Instructions for Student

An eligible educational institution, such as your college or university, that receives qualified tuition and related expenses on your behalf must furnish this statement to you. This information will help to determine whether you, or the person who may claim you as a dependent, may claim an income tax credit for the new Hope credit or lifetime learning credit. For information about these credits, see Pub. 970, Tax Benefits for Higher Education.

Boxes 1 and 2. The reporting institution is not required to but may provide additional information in these boxes.

Box 3. Shows whether you are considered to be carrying at least one-half the normal full-time work load for your course of study at the reporting institution.

You meet one of the requirements for the Hope credit if you are at least a half-time student. You do not have to be a half-time student to qualify for the lifetime learning credit.

Box 4. Shows whether you are considered to be enrolled exclusively in a program leading to a graduate degree, graduate-level certificate, or other recognized graduate-level educational credential. If you are enrolled exclusively in a graduate program, you are not eligible for the Hope credit, but you may qualify for the lifetime learning credit.
