- (1) I (We) hereby certify that I (We) plan to offer continuing education programs compliant with the continuing education regulations for other tax return preparers, enrolled agents, enrolled retirement plan agents (31 CFR, Part 10 reprinted as Treasury Department Circular No. 230).
- (2) I (We) agree to comply with the requirements of Circular 230 relative to each continuing education program offered, including but not limited to the following:
 - a. Program(s) will be designed to enhance professional knowledge in Federal taxation, Federal tax related matters, including ethics, consistent with the Internal Revenue Code and principles of effective tax administration.
 - b. Program(s) will be developed by individual(s) qualified in the subject matter.
 - c. Program(s) will utilize material specifically developed for instructional use. General professional literature and IRS publications will be used only to supplement specific program materials.
 - d. Program(s) will comply with topic requirements for relevant audience (e.g., continuing education programs for enrolled retirement plan agents must be designed to enhance professional knowledge in qualified retirement plan matters).
 - e. Content of program(s) will be accurate and current. I (We) will review and update program(s), at least annually, to ensure accuracy and consistency with current accepted standards relating to program(s)' subject matter.
 - f. Instructor(s), discussion leader(s), and/or speaker(s) will be qualified with respect to program content and will possess demonstrable teaching and communication skills.
 - g. Program(s) must include some means for participants to evaluate the technical content and presentation of the program material.
 - h. Program(s) will be measured in contact hours (50 minutes constituting one contact hour), with credit granted only for a full contact hour.
 - i. Certificates of completion bearing a qualified continuing education program number issued by the IRS will be issued to each individual who successfully completes the program(s).
 - j. Records will be maintained to verify participants who attended and completed each program for a period of four years following completion of the program. (For continuous conferences, conventions, and the like, records will be maintained to verify completion of the program and attendance by each participant at each segment of the program.)
- (3) I (We) agree to submit CE program participation data by PTIN holder to the IRS using the format, timing and instructions prescribed by the Return Preparer Office.
- (4) I (We) understand and agree that the above program(s) and related records will be subject to review by the Return Preparer Office and that additional documentation may be requested at the discretion of the IRS.
- (5) I (We) agree to renew our status as an IRS-approved continuing education provider on an annual basis for each year that we intend to offer IRS continuing education programs, using forms and guidance prescribed by the IRS.
- (6) I (We) understand and agree that if we fail to comply with this agreement or fail to meet acceptable standards in our programs, the IRS may revoke my (our) status as a provider of IRS approved continuing education. Notice of such revocation may be given by the Director of the Return Preparer Office to all individuals who practice before the Internal Revenue Service and are required to complete IRS approved continuing education.

Under penalty of perjury, I declare that I have examined this application and read all accompanying information, and to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information provided is true, correct and complete. I understand any false or misleading information may result in criminal penalties and/or the denial or revocation of my (our) status as a provider of IRS approved continuing education.

Instructions for Form 8498, Continuing Education Provider Application and Request for Provider Number

General Instructions

The Return Preparer Office is responsible for registering, renewing, and overseeing continuing education providers who offer continuing educational programs to enrolled agents, enrolled retirement plan agents, and other tax return preparers.

The IRS uses a vendor to process all requests to register, renew or add new programs as an IRS approved continuing education provider. The registration and renewal fee is the same: $675.00 per year. Check should be made payable to "IRS CE Application Fee". This fee is non-refundable.

Purpose of Form

Use Form 8498 to: 1) register as a new provider of continuing educational programs being offered to IRS enrolled agents, enrolled retirement plan agents, and other tax return preparers; 2) annually renew your status as an IRS-approved continuing educational provider; and 3) add new programs to an existing IRS-approved provider continuing education curriculum.

Who Must Register

Anyone who wishes to advertise, and grant continuing education credits, for programs which are approved by the IRS for enrolled agents, enrolled retirement plan agents, and other tax return preparers. A continuing education provider must be one of the following:

- An Accredited Educational Institution;
- Recognized for continuing education purposes by the licensing body of any State, territory, or possession of the United States, including a Commonwealth, or the District of Columbia;
- Approved by a qualifying organization (an IRS CE accrediting organization) as a provider of continuing education on subject matters designed for enrolled agents or enrolled retirement plan agents;
- Recognized by the IRS as a professional organization, society, or business whose programs include offering professional education opportunities in subject matters relating to Federal taxation, ethics, or professional conduct.

How to Register

Form 8498 may be filed electronically or by regular mail. The fastest and easiest way to have your registration processed is to electronically submit it to the vendor. If you must file Form 8498 by paper, the processing time will be 6-8 weeks. To find more information about applying to be a CE Provider, visit: www.irs.gov/taxpros/ce.

If mailing Form 8498, send to:

IRS Continuing Education Processing Center
P.O. Box 1559
Sacramento, CA 95812

What to File

File Form 8498 with all required documentation. A list of attachments can be found under the "Provider Information" section of these instructions. Note: Processing of this form may be delayed if the required documentation is not attached.

When to File

New applicants can apply anytime throughout the calendar year. If applicants are applying between Oct 1 and Dec 31 they must specify if they are applying for the current calendar year or the next calendar year

Providers may renew their status for the next calendar year between Oct 1 and Dec 31 of the current calendar year.

Who Must Sign

Form 8498 must be signed by the owner, officer, or an individual who is authorized to sign on behalf of the applicant and who is knowledgeable about the applicant's continuing education processes and programs.

Specific Instructions

1. Type of Application

- New Application. All Continuing Education Providers seeking IRS approval to offer CE credit must register. Continuing Education providers completing this application between October 1 and December 31 must designate whether they are applying to offer programs in current calendar year or next calendar by checking the appropriate box.
- Renewal. All Continuing Education Providers must renew annually to maintain their status as an IRS continuing education provider. Enter your five character CE Provider Number from your Provider Approval Letter 4866. Failure to enter a provider number will delay the processing of your renewal application.
- Request to add new program(s). A Continuing Education Provider who has had its educational curriculum approved in a prior year, may add any new programs to its education curriculum by submitting a Form 8498 anytime during the year. Programs must be assigned program numbers prior to the program being offered in the marketplace. Enter your five character CE Provider Number from your Provider Approval Letter 4866. Failure to enter a provider number will delay the processing additional programs.

2. CE Provider Name and Point of Contact Information

- Full Name of Continuing Education Provider. List the organizational name that will appear on the certificate of completion provided to the students at the completion of each program.
- Continuing Education Provider's EIN or PTIN. Business entities should enter an Employer Identification Number (EIN), if applicable. A Preparer Taxpayer Number (PTIN) may be used for sole proprietors with no EIN.
- Provider's Principal Point of Contact (PPOC). The provider's POC should be the person primarily responsible for the provider's relationship with the IRS. This must be someone who is knowledgeable about the company's continuing education processes and programs. When an email address is given for the PPOC, communication will be sent to the PPOC's email address alerting them to log in to their secure email box within the CE Provider Registration System.

3. Public Listing Information

- Link to my website, List my email address and List my phone number. Unless you opt out, your organization's name, URL and email address or telephone number will appear on our list of IRS-approved CE providers at IRS.gov/taxpros/ce.
- List my organization's name but do NOT show any contact information. Your provider name will appear on the list of IRS-approved CE providers but your email address and phone number will not. Your website will appear if you select the box next to the website URL. Your city and state will display, as well as the target audience and category of CE.
- DO NOT show my organization on public listing of IRS-approved providers. Neither your provider name or contact information will appear on the list of IRS-approved CE providers at IRS.gov/taxpros/ce. Selecting this field will make all other fields in this section inaccessible.

4. Provider Information

- i. Accredited Educational Institution. Attach a copy of the accreditation letter from a national or state accrediting body.
- ii. Recognized for continuing education purposes by state licensing body or equivalent. Attach a copy of the recognition letter or other acknowledgment received from the licensing body of a state, territory or District of Columbia.
- iii. Approved by an IRS CE Accrediting organization. Attach a copy of your approval letter received from an IRS approved Accreditor. A list of approved IRS approved Accreditors can be found at www.irs.gov/taxpros/ce.
- iv. Professional organization, society or business filing for approval as a continuing education provider. If you are a professional organization, society, or business registering as a "new" CE Provider, you must submit the following with Form 8498 for ONE program from each category offering below in #5: program material, program syllabus, program instructor biography, program examination (if required), evaluation form, and sample certificate of completion.

5. Continuing Education Provider Targeted Audience

Select all applicable targeted audiences for all programs that will be offered. For example, if a continuing educational program will be offered to Other Tax Return Preparers and Enrolled Agents, check both boxes.

6. Program Information - the information requested below must be provided for each new program submitted. If more than one program is being offered, include all of the following information for each program in an attachment. An incomplete submission will delay the processing of your application.

- Program Name. Include a descriptor to the specific program content in the program title.
- Program Description. Succinctly describe the major elements or contents of each program offered in a manner that provides sufficient information for the reviewer to make a determination that the program covers appropriate subject matter (federal tax, federal tax-related, qualified retirement plan matters, or ethics). Also include the manner in which the program will be delivered, e.g. speaker or panel; lecture or panel discussion; webinar; self study with test; on-line interactive; etc. If the presenter(s) is prominent in the subject area, include that name.
For additional information about program descriptions visit www.irs.gov/taxpros/ce.
- Number of Credit Program Hours. Enter number of credit program hours
- Targeted Audience for Program and Category of Continuing Education. Select each applicable target audience and an applicable category for which you seek authorization for each program. A program that covers state law issues will not qualify for IRS continuing education credit unless at least 80% of the program material consists of a comparison between federal and state tax laws. Note: Enrolled Agents enrollment/renewal continuing education requirements have not changed. Any federal tax update programs completed will count towards an EAs federal tax requirements, with the exception of the Annual Federal Tax Refresher course (no credit given for EAs).
- Program Delivery Method. Select all methods that will be used to deliver program content. For example, if program will be available as a self study and online group program, check both boxes.

7. Renew Program(s) – You may renew prior year programs you want to continue to offer by listing program number and program name. Program numbers from a prior year can continue to be used if the program content does not change. (Additional programs can be attached to this application). Note: Annual Federal Tax Refresher courses cannot be renewed. They must be added as new programs each year to ensure course content is current.

- Program Number. Include the full program number of the program you want to offer in the next calendar year.
- Program Name. Include the exact name of the title of the program associated with the above Program Number.
