General Instructions

(References are to the Internal Revenue Code.)

Who must file Schedule PH.—Every personal holding company must attach Schedule PH (Form 1120) to its income tax return. A corporation is a "personal holding company" if at least 60% of its adjusted ordinary gross income (as defined in section 543 (b)(2)) for the tax year is personal holding company income (as defined in section 543(a)), and if at any time during the last half of the tax year more than 50% in value of its outstanding stock is owned, directly or indirectly, by or for not more than 5 individuals.

For purposes of determining stock ownership, an organization described in section 401(a), 501(c)(17), or 509(a) or a portion of a trust permanently set aside or to be used exclusively for the purposes described in section 642(c) or a corresponding provision of a prior income tax law is considered an individual except as provided for in section 701(o) of the Revenue Act of 1978. (See section 542(a)(2).)

For exceptions to the term "personal holding company," see section 542(c).

A foreign corporation (except one which has income to which section 543(a)(7) applies) is not a personal holding company if all of its outstanding stock during the last half of the tax year is owned by nonresident alien individuals, whether directly or indirectly through foreign estates, foreign trusts, foreign partnerships, or other foreign corporations. See section 542(c)(7).

Failure of foreign corporations to file.—If a foreign corporation which is a personal holding company fails to file or cause to be filed a true and accurate return of the tax imposed by section 541, a penalty (in addition to any other applicable penalties) shall be imposed equal to 10% of the taxes imposed by chapter 1 of the Code (including personal holding company tax). See section 6683.

Personal holding company income.—Personal holding company income is that portion of adjusted ordinary gross income (as defined in section 543(b)(2)) that consists of the items of income described in section 543(a).

Specific Instructions

(Numbered to correspond with line numbers on page 1 of this schedule.)

Note: For a foreign corporation all of whose outstanding stock during the last half of the tax year is owned by nonresident alien individuals (whether directly or indirectly through foreign estates, foreign trusts, foreign partnerships, or other foreign corporations), taxable income for purposes of section 545(a) is that personal holding company income described in section 543(a) (7), reduced by deductions attributable to that income, and adjusted with respect to the income, in the manner provided in section 545(b). See section 545(d).

1. Taxable income before net operating loss deduction and special deductions.— Enter the amount shown on Form 1120, page 1, line 28, computed without regard to section 443(b) (relating to income placed on an annual basis) but as adjusted for sections 465, 189, or 280.

Line 28 of Form 1120.—The amount to be entered on line 28 of Form 1120 of a Personal Holding Company is to be adjusted for section 465 losses.

Section 465 contains special "at risk" rules which limit the losses of a Personal Holding Company. The "at risk" rules apply to a Personal Holding Company engaged in any activity (except the holding of real property, other than mineral property) as a trade or business or for the production of income.

Section 465(d) losses are limited to the aggregate amount with respect to which the personal holding company is "at risk" for each separate activity at the close of the tax year. The corporation is considered "at risk" for an activity with respect to the amounts described in section 465(b) (1) and (2). The amounts borrowed are not considered to be "at risk" if such amounts are excluded under section 465(b) (3) and (4).

Where the corporation is involved in more than one activity, and one or more of the activities incurs a loss for the year, the loss must be reported separately. The corporation should attach a schedule reflecting the amount "at risk" and gross income and deductions for the activity(ies) with the loss(es).

If a loss from an activity exceeds the amount the Personal Holding Company is 'at risk" for the activity at the end of the tax year, the amount that would otherwise be entered on line 28 of Form 1120 is to be modified for the excess. (Attach schedule.)

If the Personal Holding Company sells or otherwise disposes of an asset in, or its interest in (either total or partial) an activity to which the "at risk" rules apply, combine the gain or loss on the sale or disposition with the profit or loss from the activity to determine the net profit or loss from the activity. If the Personal Holding Company has a net loss, it may be limited because of the "at risk" rules.

See section 204(c)(2) and (3) of the Tax Reform Act of 1976 concerning special transitional rules relating to movies, video tapes, and leasing activities.

Line 26 of Form 1120, Other Deductions.—Any loss from an activity not allowed for the corporation's 1978 tax year by reason of section 465 is treated as a deduction allocable to the activity in 1979. This deduction is entered on line 26 of Form 1120. (See section 465(a).)

Also, see section 189 which provides for limitations on the deductions for real property construction period interest and taxes (other than low-income housing) and section 280 for rules concerning certain expenditures incurred in the production of films, books, or similar property.

If taxable income includes any amount with respect to coal or domestic iron ore

royalties, see section 631(c).

In the case of a foreign corporation (whether or not engaged in a trade or business within the U.S.) which qualifies as a personal holding company under section 542 but not as a foreign personal holding company under section 552, the amount to be entered on line 1 must be computed under section 861 rather than under section 881(a).

3. Expenses and depreciation in excess of amount allowable under section 545(b) (6).—If the corporation derived rent or other compensation for the use of, or right to use, property which was less than the sum of the allowable expenses and depreciation, complete Schedule A and enter the excess on line 3.

This adjustment must be made unless the corporation establishes, according to section 545(b)(6), that the rent or other compensation received was the highest obtainable, or if none was received, that none was obtainable; that the property was held in the course of a business carried on bona fide for profit; and either that there was reasonable expectation that the operation of the property would result in a profit, or that the property was necessary to the conduct of the business.

The burden of proof is on the corporation to sustain the excess deductions. A corporation claiming excess deductions must, instead of completing Schedule A, attach a statement claiming the deductions together with a complete statement of facts, circumstances, and arguments to support the deductions. The statement must show the information required by section 1.545-2(h)(2) of the regulations.

4. Amount added to taxable income where lien in favor of the U.S. is satisfied or released.—If any amount was deducted under section 545(b)(9) in a tax year beginning before January 1, 1977, on account of a lien which is satisfied or released in a tax year beginning on or after January 1, 1977, the amount so deducted shall be included in income for purposes of section 545 as provided in section 545(b)(9). (See Public Law 94-455, section 1951(b)(9)(A) and (B).)

Where an amount is so added, the shareholders may elect to compute the tax on dividends attributable to the added income as though they were received ratably over the period the lien was in effect.

6. Federal and foreign income, war profits, and excess profits taxes.—Attach a schedule showing the nature of the tax, the tax year, and the amount. Section 545 (b)(1) allows a deduction for Federal income taxes accrued during the tax year but not including the accumulated earnings tax imposed by section 531 or the personal holding company tax imposed by section 541.

The foreign tax credit is not allowed against personal holding company tax. A deduction is allowed, however, for income, war profits, and excess profits taxes accrued (or deemed paid under section 902 (a)(1) or 960(a)(1)(C)) during the tax year to foreign countries and U.S. possessions if the corporation claims a credit for such taxes in computing its income tax.

Contributions deductible under section 545(b)(2).-For purposes of the personal holding company tax, section 545(b) (2) provides a different limitation for charitable contributions than the 5% limitation used in determining the corporate income tax. The limitations on charitable deductions of individuals are applicable but are to be applied to the amount of taxable income to which the 5% limitation applied. (See instruction 19, Form 1120.) However, taxable income shall be computed without the deduction of the amount disallowed under section 545(b)(6) (excess expenses and depreciation).

For purposes of the personal holding company tax, the contribution carryover under section 170(d) is not allowed.

8. Net operating loss for the preceding year.—Section 545(b)(4) provides that instead of the net operating loss deduction provided in section 172, a deduction is allowed for the net operating loss (as defined in section 172(c)) for the preceding tax year computed without the deductions provided in part VIII (except section 248) of subchapter B.

10. Amounts used or irrevocably set aside to pay or retire qualified indebtedness. Subject to the limitations described in section 545(c), section 545(c)(1) allows a deduction for amounts used, or amounts irrevocably set aside (to the extent reasonable with reference to the size and terms of the indebtedness), to pay or retire qualified in-debtedness (as defined in section 545(c) (3)). This deduction applies only to corporations described in section 545(c)(2)

Any corporation that claims this deduction must provide detailed information and any necessary computation showing that it is a corporation described in section 545(c) (2)(A) or to the extent that it succeeds to the deduction by reason of section 381(c) (15), it must submit detailed information showing that the distributor or transferor corporation was a corporation described in section 545(c)(2)(A).

Corporation succeeding to the deduction by reason of section 381(c)(15) must make necessary adjustments to Schedule C-2 to take into account the indebtedness.

Complete Schedule C-2 in all cases where qualified indebtedness has changed during the tax year, even though no payments or set-asides were made and no deduction is claimed.

The corporation must furnish all of the facts and circumstances upon which it relies to establish the reasonableness of the amount claimed as a deduction.

Attach a statement showing a description of the indebtedness, the date incurred or assumed, the date due, and the plan for payment or retirement of the obligations (indicating date and method of adoption). If the plan is covered by a mandatory sinking fund agreement or similar arrangement, submit a copy of the indenture or agreement by which the fund was established and under which it is maintained.

The statement must also include: (1) the amount of indebtedness on January 1, 1964; (2) aggregate of amounts used or irrevocably set aside to pay or retire the indebtedness in prior tax years beginning on and after January 1, 1964; (3) amount actually used during the tax year to pay or retire the indebtedness; and (4) amount irrevocably set aside during the tax year to pay or retire the indebtedness but not actually used during the tax year for that purpose. In addition, the statement shall indi-cate whether the deduction claimed represents (a) an amount actually used during the tax year to pay or retire the indebtedness, (b) an amount irrevocably set aside during the tax year to pay or retire the indebtedness, or (c) a combination of both (a) and (b).

If the amount claimed as a deduction on line 10 represents an amount irrevocably set aside to pay or retire the indebtedness, attach a statement explaining the circumstances and method by which it was irrevocably set aside.

Section 545(c)(4) allows corporations to elect to treat as nondeductible certain amounts used or irrevocably set aside to pay or retire qualified indebtedness which are otherwise deductible under section 545 (c)(1). See section 1.545-3(e) of the regulations for time and manner of making the election.

11. Deduction for dividends paid.—Enter the amount of the dividends paid deduction as computed in Schedule B. (Section 561.)

In determining the deduction for dividends paid, the rules in section 562 apply.

14. Dividends paid after close of tax year (excluding deficiency dividends as defined in section 547(d)).—Enter on line 14 and not in Schedule B, the amount of the dividends paid after the close of the tax year and on or before the 15th day of the third month thereafter, if the corporation elects in its return for the tax year to have the dividends considered as paid during that tax year.

Neither line 11 nor line 14 should include deficiency dividends (those dividends which are paid pursuant to a specific procedure set forth in section 547).

15. Undistributed personal holding company income of certain foreign corporations.—If 10% or less in values of the out-standing stock of a foreign corporation is owned (see section 958(a)) during the last half of the taxable year by U.S. persons, undistributed personal holding company income is the amount determined by multiplying the undistributed personal holding company income (as determined without regard to this instruction) by the percentage in value of the corporation's outstanding stock which is the greatest percentage in value of its outstanding stock so owned by U.S. persons on any one day during such period. (Section 545(a).)
