Calendar Year
1974

Identification No.
Experience Rate.—If a State has granted you an experience rate lower than 2.7 percent for all or part of the taxable year, use columns 1 through 9. If you have not been granted an experience rate use columns 1, 2, 3, and 9 only. If you have been granted an experience rate higher than 2.7 percent, use columns 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 9 only.

If a State has granted you an experience rate on part of your payroll, enter separately in columns 1, 2, 3, and 9, that part to which the experience rate does not apply.

If you were granted an experience rate for only part of the year or your experience rate was changed during the year, show in the appropriate columns the period to which each separate rate applied, your payroll, rate of contributions, and required contributions for each period.

Column 1.—Enter the name of the State or States (including Puerto Rico) to which you were required to pay contributions.

Column 2.—Enter your State reporting number as shown on your State contribution return. If you had a place of employment in more than one State, enter the reporting number assigned to you by each State.

Column 3.—Enter the taxable payroll on which you must pay contributions to the unemployment fund of the State shown in column 1. If you have been granted an experience rate of zero, enter the amount on which you would have had to make contributions if that rate had not been granted.

Column 4.—Enter the period(s) of the year to which the experience rate(s) applies.

Column 5.—Enter the experience rate(s) the State(s) granted you for the period(s) shown in column 4.

Column 6.—Section 3302(b) of the Code requires an employer with an experience rate to determine the amount of contributions he would have had to pay if throughout the taxable year he had been subject to the highest rate applied by the State or to a rate of 2.7 percent, whichever is lower. For this return, assume that the highest rate applied under the State law in the taxable year was not lower than 2.7 percent, and use that rate to compute the amount shown in column 6. If the highest rate of contributions is less than 2.7 percent in the State, then multiply column 3 by the highest rate applicable for the State and enter the result on the appropriate line in column 6.

Line 10.—Enter the sum of columns 8 and 9. Also include any special credit as explained below.

Line 19.—Enter in the first space on line 19 the amount (if any) of wages, as defined in the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, paid in 1974 which are subject to the unemployment compensation law of Connecticut or which are otherwise attributable to Connecticut. (If in doubt, ask you local Internal Revenue Service office.) Such amount, multiplied by .003, is a credit reduction required by Internal Revenue Code section 3302(c)(3). If there were no wages paid attributable to Connecticut, enter "none" or "0" on line 19.

Special Credit.—If you are claiming special credit as a successor employer, attach a statement showing (a) the name, address, and employer identification number of your predecessor, (b) how you acquired your predecessor's trade or business (or a separate unit of it), (c) the date you acquired it, (d) each item in columns 1 through 9 that applies to your predecessor, (e) the number of individuals your predecessor employed immediately before the acquisition, whom you also employed immediately after the acquisition, (f) the total remuneration subject to State unemployment compensation your predecessor paid to the employees in (e) above during the calendar year.

The amount of the special credit is determined by (1) adding the "Additional Credit" and "Contributions actually paid to the State" determined for your predecessor in step (d) above, and (2) multiplying this total by a fraction of which the numerator is the amount determined in step (f) above, and the denominator is the "Taxable Payroll (as defined in State Act)" paid to all individuals in the employ of your predecessor prior to your acquisition during the calendar year.

Computation of Taxable Wages

Line 11.—Total remuneration (including exempt remuneration) PAID during the calendar year for services of employees.—Enter on line 11 the total remuneration for services you paid employees during the calendar year, regardless of whether that remuneration is taxable. It should include salaries, wages, commissions, fees, bonuses, vacation allowances, salaries and wages paid to temporary or part-time employees, the value of goods, lodging, food and clothing, and all amounts deducted from employees' wages as employee tax or as deductions for other reasons.

The basis on which you pay the remuneration is immaterial in determining whether it constitutes wages. Thus, you may pay it on the basis of piecework or a percentage of profits, and you may pay it hourly, daily, weekly, monthly, or annually.

You may pay the remuneration in cash or in some other medium, such as goods, lodging, food or clothing. Compute remuneration paid in items other than cash on the basis of the fair value of the items at time of payment.

Exempt Remuneration.—The terms "wages" and "employment" as defined for Federal unemployment tax purposes do not include every payment of remuneration to an employee and every kind of service which an employee may perform. In general, any remuneration which is excluded from "wages" and any remuneration for services which are excepted from "employment," are not included in the total wages subject to the tax. These remuneration payments may be deducted from the total remuneration paid only if they are identified on line 12.

Line 12.—Enter on line 12 such items as (1) agricultural labor, (2) benefit payments for sickness or injury, under a workmen's compensation law, insurance plan and certain employer plans, (3) domestic service, (4) family employment, (5) certain fishing activities, and (6) any other exempt payments or services. For more definite information with respect to these exemptions, see Circular E, Employer's Tax Guide.

Line 13.—Enter on line 13 the approximate number of employees to whom you paid more than $4,200 during the year and the aggregate amount of the excess above $4,200 paid to all of those employees. For example, assume that you had 10 employees and that you paid each of them $5,000 during the year. $50,000 should be included on line 11 and $8,000 on line 13.

Calendar Year 1974

Identification No.
General Instructions

Additional instructions for withholding, depositing, paying, and reporting Federal income tax, social security taxes, and Federal unemployment tax, are contained in Circular E, Employer’s Tax Guide, available free from any Internal Revenue Service office.

Refer to Circular E to find which employers must file Form 940, the types of payments defined by law as wages, and the kind of services covered by the Federal Unemployment Tax Act.

Purpose of Form 940.—This form is for the annual reporting of tax under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act. Federal unemployment tax is paid by the employer. It is not deductible from wages paid by the employer. The tax rate is 3.2 percent on the first $4,200 of wages paid to each employee during 1974 and 1975.

Who Must File.—Every employer who during the current or preceding calendar year paid wages of $1,500 or more in any calendar quarter, or at any time had one or more employees in any 20 calendar weeks must file Form 940. Count all regular, temporary, and part-time employees. A partnership should not count its partners. If there is a change of ownership or other transfer of the business during the year, the employer paying during the current or preceding calendar year paid wages of $1,500 or more in a calendar quarter, or had one or more employees in any 20 calendar weeks, must file Form 940, but neither should report wages paid by the other.

If you receive a pre-addressed form and are not liable for Federal unemployment tax for the year, you need not file Form 940. You need only send the form with the letter "Not Liable" across the front of the form and return it to the Internal Revenue Service. If you are no longer in business at the end of the year, write "Final" in line 24.

If you sold or transferred the business during the year, attach a statement showing the name, address, and employer identification number (if known) of the new owner.

Once you have filed a Form 940, the Service will send you a pre-addressed form near the end of each calendar year. If you do not receive a form, request one from any Internal Revenue Service office in time when due.

Due Date of Return.—Form 940 for calendar year 1974 is due on or before January 31, 1975. However, if you made timely deposits in full payment of the tax due for the year, you may file the return on or before February 10, 1975.

Where to File.—If your principal business, office, or agency is located in

- New Jersey, New York City and counties of Nassau, Rockland, Suffolk, and Westchester
- New York (all other counties), Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Vermont

Use this address

- Internal Revenue Service Center 1040 Waverly Avenue Holtville, New York 11799
- Internal Revenue Service Center 310 Lowell Street Andover, Massachusetts 01812
- Internal Revenue Service Center 11601 Roosevelt Boulevard Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19155

Filed Form 940 mailed to you. If you must use one non-pre-addressed, typed or printed name, trade name, address, and employer identification number on it.

Penalties and Interest.—Avoid penalties and interest by filing a correct return and paying the correct tax on time.

The law provides a penalty for late filing unless you show reasonable cause for the delay. If you file late, attach an explanation.

There are also penalties for willful failure to pay tax, keep records, and make returns and for filing false or fraudulent returns.

Credit for Contributions Paid into State Funds.—You are entitled to a credit against your Federal unemployment tax for contributions you pay into a certified State unemployment compensation fund on or before the due date of Form 940.

The term "contributions" means payments required by a State law to be made into an unemployment fund by any person on account of having individuals in his employ, to the extent that such payments are made by him without being deducted or deductible from the remuneration of individuals in his employ.

You may credit contributions against the tax whether or not you paid them with respect to "employment". You may not take credit for voluntary contributions or for penalties or interest you pay to a State.

Credit for contributions you make after the due date (or extended due date) for filing Form 940 may not exceed 90 percent of the amount that would have been allowable if you had paid the contributions on or before the due date.

Employers who have been granted an experience rate lower than 2.7 percent by a State for the whole or part of the year are entitled to an "additional credit." This is equal to the difference between actual contributions and the amount they would have been required to contribute at (1) the highest rate applied by the State, or (2) 2.7 percent, whichever is lower.

Section 3302(e) of the Code provides a special credit if an employer during any calendar year acquires substantially all of the property used in the trade or business (or in a similar business) and immediately after the acquisition employs in his trade or business one or more individuals who immediately prior to the acquisition were employed in the trade or business of the predecessor.

This special credit is not allowable to any predecessor employer or predecessor predecessor also known as an "employer," nor is it allowable to a corporation acquiring the trade or business of another corporation in a statutory merger or consolidation. The amount of the special credit is based on the amount of remuneration, subject to the unemployment compensation law of a State, paid by the predecessor to those employees who were employed by the predecessor immediately before the transfer of the trade or business (or separate unit thereof) and who also were employed by the successor immediately after the transfer.

The total credit allowable under Section 3302 may not exceed 2.7 percent of taxable wages.
