Instructions

(Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.)

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice.—We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to give us the information. We need it to ensure that you are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax.

The time needed to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average times are:

- Recordkeeping . . . . . 4 hr., 4 min.
- Learning about the law or the form . . . . . 24 min.
- Preparing and sending the form to the IRS . . . . . 29 min.

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making this form more simple, we would be happy to hear from you. You can write to both the Internal Revenue Service and the Office of Management and Budget at the addresses listed in the instructions of the tax return with which this form is filed.

Purpose of Form.—Form 973 is filed by a corporation claiming a consent dividend deduction under section 565.

Who Must File.—The consent dividend provisions apply to (1) corporations that reasonably believe that they are subject to the accumulated earnings tax, (2) personal holding companies, (3) foreign personal holding companies, (4) regulated investment companies, and (5) real estate investment trusts.

When and Where To File.—Attach Form 973 to the corporation’s income tax return for the tax year the consent dividend deduction is claimed. Also attach a completed Form 972, Consent of Shareholder To Include Specific Amount in Gross Income, for each shareholder who agreed to treat the consent dividend as a taxable dividend.

Nonresident aliens and foreign shareholders.—If the corporation receives a Form 972 from a nonresident alien or other foreign shareholder, the corporation must pay any withholding tax it would have withheld if the dividend had been actually paid (see Regulations section 1.565-5(a) and sections 1441 and 1442). File Form 1042, Annual Withholding Tax Return for U.S. Source Income of Foreign Persons, and Form 1042S, Foreign Person’s U.S. Source Income Subject to Withholding, to report the tax withheld. See the instructions for these forms for more detailed information on filing and transmitting the payment.

Pay the withholding tax in one of the following forms:

1. Cash,
2. U.S. Postal money order,
3. A certified check drawn on a domestic bank if state or Federal law does not permit the certification to be rescinded before presentation,
4. A cashier’s check drawn on a domestic bank, or
5. A draft payable in U.S. dollars on a domestic bank or on a foreign bank that maintains a United States agency or branch.

Signature.—Form 973 must be signed by the president, vice president, treasurer, assistant treasurer, chief accounting officer, or other corporate officer (such as tax officer) authorized to sign.
