SB/SE Focus Guide – It’s Still the Time!

A message from the SB/SE commissioner & deputy commissioners

With the onset of the pandemic, our FY20 priorities immediately and rightfully shifted to the safety and well-being of our SB/SE family and the American taxpayer. What didn’t shift was our core mission and guiding principles. They are firm anchors for our business decisions and allowed us to maintain our focus while we adjusted our day-to-day operations to meet the challenges of COVID-19.

Last year, our theme for the Focus Guide was Now is the Time! and, with your help, we began shaping the future of SB/SE. For FY21, It’s Still the Time! and our areas of focus will move us closer to achieving our SB/SE goals and priorities in a challenging and changing environment.

Each SB/SE operating unit provided the source material for the 2021 edition. It presents our priorities and organizational goals that support the overall IRS mission and strategic plan for the coming year. The SB/SE 2019 Annual Report shows how having a clear focus at the outset helped direct our actions. Look for the 2020 report next year.

OUR CORE MISSION
Help small business and self-employed taxpayers understand and meet their tax obligations, while applying the tax law with integrity and fairness to all.

Our mission promotes voluntary compliance by focusing on renewed presence, ensuring public transparency, taking enforcement action every time it’s appropriate, and informing and empowering taxpayers.

OUR GUIDING PRINCIPLES
Take some time to review the guiding principles we developed last year. Consider how embracing the mission and pursuing excellence helps shape our future in SB/SE.

OUR FY21 FOCUS
The 2021 SB/SE Focus Guide is a fresh look at this fiscal year – but it isn’t everything. Your health and safety, as well as that of our taxpayers, continue to be our highest priority. We view all areas of focus through that concern. We will learn as we go, adapt when needed, and always let our core mission and guiding principles light our way. Every year has its own challenges and we can use them to identify opportunities to do our work better and more efficiently.

Here’s a few examples of how we did that last year:
- Increased telework availability
- Established new Office of Fraud Enforcement
- Kicked off the High-Income Delinquent Filers initiative
- Addressed abusive transactions including Micro-captive Insurance and Syndicated Conservation Easements
- Protected statutes
- Reinstated a seasonal workforce
- Onboarded and trained new hires virtually
- Implemented COVID-19 legislation

YOUR PART
Of course, this isn’t an exhaustive list. Think about what’s shared here and how it affects the work you do, our teams and all of SB/SE. Like last year, we ask you to bring your ideas, goals, victories and challenges to the table. We’re only as good as our shared experiences and abilities. You’re what makes the difference when we succeed.

A guide serves no purpose unless we use it. Use the guide as a discussion tool for your individual workgroups. Make one focus area, guiding principle or element from our core mission your goal for the day. Whether you accomplish the goal that day or a week later you’ve clearly shown…

It’s Still the Time!
