General Instructions

Purpose of Form

Use Form 8914 to claim your personal exemptions, exemptions for dependents, and the additional exemption amount for providing housing in your main home to one or more Midwestern displaced individuals.

Additional Exemption Amount

You can claim an additional exemption amount of $500 for each Midwestern displaced individual (defined below). You can claim an additional exemption amount only one time for a specific individual. If you claim an additional exemption amount for an individual in 2008, you cannot claim that amount again for the same individual in 2009. The maximum additional exemption amount you can claim for all displaced individuals is $2,000 ($1,000 if married filing separately). Any additional exemption amount you claim for displaced individuals in 2008 will reduce the $2,000 maximum for 2009. If two or more taxpayers share the same main home, only one taxpayer in that main home can claim the additional exemption amount for a specific displaced individual. If married filing separately, only one spouse can claim the additional exemption amount for a specific displaced individual. In order for you to be considered to have provided housing, you must have a legal interest in the main home (that is, own or rent the home).

Midwestern Displaced Individual

To qualify as a Midwestern displaced individual, an individual must meet the following three conditions.

- The individual must have had his or her main home in one of the counties listed in Table 1 or Table 2 on page 4 on the applicable disaster date shown in the table for that county, and he or she must have been displaced from that home. In addition, if the individual's main home was in a county listed in Table 2, the home must have been damaged by the storms, tornadoes, or flooding that gave rise to the disaster declaration for that county, or the individual must have been evacuated from the home because of the storms, tornadoes, or flooding.
- He or she must have been provided housing in your main home free of charge for a period of at least 60 consecutive days ending in the tax year in which the exemption is claimed. See Compensation for Housing below.
- He or she cannot be your spouse or dependent.

Compensation for Housing

You cannot claim the additional exemption amount if you received rent (or any other amount) from any source for providing the housing. You are permitted to receive payments or reimbursements that do not relate to normal housing costs, including the following.

- Food, clothing, or personal items consumed or used by the displaced individual.
- Reimbursement for the cost of any long distance telephone calls made by the displaced individual.
- Reimbursement for the cost of gasoline for the displaced individual's use of your vehicle.

However, you cannot claim the additional exemption amount if you received any reimbursement for the extra costs of heat, electricity, or water used by the displaced individual.

Specific Instructions

Line 1, Column (a)

Enter the first and last names of up to four displaced individuals who were provided housing in your main home for at least 60 consecutive days during 2008. If less than 60 consecutive days, you cannot claim an additional exemption amount for this individual.

Line 1, Column (b)

Enter the displaced individual's social security number (SSN) or individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). You must provide this information in column (b) to claim an exemption amount. You can use Form W-9, Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification, to request an SSN or ITIN from the displaced individual.

Line 1, Column (c)

Enter the street address where the displaced individual's main home was located on the applicable disaster date. That home must have been located in a Midwestern disaster area on that date. Include the number and street, city or town, state, and ZIP code.

Line 1, Column (d)

Enter the number of consecutive days the displaced individual was provided housing in your main home free of charge.

Line 6

If you are filing Form 1040NR, enter the amount shown below for your filing status.

- Filing status box 1 or 2 — $159,950
- Filing status box 3, 4, or 5 — $119,975
- Filing status box 6 — $239,950
