Instructions

A. Depositary Method of Payment.—Foreign corporations having an office or place of business within the United States and domestic corporations must deposit all income tax payments with an authorized commercial bank depositary or Federal Reserve bank. All deposits must be accompanied by a Federal Tax Deposit Form 503.

Please enter the serial number of Form 503 on your remittance. Do not remit directly to Internal Revenue Service. Timeliness of deposits will be determined by the date the deposit was received by the commercial bank depositary or Federal Reserve bank.

A supply of Forms 503 will be mailed to domestic corporations on a cyclical basis depending on the taxable year of the corporation. Domestic and foreign corporations needing Forms 503 may obtain them from the Internal Revenue Service Center where they will file their returns. The application should include the corporation’s name, identification number, address, and the taxable year to which the deposits relate, and a statement identifying the corporation as being foreign or domestic.

B. Who May File.—This application is to be used by a corporation to request an automatic 3-month extension of time to file its income tax return.

The extension is allowed upon the timely and proper filing of this form and timely deposit of the required amount in accordance with instructions A.1 and A.2. If the corporation needs a further extension beyond the 3 months automatically allowed by the filing of Form 7004, an application may be filed on Form 7005. Application for Additional Extension of Time to File Corporation Income Tax Return.

Note: A Domestic International Sales Corporation (DISC) is not allowed an extension of time to file its return.

C. When to File.—File this application on or before the original due date of the corporation’s income tax return.

D. How and Where to File.—Complete this form in duplicate. File the original with the Internal Revenue Service Center where the corporation will file its income tax return. Attach the duplicate to the corporation’s income tax return when it is filed. The corporation’s income tax return may be filed any time prior to the expiration of the 3-month period.
