Instructions for Recipient

Box 1. Shows the gross distribution (including in-kind distributions) paid to you this year from a qualified tuition program (Section 529 program). This amount is the total of the amounts shown in box 2 and box 3. See Pub. 970, Tax Benefits for Higher Education, for more information.

Box 2. Shows the earnings part of the gross distribution shown in box 1. This may be taxable to you. See your tax return instructions for information about how to report this income.

Box 3. Shows your basis in the gross distribution reported in box 1.

Box 4. This box is checked if the amount in box 1 was transferred by you from one Section 529 program to another Section 529 program in a trustee-to-trustee transfer. The amount in box 2 is taxable to you, if there has been more than one transfer within any 12-month period with respect to the same beneficiary, or if there has been a change in designated beneficiary and the new designated beneficiary is not a family member of the prior designated beneficiary.

Box 5. Shows whether the gross distribution was from a private prepaid program or a state program.

Box 6. This box is checked if the recipient is not the designated beneficiary under section 529.

Instructions for Payers

We now provide general and specific form instructions as separate products. The products you should use for 2002 are the General Instructions for Forms 1099, 1098, 5498, and W-2G and the separate specific instructions for each information return you file. Specific information needed to complete this form is given in the 2002 Instructions for Form 1099-Q. A chart in the general instructions gives a quick guide to which form must be filed to report a particular payment. To order these instructions and additional forms, call 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

Caution: Because the IRS processes paper forms by machine (optical character recognition equipment), you cannot file with the IRS Forms 1096, 1098, 1099, or 5498 that you print from the IRS Web Site.

Due dates. Furnish Copy B of this form to the recipient by January 31, 2003.

File Copy A of this form with the IRS by February 28, 2003. If you file electronically, the due date is March 31, 2003.
