

Low Income Taxpayer Clinic List

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics (LITCs) represent low income individuals in disputes with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), including audits, appeals, collection matters, and federal tax litigation. LITCs can also help taxpayers respond to IRS notices and correct account problems. If you are a low income taxpayer who needs assistance in resolving a tax dispute with the IRS and cannot afford representation, or if you speak English as a second language and need help understanding your taxpayer rights and responsibilities, you may qualify for help from an LITC that provides free or low cost assistance. Using poverty guidelines published annually by the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), each LITC decides if you meet the income eligibility guidelines and other criteria before it agrees to represent you. Eligible taxpayers must generally have incomes that do not exceed 250 percent of the poverty guidelines. You can find LITC income eligibility guidelines at <https://www.irs.gov/advocate/low-income-taxpayer-clinics/low-income-taxpayer-clinic-income-eligibility-guidelines>.

LITCs receiving federal funding for the 2019 calendar year are listed below and are operated by nonprofit organizations or academic institutions. Although LITCs receive partial funding from the IRS, LITCs, their employees, and their volunteers are completely independent of the IRS. This publication is not a recommendation by the IRS that taxpayers retain an LITC or other similar organization to represent them before the IRS; the decision to obtain representation will not result in the IRS giving preferential treatment in handling the dispute or problem. In lieu of an LITC, low income taxpayers may be able to receive assistance from a referral system operated by a state bar association, a state or local society of accountants or enrolled agents, or another nonprofit tax professional organization.

An LITC's contact information may change, so please check for the most recent information at <https://www.irs.gov/advocate/low-income-taxpayer-clinics/low-income-taxpayer-clinic-map>.

For general questions about the LITC Program, contact the LITC Program Office at 202-317-4700 (not a toll-free call), or by email at LITCProgramOffice@irs.gov.
