Who May File

Master or prototype plans.—Sponsoring organizations and mass submitters (see Definitions below).

Regional prototype plan.—Sponsors and mass submitters (see Definitions below).

What To File

One copy of Form 4461 should be submitted for each separate adoption agreement.

For initial approval, file this application and each applicable document listed in item 12(b). For approval of an amendment, file this application and a copy of each applicable document listed in item 12(c).

Different parts of this form must be completed depending on the type of plan for which you want approval.

Standardized plans.—If you want to receive an opinion letter or a notification letter on a standardized plan, complete Parts I and II.

Paired plans.—If you want to receive an opinion letter or a notification letter on a paired plan, complete Parts I, II, and III.

Nonstandardized plans.—If you want to receive an opinion letter or notification letter on a plan other than a standardized or paired plan, complete Parts I and IV. A nonstandardized safe harbor plan must meet the requirements of Rev. Proc. 1993-10, 93-1 C.B. 476, as modified by Rev. Proc. 93-39, 1993-2 C.B. 513.

Regional prototype plans.—Complete Parts I through IV, as appropriate, whether you are filing with the National Office as a regional prototype mass submitter or with the key district office as a sponsor of a regional prototype plan. When filing with the key district office, Form 8717, User Fee for Employee Plan Determination Letter Request, should be submitted along with this application. To request a notification letter on behalf of a sponsor who adopts a mass submitter regional prototype plan, file Form 4461-B, Application for Approval of Master or Prototype Plan, or Regional Prototype Plan, Mass Submitter Adopting Sponsor, with the appropriate key district office.

Multiple plans.—A sponsoring organization or sponsor may utilize one basic plan document for several plans. A sponsoring organization may, for example, use one basic plan document for a money purchase plan other than a target benefit plan, a target benefit plan, and a profit-sharing plan. A separate adoption agreement and completed application must be provided for each such defined contribution plan. In the case of a simultaneous submission, submit only one basic plan document. If the request is not simultaneous, separate basic plan documents must be submitted (but the number assigned to the basic plan document of a master or prototype plan remains the same).

Paired plans must be submitted simultaneously. Paired plans are paired by the basic plan documents. Two defined contribution plans that are paired (a profit-sharing and a money purchase plan) must share one basic plan document.

Where To File

Master or prototype plan.—File the application with Internal Revenue Service, Assistant Commissioner (Employee Plans and Exempt Organizations), Attention: CP:E:EP:Q, P.O. Box 14073, Ben Franklin Station, Washington, DC 20224.

Disclosure requested by taxpayer.—The Tax Reform Act of 1976 permits a taxpayer to request the Service to disclose and discuss the return or return information with any person(s) the taxpayer designates in a written request. If you want to designate a person(s) to assist in an application for approval, you must provide the IRS office of jurisdiction with a written request that contains:

- The taxpayer's name, address, employer identification number, and plan number(s).
- The name, address, social security number, and telephone number(s) of the person or persons whom you are authorizing to receive return information.
- A paragraph that clearly describes the return or return information that you authorize the IRS to disclose.
- An authorized signature (see above).

As an alternative to providing the above statement, you may submit Form 2848, Power of Attorney and Declaration of Representative, may be submitted.

Definitions

Adoption agreement.—The portion of the plan containing all the options that the adopting employer may select. Each separate adoption agreement is treated as a separate plan and will receive its own opinion or notification letter.

Basic plan document.—The portion of the plan containing all the nonexclusive provisions applicable to all adopting employers. No options (including blanks to be completed) may be provided in the basic plan document except for options in flexible plans.

Favorable TEFRA opinion letter.—A favorable opinion letter issued by the national office after July 18, 1985.

Flexible plan.—A plan submitted by a mass submitter which contains certain optional provisions as allowed by Rev. Proc. 89-9. Sponsoring organizations which adopt a flexible plan may include or delete any optional provision designated as such in the mass submitter's plan. A flexible plan adopted by a sponsoring organization which differs from the mass submitter plan only because of the deletion of certain optional provisions will be treated as a word-for-word identical plan to the mass submitter plan.

Mass submitter.—Any entity (whether or not such entity is a sponsoring organization) which submits applications for at least 10 sponsoring organizations that will sponsor a word-for-word identical Master or Prototype plan. A mass submitter which is a sponsoring organization may count as 1 of the 10 sponsoring organizations.

Mass submitter regional prototype plan.—A plan that is made available to sponsors by a regional prototype mass submitter that would otherwise meet all of the requirements applicable to regional prototype plans.

Master plan.—A form of plan that is made available by a sponsoring organization for adoption by employers for which a single funding medium (e.g., a trust or custodial account) is established, as part of the plan, for the joint use of all adopting employers. A master plan consists of an adoption agreement and a basic plan document.

Paired plans.—A combination of either two or more defined contribution standardized plans or one or more defined contribution standardized plans and one defined benefit standardized plan, designed so that if any single plan or combination of plans is adopted by an employer, each plan in itself, or the plans together, will meet the anti-discrimination rules of section 401(a)(4), the contribution and benefit limitations of section 415, and the top-heavy provisions of section 416. Paired plans must have the same sponsoring organization and they must be submitted for initial approval at the same time. Each set of paired plans must be limited to two different basic plan documents; one for a defined benefit plan and one for a defined contribution plan. Only one of the paired plans an employer adopts may be integrated.

Prototype plan.—A form of plan that is made available by a sponsoring organization for adoption by employers under which a separate funding medium is established for each adopting employer. A prototype plan consists of an adoption agreement and a basic plan document.

Regional prototype plan.—A plan that is made available by a regional sponsor for adoption by employers, and which consists of an adoption agreement, a basic plan document and, except in the case where the basic plan document incorporates a trust or custodial account agreement the provisions of which are applicable to all adopting employers, a trust or custodial document.

Regional prototype plan mass submitter.—Any person, whether or not such person is a sponsor, which can establish that, if it receives a favorable notification letter for a regional prototype plan it has submitted to the Service, there are at least 50 unaffiliated sponsors that will adopt the plan on a word-for-word identical basis.

Replacement plan.—A plan submitted by a sponsoring organization which restates or amends a prior plan of that sponsoring organization which has a favorable TEFRA opinion letter as of the date the replacement plan is submitted. Except to the extent permitted under Regulations sections 1.401(a)-4 and 1.411(d)-4, a replacement plan must preserve all section 411(d)(6) protected benefits which were provided under the replaced plan, and must be the same type as the plan replaced (e.g., both plans are money purchase plans). The plan replaced can only be replaced by one basic plan document; but such replacement may contain additional adoption agreements.

Sponsoring organization.—A bank (as defined in section 581), an insured credit union within the meaning of section 101(6) of the Federal Credit Union Act, a person that has been approved by the IRS in accordance with Regulations section 1.401-12(n) to act as a nonbank trustee, an insurance company, a regulated investment advisor that has an advisory contract with one or more regulated investment companies, or a principal underwriter that has a principal underwriting contract with one or more regulated investment companies. The term "sponsoring organization" also includes a trade or professional organization having characteristics similar to those described in section 501(c)(6) which markets its plan only to its members in their capacity as adopting employers.

Sponsor.—A firm, other than a sponsoring organization, that: (1) has an established place of business in the United States where it is accessible during every business day, and (2) either has at least 30 clients that have their principal place of business within the jurisdiction of not more than two regions of the Service and are expected to adopt the sponsor's regional prototype plan, or has at least three clients that are expected to adopt a mass submitter regional prototype plan with respect to which a favorable notification letter has been issued to its sponsor.

Standardized plan.—A plan which meets the specific requirements of Part II of this form.

Specific Instructions

Line 1.—All applications submitted must be accompanied by the appropriate user fee as determined from the schedule in Rev. Proc. 94-8, 1994-1 I.R.B. 176, when Form 4461 is filed with the National Office. When Form 4461 is filed with a key district office, attach Form 8717 and the appropriate user fee. Applications submitted without the proper user fee will not be processed and will be returned to the applicant.

Line 2.—Enter a 1 if this application is for an initial approval. If the application is for an amended plan, enter a 2 and complete the boxes to the right of line 2.

Line 3a.—Enter the name and address of the plan sponsor. If the Post Office does not deliver mail to the street address and the sponsor has a P.O. box number, show the P.O. box number instead of the street address.

Line 4(5).—Investment advisor/principal underwriter must be contracted with a regulated investment company. See Sponsoring organization above.

Line 4(6).—N/A may be indicated only if (3), (5), or (6) is indicated on line 3d.

Line 5a.—If the person to be contacted is other than an employee of the applicant, please enclose an authorized power of attorney. See Disclosure requested by a Taxpayer on page 9.

Line 6b.—For master and prototype plans only.—Enter the two-digit basic plan document number you have assigned to the basic plan document designed to accompany the adoption agreement for which you are requesting approval. All basic plan documents from one sponsoring organization which are the same (word-for-word) should use the same two-digit number on all applications. The first basic plan document submitted should be numbered "01," the second, "02," etc.

Line 6c.—Master and prototype plans.—Enter the three-digit number you have assigned to the adoption agreement for which this application is submitted. Each different adoption agreement designed to accompany a single basic plan document should be given a different three-digit number beginning with "001." For example, if the first basic plan document of a sponsoring organization has four separate adoption agreements, they should be numbered "001" through "004," and four separate Forms 4461 should be submitted. Adoption agreements submitted with the second or any subsequent basic plan documents (that are not word-for-word identical to a previously submitted basic plan document) should be similarly numbered beginning with "001."

Regional Prototype Plans.—Enter the three digit plan number beginning with 001. See, Rev. Proc. 89-13, section 10.02.

Line 9.—Indicate if this plan provides for permitted disparity in accordance with section 401(l) by entering the appropriate number. Cash or deferred arrangements may not be integrated.

Line 10—Paired plans.—If the application is for a paired plan (see Definitions on page 9), attach a list showing the name(s) and three-digit adoption agreement number(s) (plan number for regional prototype plan) of the plan or plans designed to be paired with this plan. Initial requests for approval of paired plans must be submitted together.

Line 11—Replacement plans.—If this application is for a replacement plan (see definition above), enter the file folder numbers of each plan being replaced. If more than three plans are being replaced, attach an additional sheet to the back of this application containing the information requested on line 11.

Line 12—Procedural requirements.—A separate application must be submitted for each different plan/adoption agreement combination.

Line 12c.—The applicant must submit, along with this application, either: (a) a copy of the amendment, a description of the amendment and its effect on the plan, and a working copy of the plan currently in effect, or (b) a copy of the amended plan in restated form with areas of change highlighted (a restated plan). If a restated plan is being submitted with this application, a copy of the amendment and a description of such amendment need not be submitted. The Internal Revenue Service may, at its discretion, require plan restatement any time it deems necessary.

Line 12d.—If you checked "Yes," submit a copy of such plan with language differences highlighted. Attach a cover letter which provides the name and file folder number of the plan (including the name and EIN of the sponsoring organization), a list of all plans written by the plan drafter which are substantially identical to the lead plan (including the information described above), a description of each place where the plan for which the application is being submitted is not word-for-word identical to the language of the lead plan (including an explanation of the purpose and effect of each difference), and a certification, made under penalty of perjury by the plan drafter, that the information describing where the plan language is not word-for-word identical is true and complete.

Line 12e.—A master or prototype mass submitter must submit the applications of at least 10 sponsoring organizations which will sponsor a word-for-word identical master or prototype plan. A mass submitter which is a sponsoring organization may count as 1 of the 10 sponsoring organizations. A regional prototype mass submitter must submit a certification identifying by name and address at least 50 sponsors who are expected to sponsor the identical plan.

The mass submitter must use Form 4461-B when submitting applications on behalf of its adopting sponsoring organizations. The regional prototype mass submitter should use Form 4461-B when submitting applications on behalf of its sponsor.

National sponsoring organizations (see Definition above) must maintain a list of their adopting employers. For this purpose, an adopting employer is any employer that has adopted a master or prototype plan of the sponsoring organization which has a favorable TEFRA opinion letter.
