ITIN Acceptance Agents Training

This training module is designed to increase:

• Your awareness of your role as an ITIN Acceptance Agent and

• Your technical knowledge of the ITIN process and W-7 application procedures.

We encourage you to share and discuss this information with your business associates and employees.
Before beginning the training module, we recommend that you print or view copies of the following forms and publications available at www.irs.gov in English and in Spanish:

- Form W-7 and Instructions, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number
- Publication 1915, Understanding Your IRS ITIN
- Publication 4327, Enabling Participation in the Tax System
Lesson One

Role of the ITIN Acceptance Agents and the ITIN Process

At the end of this lesson, you will be able to:

• List services Acceptance Agents provide to their customers, and

• Explain when a taxpayer needs an ITIN.
Role of the ITIN Acceptance Agents and the ITIN Process

As an ITIN Acceptance Agent, you play a vital role in the efficient and effective processing of Forms W-7 and U.S. tax returns because you:

• Offer services in close proximity to where your clients live and work,

• Provide ITIN bilingual literature to better communicate with all taxpayers,
Role of the ITIN Acceptance Agents and the ITIN Process

• Determine each client’s eligibility for a Social Security Number or an ITIN,

• Inform clients when their supporting identification or documentation is unacceptable, and

• Facilitate issuance of your clients’ ITINs in partnership with the ITIN Policy Section and Austin ITIN Operations.
Role of the ITIN Acceptance Agents and the ITIN Process

Reminders:

1. Exception 1(d) has been updated to indicate that self-generated income statements will only be accepted with a copy of the contract, or a letter with a post-marked envelope addressed from the withholding agent.
Role of the ITIN Acceptance Agents and the ITIN Process

2. You may not e-file a tax return(s) using an ITIN in the year in which it is received. If you apply for and receive an ITIN for your client this year, you may not e-file any tax return using that ITIN (including prior year returns) until next year.

3. Apply using the most current Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number or Form W-7(SP).
Role of the ITIN Acceptance Agents and the ITIN Process

What is an ITIN?
An ITIN is a tax processing number issued by the IRS to certain resident and nonresident aliens, their spouses, or dependents.

It is available to persons required to have a taxpayer identification number for federal tax purposes but who do not have and are not eligible to obtain a Social Security Number (SSN).
Role of the ITIN Acceptance Agents and the ITIN Process

As an ITIN Acceptance Agent, you are responsible for determining if your client is eligible for an SSN before completing Form W-7.

If your client is eligible for an SSN, you must advise them to apply for one at the Social Security Administration (SSA). If the SSA will not issue your client an SSN, the client must obtain a denial letter to attach to their Form W-7.
Role of the ITIN Acceptance Agents and the ITIN Process

If you are unsure about your client’s eligibility for an SSN, refer to the Social Security Administration Web site at www.ssa.gov for additional information.

Remember, an individual who is eligible for an SSN is not eligible for an ITIN.
Completing Reason You’re Submitting Form W-7

At the end of this lesson, you will be able to:

- Determine your client’s tax status and their reason for submitting Form W-7, and
- Select appropriate box (a – h) based on that reason.
Completing Reason You’re Submitting Form W-7

Once you establish that your client needs an ITIN, you will begin the process of completing Form W-7.

Note: Spouses and dependents shouldn’t apply for, or renew, an Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN) unless they are filing their own return or claimed for an allowable tax benefit. The individual must be listed on an attached U.S. federal tax return with the schedule or form that applies to the allowable tax benefit.
Completing Reason You’re Submitting Form W-7

Determine your client’s “tax status.” While they may be a “nonresident alien” for non-IRS purposes, they may be a “resident alien” for tax purposes.
Completing Reason You’re Submitting Form W-7

The following publications, available online at www.irs.gov, can help you understand an individual’s tax status:

- Publication 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens
- Publication 901, U.S. Tax Treaties

For additional assistance call toll-free 1-800-829-1040 to speak with an IRS taxpayer assistance representative. Outside the U.S., call 1-267-941-1000 (not toll-free).
Completing Reason You’re Submitting Form W-7

Select the category or reason for applying by checking the box (“a” – “h”) that describes your client’s reason for submitting Form W-7.

If more than one box applies to your client, check the box that best explains the reason for submitting Form W-7.

If you choose box “a” or “f” you must provide tax treaty information on the lines provided below box h.
Completing Reason You’re Submitting Form W-7

The following is taken from Form W-7.

Reason you’re submitting Form W-7. Read the instructions for the box you check. Caution: If you check box b, c, d, e, f, or g, you must file a U.S. federal tax return with Form W-7 unless you meet one of the exceptions (see instructions).

- a □ Nonresident alien required to get an ITIN to claim tax treaty benefit
- b □ Nonresident alien filing a U.S. federal tax return
- c □ U.S. resident alien (based on days present in the United States) filing a U.S. federal tax return
- d □ Dependent of U.S. citizen/resident alien If d, enter relationship to U.S. citizen/resident alien (see instructions) ▶ .................................................................
- e □ Spouse of U.S. citizen/resident alien If d or e, enter name and SSN/ITIN of U.S. citizen/resident alien (see instructions) ▶ ...........................
- f □ Nonresident alien student, professor, or researcher filing a U.S. federal tax return or claiming an exception
- g □ Dependent/spouse of a nonresident alien holding a U.S. visa
- h □ Other (see instructions) ▶ ...........................................................................................................................................................................

Additional information for a and f: Enter treaty country ▶ and treaty article number ▶
Completing Reason You’re Submitting Form W-7

Box h. Other. If the reason for your client’s ITIN request is not described in boxes “a” through “g”, check box “h” and describe in detail the reason your client is requesting an ITIN and attach supporting documents.

The next lesson provides information about claiming an exception to the tax return filing requirement. If applicable, enter the exception number, alpha subsection (if applicable) and category on the line beside box “h”.

Lesson Three

Completing Form W-7
Exceptions

At the end of this lesson, you will be able to:

• Identify and apply exceptions to the tax return filing requirement that may be applicable to your client, and

• Enter required information for box “h”.

23
Completing Form W-7
Exceptions

What are the “Exceptions” to the requirement to attach a U.S. individual income tax return to Form W-7?

Although ITIN applicants must attach a valid U.S. individual income tax return to their Form W-7 application, there are limited circumstances under which an ITIN will be issued without an attached tax return.
Completing Form W-7
Exceptions

If any of the five Exceptions, listed in the “Exceptions” section of the Appendix for this training module, apply to your client, you will not need to attach a U.S. individual income tax return to your Form W-7.
Completing Form W-7

Exceptions

If you claim an Exception to the requirement to submit a valid original U.S. individual income tax return with Form W-7, you must submit proof of your claim in lieu of the tax return.

For more information about Exceptions and to view examples of completed entries see Publication 1915, Understanding Your IRS ITIN on www.irs.gov. Also available in Spanish under catalog number 35265T.

At the end of this lesson, you will be able to identify:

- Two categories of ITIN documentation
- ITIN Documentation Requirements, and
- Acceptance Agent responsibilities regarding documentation.
There are two categories of documentation:

1. Supporting Identification Documentation
   Proves “foreign status”, “identity” and, if applicable, “residency”.

2. Exception Documentation
   Proves that an exception to the requirement to attach a valid U.S. federal individual income tax return to Form W-7 is met.
Supporting Identification Documentation.

- IRS accepts 13 documents as shown in the Appendix section of this training module.

- A valid (unexpired) passport is the only stand-alone document to prove both identity and foreign status*.

Note: Additional rules apply for certain dependents. See following slide.
Supporting Identification Documentation.

Dependent Passport Requirements

A passport that doesn’t have a date of entry into the United States won’t be accepted as a stand-alone identification document for dependents, unless they are from Canada or Mexico, or dependents of U.S. military personnel stationed overseas. In these cases, applicants will be required to submit at least one of the following original documents in addition to the passport to prove U.S. residency.
ITIN Documentation

Dependent Passport Requirements

- If under 6 years of age: A U.S. medical record, U.S. school record, or U.S. state identification card that lists the applicant’s name and U.S. address, or a U.S. visa.

- If at least 6 years of age but under 18 years of age: A U.S. school record, U.S. state identification card or driver’s license that lists the applicant’s name and U.S. address, or a U.S. visa.

- If 18 years of age or older: U.S. school record, rental statement from a U.S. property, utility bill for a U.S. property, or a U.S. bank statement, U.S. state identification card or driver’s license that lists the applicant’s name and U.S. address, or a U.S. visa.
ITIN Documentation

If a passport is not provided, submit at least two other documents, with one containing a photograph (except for dependents or students under 18 years of age).

Documentation for a dependent or student under 18 years of age must include a Civil Birth Certificate, unless a passport is provided.
Supporting Identification Documentation must be:

- Original, or
- Certified copies from the issuing agency

Note: Certified copies from the issuing agency are not the same as Notarized documents. Notarized documents are not accepted.
As of June 22, 2012, the IRS no longer accepted copies notarized by U.S. Public notary or certain Foreign Notary Publics, authorized to certify documents under the Hague Convention.

A listing of Supporting Identification Documentation can be found in the Appendix at the end of this training module.
There are two types of Acceptance Agents:
• Acceptance Agents (AA)
• Certifying Acceptance Agents (CAA)

The types of Acceptance Agents are outlined in Revenue Procedure 2006-10.

Acceptance Agents (AA) review supporting identification documentation proving foreign status and identity and attach original or certified copies from the issuing agency to Form W-7.
Certifying Acceptance Agents (CAA) review and validate supporting identification documentation proving foreign status and identity except for foreign military identification card and identify them on their Form W-7(COA), Certificate of Accuracy.

Copies of documents for primary and secondary applicants must be sent to the IRS with the W-7(COA). For dependents, CAAs may verify the passport and birth certificate only. Copies of the documents must be attached to W-7(COA).
ITIN Documentation

Form W-7(COA), Certificate of Accuracy
• Completed and *signed by CAAs
• Identifies the specific type of foreign status and identity document attached (e.g., passport, birth certificate, visa, etc.)
• Must be attached to each submitted Form W-7, and
• Declares that the CAA reviewed the documentation provided by the applicant and certifies that it is authentic, complete, and accurate based on procedures in their IRS signed CAA agreement.

*Only the Authorized Representative can sign the W-7 (COA).
A template of Form W-7(COA), Certificate of Accuracy is provided to all approved CAAs with their signed CAA Agreement.
Exception Documentation proves that the “Exception” criteria is met and:

- Takes the place of attaching a U.S. Individual Income Tax Return to Form W-7, and
- Demonstrates that your client meets the criteria for claiming an exception.

All required exception documentation must be attached to Form W-7 before your client’s application will be processed.
Exception documentation:
• Must be attached to Form W-7 by both Acceptance Agents and Certifying Acceptance Agents.

• Does not need to be described on Form W-7(COA), except for partnership agreement information when Exception 1(a) is claimed.

• Does not replace the requirement to provide Supporting Identification Documentation.
ITIN Acceptance Agents Training

Lesson Six

Signature Requirements

At the end of this lesson, you will be able to apply signature requirements for Form W-7.
Signature Requirements

Who can sign Form W-7 if the applicant is a dependent under 18 years of age?

The applicant, the applicant’s parent, or a court-appointed guardian. A copy of the court-appointment papers showing legal guardianship must be attached.

Signature Requirements

Who can sign Form W-7 if the applicant is a dependent 18 years of age and older?

• The Applicant, or court-appointed guardian
• Any other individual (e.g., parent etc.) whom the applicant or court-appointed guardian grants Power of Attorney. In this case:

1. Attach court documents showing legal guardianship or Power of Attorney, Form 2848, to Form W-7 (if anyone other than the applicant signs), and
2. Anyone other than the applicant should sign their name in the space provided and check the box that indicates their relationship to the applicant.
Signature Requirements

Who can sign Form W-7 if the applicant cannot sign their name?

• The applicant must sign their mark (for example an “X” or a thumbprint) in the presence of a witness, and

• The witness’ signature is required and must be identified as that of a witness.
Signature Requirements

Application date
The application must be dated when it is signed and submitted by the AA or CAA within five (5) business days.

Phone number (optional)
IRS may use this telephone number to resolve any discrepancies in the application, which may prevent the W-7 application from being returned for incomplete entries.
At the end of this lesson, you will be able to complete the Acceptance Agent’s Use ONLY section of Form W-7.
Acceptance Agent’s USE ONLY Section

The Acceptance Agent’s Use ONLY section must include:

• The signature and, if applicable, title of the Acceptance Agent’s Authorized Representative based on information provided on your Acceptance Agent Application (Form 13551),

• The date the application was signed in MM/DD/YYYY format
Acceptance Agent’s USE ONLY Section

The Acceptance Agent’s Use ONLY section must include:

- The name under which your business was established as an Acceptance Agent, and the phone and fax numbers, and

- Your EIN and Office Code Number. The Office Code number is an 8-digit number assigned to you by the ITIN Policy Section. Generally, if you have an EFIN, it will be two zeros and your EFIN (e.g., 00123456).
Lesson Eight

Review of the Top 10 Form W-7 Errors

At the end of this lesson, you will be better prepared to complete and submit error-free Forms W-7 to the IRS for processing.
Top 10 Form W-7 Errors

When Forms W-7 are incorrectly prepared, incomplete or if information/documentation is missing, your client’s application will be suspended or rejected, causing a delay in the application process.

The following slides will provide descriptions of the top errors or most common errors seen by the IRS and ways you can avoid delays.
Top 10
Form W-7 Errors

1. Not checking the appropriate alpha box (boxes “a” – “h”) indicating the reason your client is submitting Form W-7/W-7 (SP).

2. Not attaching supporting identification documentation to prove your client’s identity and foreign status. With the exception of children or students under 18 years of age, at least one of the documents must contain a recent photograph. (#2 continued)
Top 10
Form W-7 Errors

2. CAAs must submit a Form W-7 (COA), Certificate Of Accuracy with copies of the documentation for all applicants (Note: CAAs can only verify passports and birth certificates for dependents)

3. Not attaching a valid U.S. tax return to show a tax purpose for obtaining an ITIN. You must attach an original U.S. tax return unless your client meets the criteria for claiming one of the Exceptions 1 - 5.
Top 10 Form W-7 Errors

4. Attaching supporting identification documentation that is not on the list of the thirteen (13) acceptable documents to prove identity and foreign status.

5. Submitting a Form W-7 for a dependent not shown on your client’s U.S. tax return; or not submitting a Form W-7 for a dependent listed on your client’s U.S. tax return.
6. Submitting a Form W-7 for a dependent who is not a U.S. citizen or resident alien and does not reside in Mexico or Canada.

7. Not entering your client’s foreign address on Line 3, if applicable. If your client now permanently resides in the United States, enter their U.S. address as the mailing address on Line 2, and “country” name only on Line 3.
8. Not entering all of your client’s birth information on Line 4, as required.

9. Not completing Line 6d, to specify the identification documentation or the date your client entered the United States.
10. Your client did not sign their name as it appears on Line 1. If another signature appears other than the applicant, you will need to attach a Power of Attorney or court documents and check the box that describes the “delegate’s relationship to the applicant.”
