INSTRUCTIONS

Taxes.—Enter as Item 5 all personal taxes and taxes on property paid during the year. Do not include Federal income taxes nor taxes claimed as a credit in Item 15 of the return.

Contributions.—Enter as Item 5 any contributions or gifts made during the year to any corporation or fund organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, or educational purposes. The amount claimed shall not exceed 25 per cent of the net income computed without the benefit of this deduction.

Other deductions.—Enter as Item 5 any other deductions authorized by law, including interest paid on personal indebtedness.

Personal Exemption and Credits

A single person, or a married person not living with husband or wife, may claim a personal exemption of $1,500. A person who, during the taxable year, was the head of a family or was married and living with husband or wife, may claim an exemption of $3,500. If husband and wife file separate returns, the personal exemption may be taken by either or divided between them.

For a "head of a family" is an individual who actually supports and maintains in one household one or more individuals who are closely connected with him by blood or by marriage, and without whom the individual would be unable to maintain himself. The "head of a family" may be a person (other than husband or wife) under eighteen years of age, or incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective, who was receiving his or her chief support within the year from the person who furnished the chief support, and can not be divided between two individuals.

For Deficiency in Tax.—Interest on deficiency at 6 per cent per annum to the date the deficiency is assessed, or to the thirtieth days after the filing of a waiver of the right to file a petition with the Board of Tax Appeals, whichever date is the earlier, and, in addition, 5 per cent of the amount of the deficiency if due to negligence or intentional disregard of rules and regulations without intent to defraud, or 50 per cent of amount of deficiency if due to fraud.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Affidavit.—The oath of every person who has transmitted all return, or would have transmitted all return, if you had not filed a return, to the Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which you reside or on or before March 15, 1929.
