to the Congressional Review Act (5 U.S.C. 801 et seq.), the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs designated this rule as not a major rule, as defined by 5 U.S.C. 804(2).

Drafting Information

The principal author of these regulations is Crystal Jackson-Kaloz of the Office of the Associate Chief Counsel (Procedure and Administration). However, other personnel from the Treasury Department and the IRS participated in their development.

Adoption of Amendments to the Regulations

Accordingly, the Treasury Department and IRS amend 26 CFR part 301 as follows:

PART 301—PROCEDURE AND ADMINISTRATION

Paragraph 1. The authority citation for part 301 is amended to read, in part, as follows:

Authority: 26 U.S.C. 7805.

* * * * *

Section 301.6311-2 is also issued under 26 U.S.C. 6311.

Par. 2. Section 301.6311-2 is amended by:

1. Revising paragraph (d)(1).
2. Removing paragraph (e).
3. Redesignating paragraphs (f) through (h) as paragraphs (e) through (g).
4. Revising newly redesignated paragraph (e).
5. In newly redesignated paragraph (f), removing the language "Internal Revenue Service" and adding the language "IRS" in its place.
6. Revising newly redesignated paragraph (g).

The revisions read as follows:

§ 301.6311-2 Payment by credit card and debit card.

* * * * *

(d) Resolution of errors relating to the credit card or debit card account—(1) In general. Payments of taxes by credit card or debit card, and payments of reimbursement fees referred to in paragraph (e)(3) of this section, are subject to the applicable error resolution procedures of section 161 of the Truth in Lending Act (15 U.S.C. 1666), section 908 of the Electronic Fund Transfer Act (15 U.S.C. 1693f), or any similar provisions of State or local law, for the purpose of resolving errors relating to the credit card or debit card account, but not for the purpose of resolving any errors, disputes or adjustments relating to the underlying tax liability.

* * * * *

(e) Authority to enter into contracts--(1) In general. The Commissioner may enter into contracts related to receiving payments of tax by credit card or debit card if such contracts are cost beneficial to the government. The determination of whether the contract is cost beneficial will be based on an analysis appropriate for the contract at issue and at a level of detail appropriate to the size of the government's investment or interest.

(2) Contracts under which fees are prohibited. The Commissioner may enter into contracts that provide that the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) will not pay a fee, charge, or other monetary consideration under such contracts related to payments of tax by credit card or debit card. For payments of tax under such contracts, this section does not prohibit the imposition of fees or charges by issuers of credit cards or debit cards or by any other financial institutions or persons participating in the credit card or debit card transaction. The IRS may not receive any part of any such fees that may be charged.

(3) Contracts under which fees are permitted and must be recouped. The Commissioner may enter into contracts that provide that the IRS will pay a fee, charge, or other monetary consideration under such contracts related to payments of tax by credit card or debit card. If the IRS pays a fee under such contracts, it must recoup the full amount paid under such contracts as a reimbursement fee from the persons paying tax by credit card or debit card. The reimbursement fees will be limited to the amount of the fees that IRS pays under any such contract and will be paid at the time of, and in addition to, the tax payment. The reimbursement fee is not a tax imposed by the Code, and no portion of the reimbursement fee is eligible for refund or credit under section 6402 of the Code. The error resolution procedures described in paragraph (d)(1) of this section will apply to any errors concerning the reimbursement fee. In negotiating contracts under this paragraph (e)(3), the Commissioner will seek to minimize the amount of the fees paid.

* * * * *

(g) Applicability date. The rules of this section apply to payments of taxes and reimbursement fees made on or after October 19, 2026.

Frank J. Bisignano
Chief Executive Officer.

Approved: September 10, 2026

Kevin M. Salinger,
Acting Assistant Secretary of the Treasury (Tax Policy).

Part III

Designated Qualified Opportunity Zones under Section 1400Z-1

Notice 2026-67

SECTION 1. PURPOSE

This notice lists the population census tracts that have been designated as qualified opportunity zones (QOZs) under § 1400Z-1 of the Internal Revenue Code (Code)[1] for the QOZ designation period beginning January 1, 2027.

SECTION 2. BACKGROUND

.01 Qualified opportunity zones.

(1) Section 1400Z-1 provides rules for the designation of QOZs, and § 1400Z-2 provides federal income tax rules applicable to certain investments in qualified opportunity funds and qualified opportunity zone businesses that invest in QOZs. Sections 1400Z-1 and 1400Z-2 were added to the Code by § 13823 of Public Law 115-97, 131 Stat. 2054, 2183 (December 22, 2017), commonly known as the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, and amended by § 70421 of Public Law 119-21, 139 Stat. 72, 223-30 (July 4, 2025), commonly known as the One, Big, Beautiful Bill Act (OBBBA).

(2) Under § 1400Z-1(b)(1), a population census tract that is a low-income community (LIC) becomes a QOZ if, not later than the end of the determination period, the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the State in which the tract is located nominates the tract and, in writing, notifies the Secretary of the Treasury or the Secretary's delegate (Secretary) of the nomination, and the Secretary certifies the nomination and designates the tract as a QOZ before the end of the consideration period. For this purpose, the term "State" includes the District of Columbia and any U.S. territory. See §§ 1400Z-1(c)(3) and 7701(a)(10).

.02 2026 nomination and designation process.

(1) Under § 1400Z-1(c)(2)(C), the first decennial determination date under the QOZ designation rules, as amended by the OBBBA, was July 1, 2026. Under § 1400Z-1(c)(2)(B) and (b)(2), the determination period generally is the 90-day period beginning on the decennial determination date. This period ended on September 28, 2026. Section 1400Z-1(b)(2) provides for a 30-day extension of the determination period, during which a State CEO is able to continue to make or amend nominations. This extension period ended on October 28, 2026. Section 1400Z-1(c)(2)(A) generally provides a 30-day consideration period beginning on the date the Secretary receives notice of a State CEO's nominations.

(2) Revenue Procedure 2026-14, 2026-20 I.R.B. 910, provided guidance to State CEOs regarding the procedure for nominating population census tracts for designation as QOZs effective January 1, 2027 (2027 QOZs). Revenue Procedure 2026-14 also identifies, using the 2020-2024 American Community Survey (ACS) 5-Year data and the 2020 Decennial Census of Island Areas (DECIA) data, population census tracts that the Department of the Treasury (Treasury Department) determined are LICs eligible for nomination as 2027 QOZs. Under § 1400Z-1(d), the number of population census tracts in a State that may be designated as QOZs during a designation period may not exceed 25 percent of the number of LICs in that State, subject to the special rules in § 1400Z-1(d)(2).[2]

(3) In addition to providing the list of population census tracts as LICs eligible to be designated as 2027 QOZs, Rev. Proc. 2026-14 alerted State CEOs that there may be population census tracts that satisfy the statutory definition of an LIC but that do not appear on the list. Therefore, the revenue procedure provided that nomination of a tract not on the list would be considered "to the extent that the nomination is accompanied by a detailed analysis, including current data collected at the census tract level, demonstrating the nominated population census tract satisfies the requirements under § 1400Z-1(c)(1)." Rev. Proc. 2026-14, § 5.04, 2026-20 I.R.B. at 913.

(4) Several State CEOs submitted nominations for population census tracts that were not included in the list in Rev. Proc. 2026-14, together with supporting data. In two types of situations, described below, the data adequately showed that the population census tracts at issue met the statutory requirements.

(a) Population census tracts with extraordinary population displacement. The Census Bureau's 5-year ACS data are published annually, but each represents observations collected over several preceding years. The data collection assesses individuals at the location where they are currently residing during the survey period, and uses the assessed demographic characteristics of those individuals to characterize the location. If, however, there is a substantial temporary displacement of residents who are disproportionately poor or low-income during the survey period, that characterization may be distorted. When the data collection process associates the displaced individuals with their temporary residences, it may mischaracterize the tracts of their permanent residence. That is, the temporary absence of the displaced individuals may cause the ACS to understate their home tract's true poverty rate or to overstate that tract's median family income (MFI). In unusual circumstances, the mischaracterization may cause the ACS to fail to identify a tract that otherwise meets the statutory LIC criteria under § 1400Z-1(c)(1). Given this mischaracterization, the Treasury Department recognizes a tract as an LIC for purposes of 2027 QOZ nomination if—

(i) An extraordinary event (for example, a major disaster) temporarily displaced a substantial number of residents from the tract when the ACS data were being collected;

[1] Unless otherwise specified, all "section" or "§" references are to sections of the Code.

[2] See section 2.02(3)(c) of Rev. Proc. 2026-14 for more information on the 25-percent limitation for the number of designations of QOZs.

(ii) The tract had qualified as an LIC under the most recent ACS data before the displacement; and

(iii) Reliable tract-level data demonstrate that the displaced residents systemically had lower family income or higher poverty than the non-displaced residents in ways that impaired the tract's ACS-measured qualification as an LIC.

(b) Population census tracts with estimated MFI or poverty rate data sufficient to meet statutory requirements when ACS methodology reports missing data. When the ACS data would not generate a reliable numerical value as the estimate of a tract's MFI or poverty rate, it reports the value as missing. In some cases, however, the ACS reports aggregate family counts by income range, making it possible to ascertain an upper bound for the tract's MFI. In such cases, the upper bound for a tract's MFI may be shown to be less than the statutory criterion in § 1400Z-1(c)(1) (and thus to satisfy that criterion), even though there are insufficient data to estimate how far below that level the MFI falls. Therefore, for purposes of 2027 QOZ nominations, the Treasury Department recognizes a tract as an LIC when such ACS data demonstrates that the upper bound for the tract's MFI was less than the statutory criterion in § 1400Z-1(c)(1).

In other cases, the ACS may report MFI and poverty rate as missing if there is no population in the tract during the ACS survey period. However, in some zero-population cases, there may be new residential development within the tract that became occupied after the ACS survey period but that serves a population with characteristics that would allow the tract to meet the statutory LIC criteria set forth in § 1400Z-1(c)(1). In such cases, for the purposes of 2027 QOZ nominations, the Treasury Department recognizes a tract as an LIC if the state can provide reliable, tract-level data demonstrating that a new residential population exists in the tract at the time of nomination such that the tract meets the statutory LIC criteria in § 1400Z-1(c)(1).

(5) The application of the alternative approaches discussed in section 2.02(4) of this notice is described in this section 2.02(5).

(a) Where applicable, the Treasury Department employed the two approaches discussed in section 2.02(4)(a) and (b) of this notice not only for the population census tracts whose nominations had initially raised the issues but for all population census tracts that had not been listed in Rev. Proc. 2026-14 (off-list tracts). Application of these approaches to all off-list tracts showed that 130 additional population census tracts satisfy the LIC definition and thus are eligible for nomination for designation as QOZs. Because the maximum number of nominations that a State CEO may make generally depends on the number of LICs in the jurisdiction, the increase in LICs increased the maximum number of nominations in 20 jurisdictions.

(b) All State CEOs were directly informed about the population census tracts in their jurisdictions that had been newly identified as LICs and, when applicable, about any increase in the number of permissible nominations in their jurisdiction.

(c) The methodology used to identify the original LICs listed in Rev. Proc. 2026-14 and the subsequent methodologies described in section 2.02(4)(a) and (b) of this notice are available for review on the Treasury Department's qualified opportunity zone transparency page, available at: https://home.treasury.gov/policy-issues/tax-policy/data-transparency/qualified-opportunity-zones.

.03 Period for which the designations are in effect.

Section 1400Z-1(e)(1) provides that a designation of a population census tract as a QOZ remains in effect for the 10-year period beginning on the applicable start date. Section 1400Z-1(e)(2) defines the applicable start date as the January 1 following the date on which the QOZ was certified and designated. Accordingly, the designation of each population census tract identified in the Appendix to this notice is effective beginning January 1, 2027, and remains in effect through December 31, 2036.

SECTION 3. LIST OF DESIGNATED QUALIFIED OPPORTUNITY ZONES

The Appendix to this notice contains the complete list of population census tracts that the Secretary has certified and designated as QOZs under § 1400Z-1 for the QOZ designation period beginning January 1, 2027, and ending on December 31, 2036. The IRS is required by § 1400Z-1(a) to follow this list of designated QOZs in administering § 1400Z–2. The Appendix includes the 2020 census tract number and a QOZID for each designated QOZ. The QOZID is the identifier to be used for information reporting purposes under §§ 6039K and 6039L of the Code.

SECTION 4. DRAFTING INFORMATION

The principal author of this notice is the Office of Associate Chief Counsel (Income Tax & Accounting). However, other personnel from the Treasury Department and the IRS participated in the development of this notice. For further information, contact OpportunityZone@cdfi.treas.gov.

[3] The "QOZID" is the identifier to be used on IRS forms to comply with information reporting obligations imposed by §§ 6039K and 6039L. The initial letter of the QOZID indicates whether the respective QOZ is (1) a QOZ comprised entirely of a rural area (rural QOZ) or (2) a non-rural QOZ. QOZIDs beginning with an "R" indicate rural QOZs and QOZIDs beginning with an "N" indicate non-rural QOZs. The last two digits of the QOZID, "27," indicates that the respective QOZ has a QOZ designation period beginning on January 1, 2027.

Update for Weighted Average Interest Rates, Yield Curves, and Segment Rates

Notice 2026-70

This notice provides guidance on the corporate bond monthly yield curve, the corresponding spot segment rates used under § 417(e)(3), and the 24-month average segment rates under § 430(h)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, this notice provides guidance as to the interest rate on 30-year Treasury securities under § 417(e)(3)(A)(ii)(II) as in effect for plan years beginning before 2008 and the 30-year Treasury weighted average rate under § 431(c)(6)(E)(ii)(I).

YIELD CURVE AND SEGMENT RATES

Section 430 specifies the minimum funding requirements that apply to single-employer plans (except for CSEC plans under § 414(y)) pursuant to § 412. Section 430(h)(2) specifies the interest rates that must be used to determine a plan's target normal cost and funding target. Under this provision, present value is generally determined using three 24-month average interest rates ("segment rates"), each of which applies to cash flows during specified periods. To the extent provided under § 430(h)(2)(C)(iv), these segment rates are adjusted by the applicable percentage of the 25-year average segment rates for the period ending September 30 of the year preceding the calendar year in which the plan year begins.[1] However, an election may be made under § 430(h)(2)(D)(ii) to use the monthly yield curve in place of the segment rates.

Section 1.430(h)(2)-1(d) provides rules for determining the monthly corporate bond yield curve, and § 1.430(h)(2)-1(c) provides rules for determining the 24-month average corporate bond segment rates used to compute the target normal cost and the funding target. Consistent with the methodology specified in § 1.430(h)(2)-1(d), the monthly corporate bond yield curve derived from October 2026 data is in Table 2026-10 at the end of this notice. The spot first, second, and third segment rates for the month of October 2026 are, respectively, 5.21, 6.13, and 6.85.

The 24-month average segment rates determined under § 430(h)(2)(C)(i) through (iii) must be adjusted pursuant to § 430(h)(2)(C)(iv) to be within the applicable minimum and maximum percentages of the corresponding 25-year average segment rates. Those percentages are 95% and 105% for plan years beginning in 2025, 2026 and 2027. For this purpose, any 25-year average segment rate that is less than 5% is deemed to be 5%. The 25-year average segment rates for plan years beginning in 2025, 2026, and 2027 were published in Notice 2024-67, 2024-41 I.R.B. 726, Notice 2025-47, 2025-40 I.R.B. 441, and Notice 2026-57, 2026-42 I.R.B. 499, respectively.

24-MONTH AVERAGE CORPORATE BOND SEGMENT RATES

The three 24-month average corporate bond segment rates applicable for November 2026 without adjustment for the 25-year average segment rate limits are as follows:

	24-Month Average Segment Rates Without 25-Year Average Adjustment
Applicable Month	First Segment	Second Segment	Third Segment
November 2026	4.43	5.41	6.14

The adjusted 24-month average segment rates set forth in the chart below reflect § 430(h)(2)(C)(iv) of the Code. The 24-month averages applicable for November 2026, adjusted to be within the applicable minimum and maximum percentages of the corresponding 25-year average segment rates in accordance with § 430(h)(2)(C)(iv), are as follows:

	Adjusted 24-Month Average Segment Rates
For Plan Years Beginning In	Applicable Month	First Segment	Second Segment	Third Segment
2025	November 2026	4.75	5.31	6.08
2026	November 2026	4.75	5.25	5.99
2027	November 2026	4.75	5.25	5.89

30-YEAR TREASURY SECURITIES INTEREST RATES

Section 431 specifies the minimum funding requirements that apply to multiemployer plans pursuant to § 412. Section 431(c)(6)(B) specifies a minimum amount for the full-funding limitation described in § 431(c)(6)(A), based on the plan's current liability. Section 431(c)(6)(E)(ii)(I) provides that the interest rate used to calculate current liability for this purpose must be no more than 5 percent above and no more than 10 percent below the weighted average of the rates of interest on 30-year Treasury securities during the four-year period ending on [1] Pursuant to § 433(h)(3)(A), the third segment rate determined under § 430(h)(2)(C) is used to determine the current liability of a CSEC plan (which is used to calculate the minimum amount of the full funding limitation under § 433(c)(7)(C)).

the last day before the beginning of the plan year. Notice 88-73, 1988-2 C.B. 383, provides guidelines for determining the weighted average interest rate. The rate of interest on 30-year Treasury securities for October 2026 is 5.47 percent. The Service determined this rate as the average of the daily determinations of yield on the 30-year Treasury bond maturing in August 2056. For plan years beginning in November 2026, the weighted average of the rates of interest on 30-year Treasury securities and the permissible range of rates used to calculate current liability are as follows:

Treasury Weighted Average Rates

For Plan Years Beginning In	30-Year Treasury Weighted Average	Permissible Range 90% to 105%
November 2026	4.70	4.23 to 4.93

MINIMUM PRESENT VALUE SEGMENT RATES

In general, the applicable interest rates under § 417(e)(3)(D) are segment rates computed without regard to a 24-month average. Section 1.417(e)-1(d)(3) provides guidelines for determining the minimum present value segment rates. Pursuant to that section, the minimum present value segment rates determined for October 2026 are as follows:

Minimum Present Value Segment Rates

Month	First Segment	Second Segment	Third Segment
October 2026	5.21	6.13	6.85

Definition of Terms

Revenue rulings and revenue procedures (hereinafter referred to as "rulings") that have an effect on previous rulings use the following defined terms to describe the effect:

Amplified describes a situation where no change is being made in a prior published position, but the prior position is being extended to apply to a variation of the fact situation set forth therein. Thus, if an earlier ruling held that a principle applied to A, and the new ruling holds that the same principle also applies to B, the earlier ruling is amplified. (Compare with modified, below).

Clarified is used in those instances where the language in a prior ruling is being made clear because the language has caused, or may cause, some confusion. It is not used where a position in a prior ruling is being changed.

Distinguished describes a situation where a ruling mentions a previously published ruling and points out an essential difference between them.

Modified is used where the substance of a previously published position is being changed. Thus, if a prior ruling held that a principle applied to A but not to B, and the new ruling holds that it applies to both A and B, the prior ruling is modified because it corrects a published position. (Compare with amplified and clarified, above).

Obsoleted describes a previously published ruling that is not considered determinative with respect to future transactions. This term is most commonly used in a ruling that lists previously published rulings that are obsoleted because of changes in laws or regulations. A ruling may also be obsoleted because the substance has been included in regulations subsequently adopted.

Revoked describes situations where the position in the previously published ruling is not correct and the correct position is being stated in a new ruling.

Superseded describes a situation where the new ruling does nothing more than restate the substance and situation of a previously published ruling (or rulings). Thus, the term is used to republish under the 1986 Code and regulations the same position published under the 1939 Code and regulations. The term is also used when it is desired to republish in a single ruling a series of situations, names, etc., that were previously published over a period of time in separate rulings. If the new ruling does more than restate the substance of a prior ruling, a combination of terms is used. For example, modified and superseded describes a situation where the substance of a previously published ruling is being changed in part and is continued without change in part and it is desired to restate the valid portion of the previously published ruling in a new ruling that is self contained. In this case, the previously published ruling is first modified and then, as modified, is superseded.

Supplemented is used in situations in which a list, such as a list of the names of countries, is published in a ruling and that list is expanded by adding further names in subsequent rulings. After the original ruling has been supplemented several times, a new ruling may be published that includes the list in the original ruling and the additions, and supersedes all prior rulings in the series.

Suspended is used in rare situations to show that the previous published rulings will not be applied pending some future action such as the issuance of new or amended regulations, the outcome of cases in litigation, or the outcome of a Service study.
