Minutes for the ETAAC public meeting January 10, 2024.

John Lipold opened meeting at 12:30 ET January 10, 2024, introduced the current ETAAC chair Timur Taluy

Taluy

Indicated that this is the 3rd meeting of ETAAC and that the group has formed 3 subcommittees, legislative, access to e-file, access to information and problem resolution. Taluy said the committees have begun work on the committee charters and high-level thoughts on potential recommendations. Taluy introduced the three sub committee chairs, Amy Miller, Ronn Gilson, and Mark Steber

Miller, leader of the legislative subcommittee said the committee charter is to make legislative enhancement recommendations to Congress and IRS leadership that will advance our collective work to improve service to taxpayers and make tax administration higher quality, more efficient, and more effective.

Gilson, leader of the access to e-file subcommittee said the committee charter I to provide convenient and meaningful electronic reporting options to taxpayers, businesses and states, thru the use of modern available technology and continued buildout of the IRS modernization of internal systems.

Steber, leader of the information sharing and problem resolution subcommittee said the committee charter is to provide recommendations that provide greater information including tax data access in real time easier accessible with security and privacy, approved and authorized via convenient venue while demonstrating successful leverage of IRS resources and capabilities including future projects with thoughtful prioritization of projects and initiatives for better tax administration and service delivery and to secure continued and future IRS funding security and uninterrupted stability.

Taluy ended the committee discussion sharing that anyone interested in serving on the committee should visit IRS.gov/ETAAC and apply as it is open season for ETAAC applications.

Lipold, shared that the next meeting will be March 20 and details will be posted on in the federal register and on the ETAAC website, IRS.gov/ETAAC.
