Instructions

(References are to the Internal Revenue Code)

Line 1—Earned income.—“Earned income” generally means wages, salaries, professional fees, bonuses, commissions on sales or on insurance premiums, tips, and other amounts received as compensation for personal services actually rendered. It includes prizes and awards (other than gambling gains), group-term life insurance purchased for employees that are includible in gross income, and amounts includible in gross income under section 83.

If you perform personal services for a corporation, “earned income” means only that portion of income received from the corporation that represents a reasonable allowance for salaries and other compensation for personal services actually rendered. It also includes gains (other than capital gains) and net earnings derived from the sale or other disposition of, the transfer of any interest in, or the licensing of the use of property (other than goodwill) if your personal efforts created such property.

The entire amount you receive for the performance of professional services, such as services performed by a doctor, dentist, lawyer, architect, or accountant, will be treated as earned income if you are individually and personally responsible for the services performed, even though you employ assistants to perform all or part of such services.

If you are engaged in a noncorporate trade or business in which both personal services and capital are material income-producing factors, a reasonable allowance (but not more than 30% of your share of net profits of such trade or business) will be considered to be earned income. See section 1.1348–3(a)(3) of the regulations for rules on earned income from business in which capital is material.

For rules relating to income in respect of a decedent, see section 1.1348–3(a)(4) of the regulations.

If you are a nonresident alien, “earned income” includes only income from sources within the United States that is effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business in the United States.

“Earned income” does not include such income as dividends (including amounts treated as dividends by reason of section 1373(b) and Income Tax Regulations section 1.1373–1), other distributions of corporate earnings and profits, gambling gains, or gains treated as capital gains under chapter 1 of the code.

“Earned income” does not include any distribution to which sections 72(m)(5), 72(n), 402(a)(2), or 403(a)(2)(A) apply, or any deferred compensation within the meaning of section 404. “Deferred compensation” for this purpose does not include any amount received before the end of the taxable year following the first taxable year of the recipient in which his right to receive such amount is not subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture.

Section 72(m)(5) deals with premature or excessive distributions from a qualified employees’ pension plan or trust to an employee who is (or was) also an owner of the business.

Sections 72(n), 402(a)(2), or 403(a)(2)(A) deal with certain lump-sum distributions from qualified plans that are treated as capital gains or are subject to special averaging rules.

See section 1.1348–3(a)(5) of the regulations for exceptions to definition of earned income.

See section 1.1348–3(b) of the regulations for definition and examples of deferred compensation.

If you are a nonresident alien, “earned income” does not include salaries, wages, compensations, remunerations, emoluments, and other fixed or determinable annual or periodic gains, profits and income subject to tax at the rate of 30 percent (or lower treaty rate) under section 871(a)(1)(A).

Line 2—Deductions.—Include on this line any deductions that are required to be taken into account under section 62 in determining adjusted gross income and are properly allocable to or chargeable against earned income. Such deductions include:

- (1) deductions attributable to a trade or business from which earned income is or may be derived,
- (2) expenses paid or incurred in connection with the performance of services as an employee,
- (3) deductions allowable by sections 404 (employer contributions to an employer’s trust or annuity plan) and 405(c) (employer contributions to qualified bond purchase plans),
- (4) deductions allowable by section 217 (moving expense),
- (5) deductions allowable by section 1379(b)(3) (employer contributions to qualified pension, etc., plans), and
- (6) a net operating loss deduction to the extent that the net operating losses carried to the taxable year are properly allocable to or chargeable against earned income. See section 1.1348–2(d)(2)(vi) of the regulations for more information on net operating loss deduction.

Line 8—Tax preference offset.—See section 1.1348–2(d)(3) of the regulations for detailed information concerning items of tax preference to be taken into account to determine the tax preference offset.

Line 9—Earned taxable income.—“Earned taxable income” means the excess of the portion of taxable income attributable to earned net income over the tax preference offset.

See section 1.1348–2(d)(4) of the regulations for illustrations showing computation of earned taxable income.

NOTE: If short period return, see section 1.1348–2(c) of the regulations.
