Instructions for Employees

A Change To Note

New rules apply to moving expenses incurred after December 31, 1993. For details, get Pub. 553, Highlights of 1993 Tax Changes.

Purpose of Form

This form is furnished by your employer to give you the information you need to figure your moving expense deduction. The form shows the amount of any reimbursement made to you, payments made to a third party for your benefit, and the value of services furnished in kind for moving expenses. You should receive a separate form for each move you made during the calendar year for which you receive any reimbursement or during which payment is made for your benefit.

Purpose of Form

You are required to give your employees a statement showing a detailed breakdown of reimbursements or payments of moving expenses. Form 4782 may be used for this purpose or you may use your own form as long as it provides the same information as Form 4782. A separate form is required for each move made by an employee for which reimbursement or payment is made.

Form W-2

Any payments you made for an employee's move (including the value of any services furnished in kind) must be included on the employee's Form W-2, in box 1, "Wages, tips, other compensation."

Payments for moving expenses that are deductible by your employee are not subject to withholding.

Payments for moving expenses that are not deductible by your employee (other than the 20% nondeductible meals expense) are subject to withholding. This includes withholding of income, social security, and Medicare tax.

When To Give the Information

You must give Form 4782 (or your own form) to your employee by January 31 following the calendar year in which the employee received the reimbursement or payment. However, if the employee stops working for you before December 31 and submits a written request to receive the form earlier, you must give the completed form to the former employee within 30 days after you receive the request if the 30-day period ends before the regular January 31 deadline.

Penalty for Not Providing the Information or Providing Incorrect Information

If you fail to give Form 4782 (or your own form) to your employee by the due date or fail to include correct information on the form, you may be subject to a penalty. The penalty is $50 for each failure.

Additional Information

For more details on withholding requirements, see Pub. 15. For assistance in determining what moving expenses would be deductible by your employee, get Form 3903, Moving Expenses, and its instructions; Form 3903-F, Foreign Moving Expenses, and its instructions; or Pub. 521, Moving Expenses.

Caution: This form is not verification of your moving expenses. It only shows amounts your employer included in your income for moving expenses. These amounts may be different from the amounts you actually spent.

Who May Deduct Moving Expenses

If you file Form 1040 and itemize your deductions, you may deduct the reasonable expenses you paid or incurred during the tax year to move to a new principal place of work (workplace). But you must generally meet the "distance" and "time" tests explained below. If you incurred expenses shown on this form and they qualify as deductible moving expenses, you may include them in figuring your moving expense deduction.

For moves within or to the United States, use Form 3903, Moving

Expenses, to figure your deduction. If you moved outside the United States or its possessions, use Form 3903-F, Foreign Moving Expenses, to figure your deduction.

Distance Test.—Your new workplace must be at least 35 miles farther from your old home than your old workplace was.

Time Test.—If you are an employee, you must work full time in the general area of your new workplace for at least 39 weeks during the 12 months right after you move.

Additional Information

See the form instructions and Pub. 521, Moving Expenses, for detailed moving expense information, including which expenses qualify and what are reasonable expenses.
