The information in boxes 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 is being furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

Form 5498

(Keep for your records.)

Department of the Treasury - Internal Revenue Service

Instructions to Participant

The information in boxes 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 is submitted to the Internal Revenue Service by the trustee or issuer of your individual retirement arrangement (IRA) to report regular or rollover contributions made to your IRA and the value of your IRA or simplified employee pension (SEP) account.

If you or your spouse was an active participant in an employer's pension plan, your IRA contributions may not be deductible. See the instructions for your tax return for details.

Caution: If you are at least age 70½, you must take minimum distributions from your IRA. If you don't, you may be subject to a 50% excise tax on the amount that should have been distributed. If you inherited this IRA, certain minimum distribution rules apply. See Pub. 590, Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), for minimum distribution methods.

Box 1.—The amount shown is the contributions for 1996 made in 1996 and through April 15, 1997, to an IRA.

Box 2.—This is the amount of any rollover, including a direct rollover, you made in 1996. You must report the total distribution you received from your IRA on the appropriate line of your income tax return. Subtract the part of the distribution that was rolled over and enter the taxable remainder on the appropriate line of your income tax return. But if you have ever made any nondeductible contributions to your IRA, use Form 8606, Nondeductible IRAs (Contributions, Distributions, and Basis) to figure the taxable amount. If property was rolled over, see Pub. 590.

Box 3.—For endowment contracts only, this is the amount allocable to the cost of life insurance. Subtract this amount from your allowable IRA contribution included in box 1 to compute the amount allowable for your IRA deduction.

Box 4.—This is the fair market value (FMV) of your account at the end of the year. However, if a decedent is shown as the participant on this form, it may be the FMV on the date of death. If a decedent's name is shown as the participant and the FMV shown is zero, the executor or administrator of the decedent's estate may request a date-of-death valuation from the financial institution.

Box 5.—If the box is marked, the information on this form/statement is for a simplified employee pension (SEP).

The trustee or issuer of the plan may use the other boxes on this form to give you more information about your IRA.

You are not required to attach a copy of Form 5498 to your income tax return. Keep this form for your records. For more information about IRAs, see Pub. 590.
