Online fillable forms. Due to the very low volume of paper Forms 1099-QA and 5498-QA received and processed by the IRS each year, these forms have been converted to online fillable PDFs. Electronic reporting. Forms 1099-QA and 5498-QA can only be filed on paper.

Qualified ABLE Program

A qualified ABLE program is a program established and maintained by a state, or agency, or instrumentality of a state:

- Under which an ABLE account may be established for a blind or disabled individual whose blindness or disability occurred before age 26 (an "eligible individual"), who is the owner and designated beneficiary of the account;

- Which permits contributions to such ABLE account to pay for the qualified disability expenses of the account's designated beneficiary;
- Which limits a designated beneficiary to one ABLE account; and
- That meets the other requirements of section 529A.

Contributions. A program is not treated as a qualified ABLE program unless it provides that no contribution will be accepted:

1. Unless it is in cash; or
2. Except in the case of a rollover or program-to-program transfer from an ABLE account, if such contribution would result in aggregate contributions from all contributors to the ABLE account for the tax year exceeding the sum of:
 - a. $15,000 (in 2020), plus
 - b. In the case of additional contributions made by certain employed ABLE account designated beneficiaries, an amount up to the lesser of:
 - i. The designated beneficiary's compensation for the tax year, or
 - ii. The poverty line amount for a one-person household (Community Services Block Grant Act (42 U.S.C. 9902)). For 2020, this amount is:
 - $12,490 in the continental United States,
 - $15,600 in Alaska, and
 - $14,380 in Hawaii.

An employed designated beneficiary is not eligible for the increased contribution limit for the tax year if any contribution is made on behalf of the employee to a defined contribution plan (within the meaning of section 414(i)), a section 403(b) plan, or a section 457(b) plan. The designated beneficiary is responsible for maintaining adequate records to document the eligibility for increased contributions. See Notice 2018-62 at IRS.gov/irb/2018-34_IRB#NOT-2018-62.

Separate accounting. A qualified ABLE program must provide separate accounting for each designated beneficiary.

Limited investment direction. A qualified ABLE program provides that a designated beneficiary may directly or indirectly direct the investment of any contributions to the program (or any earnings on it) no more than two times in any calendar year.

Pledging of interest as security. A program is not treated as a qualified ABLE program if it allows any interest in the program or any portion of it to be used as security for a loan.

Excess aggregate contributions. A qualified ABLE program must provide adequate safeguards to prevent aggregate contributions on behalf of a designated beneficiary in excess of the limit established by the state under the state's qualified tuition program (QTP). Aggregate contributions include contributions to any prior ABLE account maintained by any qualified ABLE program for the same designated beneficiary or any prior designated beneficiary.

Return of excess contributions and excess aggregate contributions. A qualified ABLE program must return an excess contribution or excess aggregate contribution (including all net income attributable to that excess contribution or excess aggregate contribution) to the person who made the contribution on or before the due date (including extensions) for the federal income tax return of the designated beneficiary for the tax year in which the excess contribution or excess aggregate contribution was made.

Rollovers and program-to-program transfers. For purposes of these instructions, a "rollover" means a contribution to an ABLE account of the designated beneficiary (or of an eligible individual who is a member of the family of the designated beneficiary) of all or a portion of an amount withdrawn from the designated beneficiary's ABLE account, provided the contribution is made within 60 days of the date of the withdrawal and, in the case of a rollover to the designated beneficiary's ABLE account, no rollover has been made to an ABLE account of the designated beneficiary within the prior 12 months.

A "program-to-program transfer" means the direct transfer of the entire balance of an ABLE account to an ABLE account of the same designated beneficiary in which the transferor ABLE account is closed upon completion of the transfer, or of part or all of the balance to an ABLE account of another eligible individual who is a member of the family of the former designated beneficiary, without any intervening distribution or deemed distribution to the designated beneficiary.

Specific Instructions for Form 1099-QA

Who Must File

Any state or its agency or instrumentality that establishes and maintains a qualified ABLE program must file a Form 1099-QA, Distributions From ABLE Accounts, with the IRS on or before March 1, 2021, for each ABLE account from which any distribution was made or which was terminated during 2020. The filing may be done by either an officer or employee of the state, or its agency, or instrumentality having control of the qualified ABLE program, or the officer's, or employee's designee.

Do not file Form 1099-QA for a change in the name of the designated beneficiary on an ABLE account if the new designated beneficiary is an eligible individual and a member of the family of the former designated beneficiary. For these purposes, a "member of the family" means a sibling, whether by blood or by adoption, and includes a brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, half-brother, or half-sister. If the new designated beneficiary is not an eligible individual for the tax year or is not a member of the family of the former beneficiary, the Form 1099-QA filed with respect to the former designated beneficiary should include in box 1 the fair market value (FMV) of the assets in the ABLE account on the date on which the change is made to the new designated beneficiary.

Statements to Recipients

If you are required to file Form 1099-QA, you also must furnish a statement to the designated beneficiary of the ABLE account reporting distributions, and to each contributor who received a returned contribution (plus earnings) attributable to the calendar year. Furnish a copy of Form 1099-QA or an acceptable substitute statement to each recipient, but only with regard to the amounts paid to that recipient. See part M in the 2020 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns.

Truncating recipient's TIN on payee statements.

Pursuant to Regulations section 301.6109-4, all filers of this form may truncate a recipient's TIN (social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN)) on recipient statements. Truncation is not allowed on any documents the filer files with the IRS. A payer's TIN may not be truncated on any form. See part J in the 2020 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns.

Payer's Name and TIN

Enter the name, address, and TIN of the payer. For a program established and maintained by a state that uses the EIN of the state, enter the name of the state on the first name line and the name of the program on the second name line.

Recipient's Name and TIN

List the designated beneficiary as the recipient unless you are reporting a returned excess contribution to the contributor. In that case, list the contributor as the recipient. Enter the TIN of the applicable recipient.

Account Number

The IRS encourages you to designate an account number for all Forms 1099-QA that you file. See part L in the 2020 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns.

Box 1. Gross Distribution

Enter the gross distribution from the ABLE account in 2020. The gross distribution includes amounts distributed that the designated beneficiary intends to roll over to another ABLE account, but does not include program-to-program transfers. See Rollovers and program-to-program transfers, earlier. On a Form 1099-QA for a contributor, enter in box 1 the amount(s) of excess contributions returned plus earnings thereon.

Box 2. Earnings

To determine the earnings on the gross distribution reported in box 1, see Proposed Regulations section 1.529A-3(c).

Box 3. Basis

Enter the portion of the distribution that constitutes the return of investment in the account. The amount of the gross distribution minus the earnings portion of that distribution is the portion of the distribution that constitutes the return of investment in the account. This amount is computed by subtracting the amount in box 2 from the amount in box 1.

Box 4. Program-to-Program Transfer Checkbox

Check this box if a program-to-program transfer was made from this ABLÉ account to another ABLÉ account in 2020. See Rollovers and program-to-program transfers, earlier.

Box 5. ABLÉ Account Terminated Checkbox

Check the box if the ABLÉ account terminated in 2020.

Box 6. Other Than Designated Beneficiary Checkbox

Check this box if this form is being filed with respect to a distribution to, or for the benefit of, someone other than the designated beneficiary of the ABLÉ account. For example, a distribution of an excess contribution to the contributor.
