Instructions to Payee

The amounts shown on this form represent payments to you (or on your behalf) for services rendered in the course of the payer's trade or business. Because you are not treated as an employee by the payer, this form is the only required notice for tax purposes you will receive on such payments.

Generally, amounts reported on this form are considered income from self-employment. Report these amounts as part of your trade or business income on Schedule C or F (Form 1040).

If you are not self-employed, amounts paid to you (or on your behalf) for services rendered are generally reported on Form 1040 on the line for Wages, Salaries, and Other Employee Compensation.
