What is a Low Income Taxpayer Clinic?

A Low Income Taxpayer Clinic (LITC) is an organization that assists taxpayers through grants received from the IRS. LITCs represent low-income taxpayers in controversies with the IRS and educate low-income and ESL taxpayers about their taxpayer rights and responsibilities. Services are provided for free or for a nominal fee.

Volunteer Opportunities

Opportunities depend upon skill sets, experiences, licensures, preferences, and the needs of the LITC, and may include:

- Representing taxpayers before the IRS or in federal court;
- Consultations;
- Interpreting or translating for clients or educational events;
- Presenting to taxpayers about their taxpayer rights and responsibilities;
- Application assistance;
- Mentoring students;
- Providing comments on forms, proposed rules or regulations;
- Preparing returns to help resolve a controversy.
