General Information

(Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code)

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

The Paperwork Reduction Act of 1980 says that we must tell you why we are collecting this information, how it is to be used, and whether you have to give it to us. The information is used to determine whether you meet the legal requirements for the plan approval you request. Your filing of this information is only required if you wish IRS to issue an approval letter for your plan under sections 408(a), 408(b) or 408(c).

Purpose of Form

This form is used by employers or associations of employees who want IRS approval of an individual retirement account trust (as described under section 408(c)) for use by their employees or members.

This form is also used by certain persons who want IRS approval of prototype individual retirement account or annuity contract.

An employee's social security number will serve as the identification number of his individual retirement account. An employer identification number is not required for each individual retirement account, nor for a common fund created for such individual retirement accounts.

General Instructions

A. Who May File for a Prototype Individual Retirement Account.—Form

5306 may be filed to secure IRS approval of the form of a trust or annuity contract by:

- Banks (including savings and loan associations that qualify as banks and federally insured credit unions)
- Any person who has IRS approval to act as a trustee or custodian
- Insurance companies
- Regulated investment companies
- Trade or professional societies or associations (other than employee associations)

B. Who May File for Employer or Employee Association Established Individual Retirement Accounts.—

Employers or employee associations who want a ruling under section 408(c) for a trust which will be used for individual retirement accounts may file this form. The term employee association means any organization composed of two or more employees, including, but not limited to, an employee association described in section 501(c)(4).

C. Who Does Not Need to File.—

Sponsors of programs, employers or associations of employees that use the Individual Retirement Trust Account (Form 5305) or Individual Retirement Custodial Account (Form 5305-A) should not submit their programs to the Internal Revenue Service since these forms are considered to meet the requirements of section 408. This applies even though a sponsor, employer or association of employees may have reproduced the provisions of these forms on their own letterhead or in pamphlets which omit all references to the Internal Revenue Service or its forms.

D. What to File.—File this application and one copy of all instruments constituting this trust or annuity contract or if an amendment, file a copy of such amendment and an explanation of its effect on the trust or contract.

E. Where to File.—File this application with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Attention: OP:E:EP:RQ, Washington, DC 20224.

F. Signature.—A principal officer who is authorized to sign or another person authorized under a power of attorney must sign this application. (Send the power of attorney with this application when you file it.)

Specific Instructions

1(a). Indicate whether you are filing an application for (1) a prototype individual retirement account or annuity under section 408(a) or (b); (2) an employer or employee association established individual retirement account under section 408(c).

1(c)(iii). If you are amending your plan, enter the file folder number from the latest opinion letter you received for your plan.

1(c)(iv). In order to distinguish between the prototype IRA's of the same sponsor, the sponsor must designate a different three-digit number beginning with the number 001 for each separate prototype plan of the sponsor. The second IRA submitted by a sponsor should be designated 002 and so forth. Enter here the IRA number assigned to the IRA covered by this application.

2(c). Complete this item only if you have checked 1(a)(2). If you have checked 1(a)(2), enter the business code you entered on your income tax return or your information return.
