Instructions for Form 2587, Application for Special Enrollment Examination

General Information

The examination is offered in three parts and is administered by Prometric. Examination candidates should go to www.prometric.com/see for examination information, including:

- » How to register, schedule and pay for an examination
- » Examination locations
- » Length of the examinations
- » Examination content outline
- » Carryover rules
- » Test center regulations, including required identification

The fee is $259.00 for each of the three parts of the examination. The examination fee is not refundable.

Preparer Tax Identification Number (PTIN)

All applicants need a Preparer Tax Identification Number (PTIN) in order to register for any examination. Obtain a PTIN online at www.irs.gov/ptin. It only takes about 15 minutes to apply for or renew your PTIN online. Paper Forms W-12, IRS Paid Preparer Tax Identification Number (PTIN) Application, take 4-6 weeks to process.

Preparers without SSNs must follow the special instructions and complete the additional documentation as outlined in the Form W-12 instructions.

Registration, Scheduling and Payment

Before scheduling and paying, you must complete Form 2587. Once Form 2587 is completed, you may schedule and pay for your examination with Prometric. Candidates should complete Form 2587 only one time under our registration process. For example, if you register, but do not pass all parts of the examination, you will not have to complete Form 2587 in order to register for the examination again.
