General Instructions

This schedule must be attached to Form 5500, 5500-C or 5500-K, for every defined benefit, defined contribution and welfare benefit plan where any benefits under the plan are provided by an insurance company, insurance service or other similar organization.

Exception.—An employee benefit plan which covers only an individual or an individual and his or her spouse and the individual or the individual and his or her spouse wholly owns a trade or business, whether incorporated or unincorporated, need not file Schedule A. An employee benefit plan which covers only partners or covers only partners and their spouses need not file Schedule A.

Specific Instructions

(References are to the line items on the form.)

Include only contracts with policy or contract years ending with or within the plan year. Data on Schedule A should be reported only for such policy or contract years. Exception: If the insurance company maintains records on the basis of a plan year rather than policy or contract year, data on Schedule A (Form 5500) may be reported for the plan year.

Include only the contracts issued to the plan for which this return/report is being filed.

2(c).—Since the plan coverage may fluctuate during the year, the number of persons entered should be that which the administrator determines will most reasonably reflect the number covered by the plan at the end of the policy or contract year.

Where contracts covering individual employees are grouped, entries should be determined as of the end of the plan year.

2(d) and (e).—Enter the beginning and ending dates of the policy year for each contract listed under column (b). Where separate contracts covering individual employees are grouped, enter "N/A" in column (d).

3.—All sales commissions are to be reported in column (c) regardless of the identity of the recipient. Override commissions, salaries, bonuses, etc., paid to a general agent or manager for managing an agency, or for performing other administrative functions, are not to be reported. Fees to be reported in column (d) represent payments by insurance carriers to agents and brokers for items other than commissions (e.g., service fees, consulting fees and finders fees). Fees paid by insurance carriers to persons other than agents and brokers should be reported in Parts II and III on Schedule A (Form 5500) as acquisition costs, administration charges, etc., as appropriate. Fees paid by employee benefit plans to agents, brokers and other persons are to be reported in item 12, Form 5500; item 19, Form 5500-C and item 14, Form 5500-K.

5(a).—The rate information called for here may be furnished by attachment of appropriate schedules of current rates filed with appropriate state insurance departments or by a statement as to the basis of the rates.

6.—Show deposit fund amounts rather than experience credit records when both are maintained.

8(d).—The rate information called for here may be furnished by attachment of appropriate schedules of current rates or by a statement as to the basis of the rates.

9(b)(iv).—The amount in 9(b)(iii) will not necessarily agree with the amount in 9(b)(iv).
