Notice to Applicant—To Be Completed by IRS

- We HAVE approved your application. (Please attach this form to your return.)
- We HAVE NOT approved your application. (Please attach this form to your return.) However, because of your reasons stated above, we have granted a 10-day grace period from the date shown below or due date of your return, whichever is later. This 10-day grace period is considered a valid extension of time for purposes of elections otherwise required to be made on timely filed returns.
- We HAVE NOT approved your application. After considering your reasons stated above, we cannot grant your request for an extension of time to file. (We are not granting the 10-day grace period.)
- We cannot consider your application because it was filed after the due date of your return.

General Instructions

(Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.)

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice.—We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to give us this information. We need it to ensure that you are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax.

The time needed to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. The average estimated time is:

Recordkeeping 3 hrs., 21 min.

Learning about the law or the form 6 min.

Copying, assembling, and sending the form to IRS 10 min.

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making this form more simple, we would be happy to hear from you. You can write to both the Internal Revenue Service, Washington, DC 20224, Attention: IRS Reports Clearance Officer, T:FP; and the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project (1545-0148), Washington, DC 20503. DO NOT send the tax form to either of these offices. Instead, see Where To File below.

Purpose of Form.—Use Form 2758 to request an extension of time to file any of the returns listed under line 1, page 1.

Note: An extension of time granted by filing Form 2758 will apply only to the specific return checked on line 1. It will not extend any related returns. For example, an extension of time for filing an estate's income tax return will not apply to the individual income tax returns of the beneficiaries.

When To File.—You must file Form 2758 in adequate time to permit the Internal Revenue Service to consider the application and reply before the return's regular due date.

Blanket Requests.—We will not grant blanket requests for extensions. File a separate form for each return. Note: Black lung benefit trusts, their trustees, and any disqualified persons filing Form 990-BL must each file separate applications. Also, trustees and disqualified persons filing Form 1120-ND to report section 4951 taxes must each file separate applications.

Reasons for Extension.—IRS will grant a reasonable extension of time for filing a return. You must file a timely application and show reasonable cause why the return cannot be filed by the due date. Generally, we will consider the application based on your efforts to fulfill the filing requirements, rather than on the convenience of your tax return preparer. However, if your tax return preparer is not able to complete the return by the due date for reasons beyond his or her control or, in spite of reasonable efforts, you are not able to get professional help in time to file, IRS will generally grant the extension.

Caution: If an extension is granted and the IRS later determines that the statements made on this form are false and misleading, the extension is null and void.

You will be subject to the late filing penalty explained below.

Extension Period.—Generally we will not grant an extension of time for more than 60 days unless sufficient need for an extended period is clearly shown. In no event will we grant an extension of more than 6 months to an applicant living in the United States.

Where To File.—File the original and one copy of this form with the Internal Revenue Service Center serving the taxpayer's address. If you are extending Form 1042 or 1042S and do not file Form 1042S on magnetic tape, or if you do not have a principal office or place of business in the United States, file this form with the Internal Revenue Service Center, Philadelphia, PA 19255.

If you are filing Form 1042S on magnetic tape, file this form with the Martinsburg Computing Center, P.O. Box 1359, Martinsburg, WV 25401.

File Form 2758 for Forms 990-BL and 6069 with the Internal Revenue Service Center, Cincinnati, OH 45999.

Filing Your Tax Return.—You may file your tax return any time before the extension of time is up.

Interest.—Interest is charged on the tax not paid by the regular due date of the return until the tax is paid. It will be charged even if you have been granted an extension or show reasonable cause for not paying on time.

Late payment penalty.—Generally a penalty of 1/2 of 1% of any tax (other than estimated tax) not paid by the due date is charged for each month, or part of a month, that the tax remains unpaid. The penalty will not be charged if you can show reasonable cause for not paying on time.

Late filing penalty.—A penalty is charged if the return is filed after the due date (including extensions) unless you can show reasonable cause for filing late. The penalty is 5% of the tax not paid by the regular due date (even if an extension of time to pay has been granted) for each month, or part of a month, that the return is late. If the return is more than 60 days late, the penalty will not be less than $100 or the balance of the tax due on the return, whichever is smaller.

Different late filing penalties apply to information returns. See the specific form instructions for details.

Exempt Organization Group Returns.—A central organization may request an extension of time to file a group return. Please attach a schedule to Form 2758 showing the name and employer identification number of the local organizations that will be included in the group return.

Specific Instructions

Address.—If your address is outside of the United States, or its possessions or territories, enter the information on the line for "City, town, or post office, state, and ZIP code" in the following order: city, province or state, postal code, and the name of the country. Do not abbreviate the country name.

The Internal Revenue Service will not use Form 2758 to update your address of record. If you wish to change your address, complete Form 8822, Change of Address. To obtain Form 8822, call 1-800-TAX FORM (1-800-829-3676).

Line 1.—Check the box for the form for which you are requesting an extension. You must file a separate Form 2758 for each return. Check only one box. Use Form 2758 for estates that file Form 1041, U.S. Fiduciary Income Tax Return. Trusts that file Form 1041 must use Form 8736 to apply for an extension.

Line 4.—Clearly describe the reasons causing delay in your filing the return. We cannot approve applications that give incomplete reasons, such as "illness" or "practitioner too busy," without adequate explanations. If it is clear that a request for extension was made for no important reason but only to gain time, we will deny both the extension request and the 10-day grace period.

Line 5a.—See the specific form and form instructions to estimate the amount of the tentative tax, reduced by any nonrefundable credits.

Line 5c. Balance due.—Form 2758 does not extend the time to pay tax. To avoid interest and penalties, send the full balance due with Form 2758.

Note: If you are requesting an extension of time to file Form 990-PF or 990-T, do not send a payment with Form 2758. Instead, deposit the payment with Form 8109, Federal Tax Deposit Coupon. If you are requesting an extension of time to file Form 1042, see the deposit rules in the instructions for that form to determine whether payment must be made with a coupon or may be made with Form 2758.
