Introduction

Revisions to Internal Revenue Code 6109 created the process for issuing an IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number to individuals who require a Taxpayer Identification Number for federal tax purposes, but who do not qualify for a Social Security Number.
Objectives

• Define an ITIN and explain its purpose
• Determine who needs an ITIN
• Identify and explain the special rules that apply to dependents and spouses
• Distinguish an Acceptance Agent (AA) from a Certifying Acceptance Agent (CAA)
Objectives (continued)

- Determine where to submit Form W-7/W-7(EN/SP)
- Determine what documentation needs to be attached to the ITIN application
- Determine how a tax return should be prepared when the taxpayer has an ITIN/SSN mismatch using TaxSlayer software
- Identify resources for more information
What is an ITIN?

An ITIN is:

• A tax processing number, issued by the IRS, for certain resident and non-resident aliens, their spouses, and dependents;

• All valid ITINs are a nine-digit number in the same format as the SSN (9XX-8X-XXXX), begins with a “9” and the 4th and 5th digits range from 50 to 65, 70 to 88, 90 to 92, and 94 to 99.

• Individual Taxpayer Identification Numbers (ITINs) that haven’t been included on a U.S. federal tax return at least once in the last three consecutive tax years will expire.
Purpose of ITINs

• ITINs are IRS assigned numbers issued only for federal tax purposes. An ITIN doesn’t entitle you to social security benefits and doesn’t change your immigration status or your right to work in the United States.

• ITINs provide a means to efficiently process and account for tax returns and payments for those not eligible for Social Security Numbers.

• ITINs assist the IRS with collection of taxes from foreign nationals, nonresident aliens and others who have filing or payment obligations under U.S. tax law.

ITINS do NOT

- Entitle the recipient to social security benefits or replace an SSN.
- Qualify an applicant for ALL credits
- Change the individual’s immigration status
- Give the individual the right to work in the U.S.
- Serve as identification outside the federal tax system.
Who Needs an ITIN?

Any individual who is not eligible for a SSN, but who must furnish a taxpayer identification number for U.S. tax purposes or to file a U.S. federal tax return.

Examples

• A nonresident alien individual claiming reduced withholding under an applicable income tax treaty for which an ITIN is required.

• A nonresident alien individual not eligible for an SSN who is required to file a U.S. federal tax return or who is filing a U.S. federal tax return only to claim a refund.

• A nonresident alien individual not eligible for an SSN who elects to file a joint U.S. federal tax return with a spouse who is a U.S. citizen or resident alien.

Examples (continued)

• A nonresident alien student, professor, or researcher who is required to file a U.S. federal tax return but who isn’t eligible for an SSN, or who is claiming an exception to the tax return filing requirement.

• An alien spouse or dependent claimed as an exemption on a U.S. federal tax return who isn’t eligible to get an SSN.

• A U.S. resident alien who files a U.S. federal tax return but who isn't eligible for an SSN.

- A dependent/spouse of a nonresident alien U.S. visa holder, who isn’t eligible for an SSN.

Note: The Tax Cuts & Jobs Act suspended deductions for personal exemptions for tax years 2018 through 2025. For tax years after December 31, 2017, spouses or dependents are not eligible for an ITIN unless they qualify for an allowable tax benefit or are filing their own tax return. The individual must be listed on an attached U.S. federal tax return with the schedule or form that applies to the allowable tax benefit.

This should not impact students applying under reason “f” on Form W-7, or their spouses or dependents who also apply under reason “f” under exception criteria.
Allowable Tax Benefit

An allowable tax benefit includes a spouse filing a joint return, Head of Household Filing Status (HOH), American Opportunity Tax Credit (AOTC), Premium Tax Credit (PTC), Child and Dependent Care Credit (CDCC) or Credit for Other Dependents (ODC).

Head of Household (HOH). An ITIN applicant who is a qualifying child or qualifying relative, other than your parents, who lived with you for more than half the year and meets certain other tests, or a parent may be a qualifying person for HOH. See Publication 501, for more information.

American Opportunity Tax Credit (AOTC). If Form W-7 is submitted to claim AOTC, then an attached tax return and Form 8863 that list the applicant are required. See Publication 970, for more information.

Premium Tax Credit (PTC). If Form W-7 is submitted to claim PTC, then an attached tax return, Form 1095-A and Form 8962 that lists the applicant are required. See Publication 974, for more information.

Child and Dependent Care Credit (CDCC). If Form W-7 is submitted to claim CDCC, then an attached tax return and Form 2441 that list the applicant as a qualifying person are required. See Publication 503, Child and Dependent Care Expenses, for more information.

Credit for Other dependents (ODC). If Form W-7 is submitted to claim ODC, the applicant must be listed on an attached tax return with the "Credit for other dependents" box checked next to their name. Dependent applicants must be your qualifying children or qualifying relatives who are U.S. residents or U.S. nationals. See Schedule 8812, Credits for Qualifying Children and Other Dependents, (Form 1040) and its instructions for more information.
Substantial Presence Test

This test determines if the individual is a resident or nonresident for tax purposes. To meet this test, you must be physically present in the United States on at least:

• 31 days during the current year, and
• 183 days during the 3-year period that includes the current year and the 2 years immediately before that, counting:
  ✓ All the days you were present in the current year, and
  ✓ 1/3 of the days you were present in the first year before the current year, and
  ✓ 1/6 of the days you were present in the second year before the current year.
Rules For Dependents

Only residents of the following countries may be able to claim an exemption or related credit for their dependents on a U.S. federal income tax return:

• United States
• Canada
• India
• Mexico
• Republic of Korea (South Korea)

NOTE: The exemption amount for all taxpayers is ZERO starting with tax years beginning January 1, 2018, through 2025. However, taxpayers with qualifying dependents who live with them in the U.S. may qualify for the Credit for Other Dependents.
Who is Not Eligible for an ITIN?

• U.S. citizens

• Aliens with visas permitting them to work in the U.S. (qualify for an SSN)

• Permanent legal resident of the U.S. (Green card holder, also known as Permanent Resident Card)

• Any individual who is eligible for or has a valid SSN

• Applicant not meeting the criteria for residency and/or ID documentation (who failed to prove identity and foreign status)
How to Apply for an ITIN?

Each person who requires an ITIN must file a separate Form W-7/ W-7(EN/SP) and provide supporting documentation that established identity and connection to a foreign country (foreign status).
How to Apply for an ITIN?

- Form W-7/ W-7(EN/SP) must be completed and accompanied by supporting documentation and a U.S. federal income tax return. The applicant's name must match the name as it appears on their identifying documents. This is also the name that should be used on the tax return.

  NOTE: There are exceptions to the requirement to include a U.S. federal tax return. If you claim one of these exceptions, you must also submit the required exception documentation (as listed in the instructions for Form W-7) instead of a tax return.

- Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, must have the same name that appears on the federal tax return submitted with Form W-7.
ITIN Documentation

Documents substantiating proof of identity and foreign status must be:

• Original, or

• Certified* copies from the issuing agency

* Certified copies of documents submitted to prove “identity” and “foreign status” must bear an original, authentic stamp/seal placed by the issuing agency. Documents displaying a photocopied seal or stamp are not acceptable and will be returned to the applicant.
When to Attach Federal Tax Return to Form W-7/W-7(EN/SP)

All Individuals applying for an ITIN for the first time or renewing an existing ITIN must include a U.S. federal tax return unless they meet one of the 5 exceptions below.

1. Passive income - third-party withholding or tax treaty benefits.

2. Other income - Treaty benefits - (See Publication 1915, Understanding your IRS Individual Identification Number (ITIN), for more specific information on all types of income)

3. Mortgage interest - third-party reporting
When to Attach Federal Tax Return to Form W-7/W-7(EN/SP) (continued)

4. Dispositions by a foreign person of U.S. real property - third party withholding.

5. TD-9363 - Treasury Directive 9363 with Form W-7 and supplemental documentation.

For additional information on exceptions, see Publication 1915 or Form W-7/ W-7(EN/SP) instructions.
Acceptable Documentation for ITIN

There are 13 acceptable documents that can be used to obtain an ITIN.

Passport. If you submit an original valid passport or a certified copy* from the issuing agency, you don't need to submit any other documents, unless the passport is for a dependent and it doesn't include a date of entry into the United States.

- Certified copies of a passport must include the U.S. visa pages if reason for applying is box “f” or “g”.

Proof of U.S. residency for applicants who are dependents. A passport that doesn't have a date of entry into the United States will not be accepted as a stand-alone identification document for dependents, unless they are from Canada or Mexico or are dependents of U.S. military personnel stationed overseas. In these cases, applicants will be required to submit at least one of the following original documents in addition to the passport to prove U.S. residency.

Additional Information

• Extension Request/Estimated Tax Payment - If you're filing an application for an extension of time to file using Form 4868 or making an estimated tax payment using Form 1040-ES or Form 1040-ES (NR), don't file Form W-7 with those forms. Enter "ITIN TO BE REQUESTED" wherever your SSN or ITIN is requested. An ITIN will be issued only after you file a tax return and meet all other requirements.

• Address change for ITIN taxpayer - Advise taxpayer to complete Form 8822 or signed letter with the previous and new addresses and mail to Austin ITIN Operations. It's important that IRS is aware of your current mailing address. This address is used to mail notices about your Form W-7, including notification of your assigned ITIN, and return your original supporting documentation. If you move before you get your ITIN, notify us of your current mailing address immediately, so we may update our records.
Processing the NEW ITIN Application

- IRS ITIN Operations in Austin will record the newly assigned ITIN/s on the return(s), forward the return(s) for processing, and send an ITIN Assignment Notice (CP-565) to the applicant and a copy to the Certifying Acceptance Agent, if applicable.

- ITIN cards have not been issued since January 2004, but many taxpayers have them and they are still considered valid.

- Allow 7 weeks for the IRS to notify you of your ITIN application status.

- Allow 9 to 11 weeks if you submit the application during peak processing periods (January 15 through April 30) or if you’re filing from overseas.

- If you haven’t received your ITIN or correspondence at the end of that time, you can call the IRS toll free at 800-829-1040 to find out the status of your application.
Acceptance Agents

- Acceptance Agents (AA) are persons (individuals or entities (colleges, financial institutions, accounting firms, etc.) who have entered into formal agreements with IRS permitting them to assist applicants in obtaining ITINs.

- Certifying Acceptance Agents (CAAs) are individuals or entities who assume a greater responsibility in facilitating the ITIN application process.

* Some of the responsibilities and benefits of a CAA include:

  - Authenticate original documentation and certified copies of the documentation from the issuing agency for primary and secondary applicants and their dependents, except for foreign military identification cards. For dependents, CAAs can only authenticate passports and birth certificates,

ITIN/SSN Mismatch

What is an ITIN/ SSN mismatch?

• ITIN holders frequently file tax returns under their ITIN with attached Forms W-2 showing erroneous or questionable Social Security Numbers or Names. This creates an ITIN/SSN mismatch.

• These taxpayers are not eligible for EITC, CTC, or ACTC.

• Returns prepared with an ITIN/SSN mismatch can be filed electronically*.

* ITIN must already be assigned
Summary

• Form W-7/ W-7(EN/SP) is used to apply for an IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number.

• The ITIN will be in the format of the Social Security Number (SSN) and begin with the number “9”. The 4th and 5th numbers will range from 50 to 65, 70 to 88, 90 to 92 and 94 to 99.
Summary (continued)

• The ITIN is issued only for federal tax purposes.

• Any resident or nonresident alien, who is required to file a U.S. federal tax return or can be claimed as a dependent on a tax return, and who does not qualify for an SSN, must apply for an ITIN.

• Only residents of the U.S., Canada, India, Mexico or South Korea may claim an exemption for their spouses and their dependents. Beginning January 1, 2018, the amount for the exemption deduction is zero.

• An ITIN does not alter an individual’s immigration status.

• An ITIN does not authorize an individual to legally work in the U.S.
Summary (cont.)

- An ITIN does not entitle the applicant to social security benefits.

- An individual with an ITIN does not qualify for EITC.

- Children with an ITIN do not qualify for the EITC, nor the Child Tax Credit or Additional Child Tax Credit; however, they may qualify for other allowable tax benefits.
