We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to give us the information. We need it to ensure that you are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax.

The time needed to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average time is:

- Recordkeeping 15 hr., 32 min.
- Learning about the law or the form 6 hr., 23 min.
- Preparing the form 15 hr., 18 min.
- Copying, assembling, and sending the form to the IRS 2 hr., 25 min.

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. You can write to the Tax Forms Committee, Western Area Distribution Center, Rancho Cordova, CA 95743-0001. DO NOT send the tax form to this address. Instead, see Where To File below.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

A Change To Note

Political organizations that had total deposits of withheld income, social security, and Medicare taxes during calendar year 1993 or 1994 in excess of $47 million are required to use the electronic funds transfer (EFT) system for depository taxes due in 1996. Political organizations required to use the EFT system in 1995 must continue to use the system in 1996. For details, see Depository Method of Tax Payments on page 3.

Purpose of Form.—Form 1120-POL is used to report the taxable income and income tax liability of political organizations.

Who Must File

A political organization must file Form 1120-POL if the organization has any political organization taxable income.

Political Organizations

A political organization is a party, committee, association, fund (including a separate segregated fund described in section 527(f)(3) set up by a section 501(c) organization), or other organization, organized and operated primarily for the purpose of accepting contributions or making expenditures, or both, to influence the selection, nomination, election, or appointment of any individual to any public office or office in a political organization, or the election of Presidential or Vice Presidential electors. Political organizations include principal campaign committees, newsletter funds, and certain tax-exempt organizations.

Principal campaign committee.—A principal campaign committee is the political committee designated by a candidate for U.S. Congress as his or her principal campaign committee for purposes of section 302(e) of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 and section 527(h).

If a candidate for U.S. Congress elects to make a designation under section 527(h), he or she must designate the principal campaign committee by attaching a copy of the Statement of Candidacy to Form 1120-POL. This can be either the Federal Election Commission's Form 2 or an equivalent statement filed with the Federal Election Commission. The designation may also be made by attaching a signed statement with the following information:

- The candidate's name and address.
- The candidate's identifying number.
- The candidate's party affiliation and office sought.
- The district and state in which the office is sought.
- The name and address of the principal campaign committee.

Note: If the candidate for U.S. Congress has a designation in effect from an earlier year, attach a copy of the earlier year's designation to this year's Form 1120-POL and check the appropriate box on the form. See Regulations section 1.527-9. If a candidate for U.S. Congress has only one political campaign committee, no designation is required. However, be sure to check the appropriate box on Form 1120-POL.

Newsletter fund.—A newsletter fund is a fund established and maintained by an individual who holds, has been elected to, or is a candidate (as defined in section 527(g)(3)) for nomination or election to any Federal, state, or local elective public office. The fund is maintained exclusively for the preparation and circulation of the individual's newsletter.

Separate segregated fund.—A separate segregated fund maintained by a section 501(c) organization (exempt from tax under section 501(a)) is treated as a political organization. For more information, see section 527(f) and Regulations section 1.527-2(b).

Taxable Income of $100 or Less

A political organization, other than a newsletter fund, is not required to file Form 1120-POL if its taxable income before the specific deduction of $100 is $100 or less. Newsletter funds cannot claim the specific deduction of $100.

Taxable Income

Political organization taxable income is the excess of (1) gross income for the tax year (excluding exempt function income) over (2) deductions directly connected with the earning of gross income. Taxable income is figured with the following adjustments:

1. A specific deduction of $100 is allowed (but not for newsletter funds).
2. The net operating loss deduction is not allowed.
3. The dividends-received deduction and other special deductions for corporations are not allowed. See section 527(c)(2).

Newsletter fund taxable income.—Taxable income of a newsletter fund is figured in the same manner as taxable income of a political organization except that the specific deduction of $100 is not allowed.

Exempt organizations that are not political organizations.—Taxable income for an exempt section 501(c) organization that is not a political organization is the lesser of (1) the amount spent for an exempt function during the tax year either directly or indirectly through another organization or (2) the net investment income of the organization for the tax year. This income is subject to the adjustments under Taxable Income on this page.

Net investment income, for this purpose, is (1) the gross amount of interest, dividends, rents, and royalties, plus the excess, if any, of gains from the sale or exchange of assets, over the losses from the sale or exchange of assets, over (2) the deductions directly connected with the production of this income.

Exempt Function

The exempt function of a political organization is the function of influencing or attempting to influence the selection, the nomination, election, or appointment of any individual to any Federal, state, local public office, or office of a political organization, or the election of Presidential or Vice Presidential electors, whether or not the individuals or electors are selected, nominated, elected, or appointed. The term "exempt function" also means the making of expenditures relating to the individual's office, once selected, nominated, elected, or appointed, but only if the expenditures would be deductible by an individual under section 162(a).

Exempt Function Income

Exempt function income is the total of all amounts received from the following sources (to the extent that they are separately segregated only for use for an exempt function):

1. Contributions of money and property.
2. Membership dues, fees, or assessments paid by a member of a political party.
3. Proceeds from a political fundraising, or entertainment event, or from the sale of political campaign materials, if those amounts are not received in the active conduct of a trade or business.
4. Proceeds from the conduct of a bingo game, as described in section 513(f)(2).

When To File

In general, an organization must file Form 1120-POL by the 15th day of the 3rd month after the end of the tax year.

If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the organization may file on the next business day.

Extension.—File Form 7004, Application for Automatic Extension of Time To File Corporation Income Tax Return, to request a 6-month extension of time to file.

Where To File

Who Must Sign

The return must be signed and dated by the president, vice president, treasurer, assistant treasurer, chief accounting officer, or any other organization officer (such as tax officer) authorized to sign. Receivers, trustees, and assignees must also sign and date any return filed on behalf of an organization.

If an organization officer completed Form 1120-POL, the Paid Preparer's space should remain blank. Anyone who prepares Form 1120-POL but does not charge the organization should not sign the return. Generally, anyone who is paid to prepare the return must sign it and fill in the Paid Preparer's Use Only area.

The paid preparer must complete the required preparer information and:

- Sign the return, by hand, in the space provided for the preparer's signature (signature stamps and labels are not acceptable).
- Give a copy of the return to the taxpayer.

Accounting Methods

Figure taxable income using the method of accounting regularly used in keeping the organization's books and records. Permissible methods include the cash, accrual, or any other method authorized by the Internal Revenue Code. In all cases, the method used must clearly show taxable income.

Under the accrual method, an amount is includible in income when all the events have occurred that fix the right to receive the income and the amount can be determined with reasonable accuracy. See Regulations section 1.451-1(a) for details.

Generally, an accrual basis taxpayer can deduct accrued expenses in the tax year in which (1) all events that determine the liability have occurred, (2) the amount of the liability can be figured with reasonable accuracy, and (3) economic performance takes place with respect to the expense. There are exceptions to the economic performance rule for certain items, including recurring expenses. See section 461(h) and the related regulations for the rules for determining when economic performance takes place.

Generally, the organization may only change the method of accounting used to report taxable income (for income as a whole or for any material item) by getting consent on Form 3115, Application for Change in Accounting Method. For more information, get Pub. 538, Accounting Periods and Methods.

Change in accounting period.—Generally, before changing an accounting period, the Commissioner's approval must be obtained (Regulations section 1.442-1) by filing Form 1128, Application To Adopt, Change, or Retain a Tax Year. Also see Pub. 538.

Rounding Off to Whole Dollars

The organization may show amounts on the return and accompanying schedules as whole dollars. To do so, drop any amount less than 50 cents and increase any amount from 50 cents through 99 cents to the next higher dollar.

Depository Method of Tax Payment

The organization must pay the tax due in full no later than the 15th day of the 3rd month after the end of the tax year. If the organization does not use the electronic funds transfer (EFT) system, deposit organization income tax payments with Form 8109, Federal Tax Deposit Coupon. Do not send deposits directly to an IRS office. Mail or deliver the completed Form 8109 with the payment to a qualified depository for Federal taxes or to the Federal Reserve bank (FRB) servicing the organization's geographic area. Make checks or money orders payable to that depository or FRB.

To help ensure proper crediting, write the organization's EIN, the tax period to which the deposit applies, and "Form 1120-POL" on the check or money order. Be sure to darken the "1120" box on the coupon. Records of these deposits will be sent to the IRS.

A penalty may be imposed if the deposits are mailed or delivered to an IRS office rather than to an authorized depository or FRB.

For more information on deposits, see the instructions in the coupon booklet (Form 8109) and Pub. 583, Starting a Business and Keeping Records.

Caution: If the organization owes tax when it files Form 1120-POL, do not include the payment with the tax return. Instead, mail or deliver the payment with Form 8109 to a qualified depository or FRB.

Generally, political organizations that had total deposits of withheld income, social security, and Medicare taxes during calendar year 1993 or 1994 that exceeded $47 million are required to deposit taxes due in 1996 by electronic funds transfer (EFT). TAXLINK, an electronic remittance processing system, must be used to make deposits by EFT. Political organizations that are not required to make deposits by EFT may voluntarily participate in TAXLINK. For more details, call the toll-free TAXLINK HELPLINE at 1-800-829-5469 (for TAXLINK information only) or write to:

Interest and Penalties

Interest.—Interest is charged on taxes paid late even if an extension of time to file is granted. Interest is also charged on penalties imposed for failure to file, negligence, fraud, gross valuation overstatements, and substantial understatement of tax from the due date (including extensions) to the date of payment. The interest charge is figured at a rate determined under section 6621.

Penalty for late filing of return.—An organization that does not file its tax return by the due date, including extensions, may be penalized 5% of the unpaid tax for each month or part of a month the return is late, up to a maximum of 25% of the unpaid tax. The minimum penalty for a return that is more than 60 days late is the smaller of the tax due or $100. The penalty will not be imposed if the organization can show that the failure to file on time was due to reasonable cause. Organizations that file late must attach a statement explaining the reasonable cause.

Penalty for late payment of tax.—An organization that does not pay the tax when due may have to pay a penalty of 1/2 of 1% of the unpaid tax for each month or part of a month the tax is not paid, up to a maximum of 25% of the unpaid tax. The penalty will not be imposed if the organization can show that the failure to pay on time was due to reasonable cause.

Other penalties.—Other penalties can be imposed for negligence, substantial understatement of tax, and fraud. See sections 6662 and 6663.

Attachments

Attach Form 4136, Credit for Federal Tax Paid on Fuels, after page 1 of Form 1120-POL. Attach schedules in alphabetical order and other forms in numerical order after Form 4136.

Complete every applicable entry space on Form 1120-POL. Do not write "See attached" instead of completing the entry spaces. If you need more space on the forms or schedules, attach separate sheets using the same size and format as on the printed forms. Show the totals on the printed forms. Attach these separate sheets after all the schedules and forms. Be sure to put the organization's name and EIN on each sheet.

Specific Instructions Period Covered

File the 1995 return for calendar year 1995 and fiscal years that begin in 1995 and end in 1996. For a fiscal year, fill in the tax year spaces at the top of the form.

Note: The 1995 Form 1120-POL may also be used if (1) the organization has a tax year of less than 12 months that begins and ends in 1996 and (2) the 1996 Form 1120-POL is not available at the time the organization is required to file its return. However, the organization must show its 1996 tax year on the 1995 Form 1120-POL and must incorporate any tax law changes that are effective for tax years beginning after 1995.

Address.—Include the suite or room or other unit number after the street address. If the Post Office does not deliver mail to the street address and the organization has a P.O. box, show the box number instead of the street address.

Note: If a change in address occurs after the return is filed, the organization should use Form 8822, Change of Address, to notify the IRS of the new address.

Final return, change of address, amended return.—If the organization ceases to exist, check the "Final return" box. To amend a previously filed Form 1120-POL, file a corrected Form 1120-POL and check the "Amended return" box.

If the organization has changed its address since it last filed a return, check the box for "Change of address."

Employer identification number (EIN).—Show the correct EIN in the space provided. If the organization does not have an EIN, it should apply for one on Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number. Form SS-4 can be obtained at most IRS or Social Security Administration (SSA) offices. If the organization has not received its EIN by the time the return is due, write "Applied for" in the space provided for the EIN. See Pub. 583 for more information.

Income and deductions.—Campaign contributions and other exempt function income are not includible in income; likewise, campaign expenditures and other exempt function expenditures are not deductible. Generally, to be deductible in computing political organization taxable income, expenses must be directly connected with the production of political organization taxable income. In those cases where expenses are attributable to the production of both exempt function income and political organization taxable income, the expenses should be allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis; only the portion allocable to the production of political organization taxable income may be deducted. No deduction is allowed for general administrative or indirect expenses.

Line 7, Other income and nonexempt function expenditures.—Enter the total income from other sources, such as exempt function income that was not properly segregated for exempt functions and income received in the course of an ordinary trade or business. Also include on this line the total expenditures that were made from exempt function income that were not for an exempt function and resulted in a direct or indirect financial benefit to the political organization. Also include on line 7 those expenditures that were illegal. Attach a schedule listing all income and expenditures included on line 7. See Regulations section 1.527-5 for examples of these types of expenditures.

Also include ordinary income from the trade or business activities of a partnership (from Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), line 1).

Line 17, Taxable income before specific deduction of $100.—Political organizations, newsletter funds, and separate segregated funds: Subtract line 16 from line 8 and enter the result on line 17(c).

Exempt organizations that are not political organizations: Complete lines 17a and 17b if the organization made exempt function expenditures that were not from a separate segregated fund. Enter the lesser of line 17a or 17b on line 17c. See Exempt organizations that are not political organizations on page 2 for a description of the amounts to enter on these lines.

Line 20, Income tax.—The rate of tax imposed depends on whether the political organization is a principal campaign committee as defined in section 527(h). The tax rate is lower for a principal campaign committee.

Political organization not a principal campaign committee.—An organization that is not a principal campaign committee computes its tax on political organization taxable income as follows: Multiply line 19 by 35% and enter the result on line 20.

Principal campaign committee (section 527(h)).—A political organization that is a principal campaign committee of a candidate for U.S. Congress computes its tax in the same manner as provided in section 11(b) for corporations. Compute the tax as follows:

1. Enter taxable income (line 19, Form 1120-POL) _____
2. Enter line 1 or $50,000, whichever is less _____
3. Subtract line 2 from line 1 _____
4. Enter line 3 or $25,000, whichever is less _____
5. Subtract line 4 from line 3 _____
6. Enter line 5 or $9,925,000, whichever is less _____
7. Subtract line 6 from line 5 _____
8. Multiply line 2 by 15% _____
9. Multiply line 4 by 25% _____
10. Multiply line 6 by 34% _____
11. Multiply line 7 by 35% _____
12. If line 1 is greater than $100,000, enter the smaller of: 5% of taxable income in excess of $100,000, or $11,750 _____
13. If line 1 is greater than $15 million, enter the smaller of: 3% of taxable income in excess of $15 million or $100,000 _____
14. Add lines 8 through 13. Enter here and on line 20, Form 1120-POL _____

Note: Estimated tax, alternative minimum tax, and environmental tax do not apply to political organizations.

Line 21, Credits.—The organization may qualify for the following credits:

Foreign tax credit. See Form 1118, Foreign Tax Credit—Corporations.

Possessions tax credit. See Form 5712, Election To Be Treated as a Possessions Corporation Under Section 936, and Form 5735, Possessions Corporation Tax Credit Allowed Under Section 936.

Credit for fuel produced from a nonconventional source. See section 29 for a definition of qualified fuels, provisions for figuring the credit, and other special rules.

Qualified electric vehicle credit. See Form 8834, Qualified Electric Vehicle Credit, and section 30.

Alcohol fuel credit. See Form 6478, Credit for Alcohol Used as Fuel, and section 40.

Research credit. See Form 6765, Credit for Increasing Research Activities, and section 41.

Disabled access credit. See Form 8826, Disabled Access Credit, and section 44.

Enhanced oil recovery credit. See Form 8830, Enhanced Oil Recovery Credit, and section 43.

Renewable electric production credit. See Form 8835, Renewable Electricity Production Credit, and section 45.

Enter the total amount of these credits on line 21 and attach the appropriate forms.

Note: Investment credit and jobs credit do not apply to political organizations.

Line 22.—If the political organization must recapture any of the qualified electric vehicle credit, include the amount of the recapture in the total for line 22. On the dotted line next to the entry space, write, "QEV recapture" and the amount. See Regulations section 1.30-1 for details on how to figure the recapture.

Additional Information

Question 1

Foreign financial accounts.—Check the "Yes" box if either 1 or 2 below applies to the organization. Otherwise, check the "No" box:

1. At any time during the 1995 calendar year the organization had an interest in or signature or other authority over a bank, securities, or other financial account in a foreign country; and

• The combined value of the accounts was more than $10,000 at any time during the calendar year; and

• The account was NOT with a U.S. military banking facility operated by a U.S. financial institution.

2. The organization owns more than 50% of the stock in any corporation that would answer "Yes" to item 1 above.

Get Form TD F 90-22.1, Report of Foreign Bank and Financial Accounts, to see if the organization is considered to have an interest in or signature or other authority over a financial account in a foreign country.

If "Yes" is checked for this question, file Form TD F 90-22.1 by June 30, 1996, with the Department of the Treasury at the address shown on the form. Form TD F 90-22.1 is not a tax return, so do not file it with Form 1120-POL.

You can get Form TD F 90-22.1 from an IRS Distribution Center or by calling our toll-free number 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

Also, if "Yes" is checked for this question, enter the name of the foreign country or countries. Attach a separate sheet if necessary.

Question 3

In the space provided, show any tax-exempt interest received or accrued. Include any exempt-interest dividends received as a shareholder in a mutual fund or other regulated investment company.
