

When To File

For the election to be valid, a trust or decedent's estate must file Form 1041-T by the 65th day after the close of the tax year as shown at the top of the form. For a calendar year trust or decedent's estate, that date is March 6, 2007. If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, file on the next business day.

Period Covered

File the 2006 form for calendar year 2006 and fiscal years beginning in 2006 and ending in 2007. If the form is for a fiscal year or a short tax year, fill in the tax year space at the top of the form.

Specific Instructions

Address

Include the suite, room, or other unit number after the street address. If the post office does not deliver mail to the street address and the fiduciary has a P.O. box, show the box number instead of the street address.

Line 1

Enter the amount of estimated tax payments made by the trust or decedent's estate that the fiduciary elects to treat as a payment made by the beneficiaries. This amount is treated as if paid or credited to the beneficiaries on the last day of the tax year of the trust or decedent's estate. Be sure to include it on Form 1041, Schedule B, line 10.

You cannot allocate to a beneficiary tax withheld from income, such as withholding from lottery or other gambling winnings, or from salary or pension payments reported on Form 1041. You must report this withholding on line 24e of Form 1041.

Line 2

Column (b)—Beneficiary's name and address. Group the beneficiaries to whom you are allocating estimated tax payments into two categories. First, list all the individual beneficiaries (those who have social security numbers (SSNs)). Then, list all the other beneficiaries.

Column (c)—Beneficiary's identifying number. For each beneficiary, enter the SSN (for individuals) or employer identification number (EIN) (for all other entities). Failure to enter a valid SSN or EIN may cause a delay in processing and could result in penalties being imposed on the beneficiary. For those beneficiaries who file a joint return, you can assist the IRS in crediting the proper account by also providing the SSN, if known, of the beneficiary's spouse. However, this is an optional entry.

Column (d)—Amount of estimated tax payment allocated to beneficiary. For each beneficiary, also report this amount in box 13 of Schedule K-1 (Form 1041), using code A.

Column (e)—Proration percentage. For each listed beneficiary, divide the amount shown in column (d) by the amount shown on line 1 and enter the result as a percentage.

Line 3

If you are allocating a payment of estimated taxes to more than 10 beneficiaries, list the additional beneficiaries on an attached sheet that follows the format of line 2. Enter on line 3 the total from the attached sheet(s).

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to give us the information.
