EXPLANATION OF CHANGES to Income, Deductions, Credits, etc. Show computations in detail. Attach applicable schedules, forms, and statements.

General Instructions

Use of Form 1120X.—Form 1120X may be used to correct a corporation income tax return that was previously filed on Form 1120 or later adjusted by an amended return, claim for refund or an examination of the original return. Although the use of this form is not mandatory, Internal Revenue prefers that it be used rather than Form 1120 or Form 843 since it is designed to expedite processing.

A claim for refund may be filed within 3 years from the time the return was filed (returns filed before the due date are deemed to have been filed on the due date) or within 2 years from the date the tax was paid, whichever is later.

Do not use this form in lieu of Form 1139 (Corporation Application for Tentative Refund from Carryback of Net Operating Loss, Net Capital Loss and Unused Investment Credit) or Form 4466 (Corporation Application for Quick Refund of Overpayment of Estimated Tax).

Attachments to the Return.—If the corporation income tax return or instructions requires a schedule, statement, or form to support an item of income, a deduction or credit, etc., attach the appropriate schedule, statement, or form to explain any change.

When to File.—Form 1120X may be filed only after you have filed your original return.

Specific Instructions

Column A.—Enter the amounts shown on your original return or as later adjusted by an amended return, claim for refund, or an examination of your original return.

Line 8.—For taxable years ending before July 1, 1970, you cannot claim a larger credit than you originally claimed once the due date for filing the return (including any extension) has expired. For taxable years ending after June 30, 1970, you may claim the credit for the first time or increase the credit you originally claimed any time before the expiration of the due date for filing a claim for credit or refund. Section 6427, relating to credit or refund of special fuels, applies only to such fuel used after June 30, 1970.

Line 11—Overpayment.—Enter the amount received (or expected to be received) or credited to estimated tax as shown on line 34 of your original return. That amount must be considered in preparing Form 1120X since any refund due from your original return will be refunded separately (or credited to estimated tax) from any additional refund claimed on Form 1120X.

Line 13—Tax due.—Corporations should mail a check with this form for the amount shown on line 13 to the Internal Revenue Service office where they originally filed their return. Do not use the depository method of payment.

Line 14—Refund.—If you are entitled to a refund larger than the amount claimed on your original return, Form 1120X should show only the additional amount. This additional amount will be refunded separately from the amount claimed on your original return, as stated in the instruction for line 11.

Part II, line 2.—Surtax exemption for component members of a controlled group of corporations.—Under the provisions of section 1561, the surtax exemption for component members of a controlled group (see section 1563) is either $25,000 divided by the number of component members or that portion of $25,000 determined in accordance with an apportionment plan.

A controlled group may elect under section 1562 to claim multiple surtax exemptions. For taxable years beginning in 1970 and later, however, section 1564 provides that only one member of the group may claim the full $25,000 with the others being limited to a lesser amount.)

Part II, line 5(a).—If the alternative tax applies, write "ALT." next to the entry.
