Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice

We ask for this information to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. We may give the information to the Department of Justice and to other Federal agencies, as provided by law. We may also give it to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths or possessions to carry out their tax laws. And we may give it to foreign governments because of tax treaties they have with the United States.

If you fail to provide the Internal Revenue Service with your current mailing address, you may not receive a notice of deficiency or a notice and demand for tax. Despite the failure to receive such notices, penalties and interest will continue to accrue on the tax deficiencies.

The time needed to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average time is 16 minutes.

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of this time estimate or suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. You can write to the Internal Revenue Service, Attention: Tax Forms Committee, PC:FP, Washington, DC 20224. DO NOT send the form to this address. Instead, see Where To File on this page.

Purpose of Form

You may use Form 8822 to notify the Internal Revenue Service if you changed your home or business mailing address or your business location. Generally, complete only one Form 8822 to change your home and business addresses. If this change also affects the mailing address for your children who filed income tax returns, complete and file a separate Form 8822 for each child. If you are a representative signing for the taxpayer, attach to Form 8822 a copy of your power of attorney.

Note: If you moved after you filed your return and you are expecting a refund, also notify the post office serving your old address. This will help forward your check to your new address.

Prior Name(s)

If you or your spouse changed your name because of marriage, divorce, etc., complete line 6. Also, be sure to notify the Social Security Administration of your new name so that it has the same name in its records that you have on your tax return. This prevents delays in processing your return and issuing refunds. It also safeguards your future social security benefits.

P.O. Box

If your post office does not deliver mail to your street address and you have a P.O. box, show your box number instead of your street address.

Foreign Address

If your address is outside the United States or its possessions or territories, enter the information in the following order: number, street, city, province or state, postal code, and country. Do not abbreviate the country name. Be sure to include any apartment, room, or suite number in the space provided.

Employee Plan Returns

A change in the mailing address for employee plan returns must be shown on a separate Form 8822 unless the Exception below applies.

Exception. If the employee plan returns were filed with the same service center as your other returns (individual, business, employment, gift, estate, etc.), you do not have to use a separate Form 8822. See Where To File below.
