Form 1099-B

Department of the Treasury · Internal Revenue Service

Instructions for Recipient

Brokers and barter exchanges must report proceeds from transactions to the Internal Revenue Service. This form is used to report these proceeds. You must reconcile all your Forms 1099-B in the applicable part of Schedule D (Form 1040).

Box 1a.—Ordinarily, this date will be the trade date of the transaction. However, if there is an "S" shown immediately before the date, it means that the payer is using the actual settlement date and not the trade date.

Box 1b.—When applicable, shows the CUSIP (Committee on Uniform Security Identification Procedures) number of the item reported.

Box 2.—Shows the proceeds from transactions involving stocks, bonds, other debt obligations, commodities, or forward contracts. Losses on forward contracts are shown in parentheses. This box does not include proceeds from regulated futures contracts. The broker must indicate whether gross proceeds or gross proceeds less commissions and option premiums were reported to IRS. State and local transfer taxes cannot be subtracted. You may deduct these taxes only as an itemized deduction on your tax return.

Box 3.—Shows the fair market value of any trade credits or scrip credited to your account for exchanges of property or services as well as cash received. See the instructions for your 1985 tax return on how to report this amount for tax purposes.
