

FOR IRS PARTNERS

Social Media: Equipping You

YouTube

A video sharing site that lets anyone upload and share videos. The IRS has videos available in English, ASL, Spanish and several other languages that can be shared by partners on their websites, social media, and other communication vehicles.

What you can do: Subscribe to IRS YouTube for a clear, professional outreach messages to like, post or embed the videos.

IRSvideos: English, American Sign Language \(ASL\) and Multilingual

Twitter

An social networking that enables its users to send and read short posts. The IRS shares content relevant to several different audiences along with eye-catching graphics. The agency also communicates in a variety of languages to reach all taxpayers.

What you can do: Follow, like, share and re-tweet IRS information from your Twitter accounts. Re-tweet IRS information from your Twitter account.

IRS Twitter accounts: @IRSnews, @IRSenEspanol, @IRStaxpros, @IRStaxsecurity, @IRSsmallbiz and @RecruitmentIRS.

Instagram

A social networking service that allows users to share photos, stories, and short videos. The IRS Instagram account shares taxpayer-friendly information on a variety of topics to help people taxes and stay alert to tax scams.

What you can do: Follow @irsnews, like and repost IRS content to help promote tax information.

Facebook

One of the most widely used social networking sites that helps people communicate and exchange information. IRS messages and events are posted that links to IRS.gov.

What you can do: Follow and like the IRS Facebook accounts and re-share IRS content on your own Facebook pages.

IRS Facebook pages: IRS and IRSenEspanol

LinkedIn

A platform for professionals looking to share information that affects their industries. IRS LinkedIn posts important tax information, updates, announcements and job opportunities.

What you can do: Connect with the IRS LinkedIn account to get IRS updates and the latest job announcements.

IRS Social Media Resources on IRS.gov

IRS Social Media site – Get connected to IRS Social Media

IRS Outreach Connection – Subscribe to receive email alerts when this page is updated!