Third Economic Impact Payment by Prepaid Debit Card

Millions of Americans will get their third Economic Impact Payment in the mail as a prepaid debit card. The EIP Card is sponsored by the Treasury Department’s Bureau of the Fiscal Service. Check the Get My Payment tool on IRS.gov to see if your third payment has been scheduled.

- EIP Card recipients can make purchases, get cash from in-network ATMs, and transfer funds to their personal bank account without incurring any fees.
- They can also check their card balance online, by mobile app or by phone without incurring fees.
- The EIP Card can be used online, at ATMs or at any retail location where Visa is accepted.
- The EIP Card will come with instructions on how to activate and use it.
- Visit www.eipcard.com for more information.

If you receive an Economic Impact Payment Card, it will arrive in a white envelope that prominently displays the U.S. Department of the Treasury seal and “Economic Impact Payment Card” in the return address. The envelope also states that it contains “Important information about your Economic Impact Payment.” The Visa name will appear on the front of the card; the back of the card has the name of the issuing bank, MetaBank®, N.A. Information included with the card will explain that the card is your Economic Impact Payment Card.
