

Instructions for Form

Check your social security number (SSN)!

An incorrect or missing SSN will delay your refund. See page 8 for details on how to get an SSN.

You may be able to take this credit if you earned less than $9,000 and you or your spouse were at least age 25. See the line 7 instructions on page 15.

Would you like to get your refund within 21 days?

If you would, have your return filed electronically as millions of others do. See Electronic filing on page 5.

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY
INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20224

COMMISSIONER

Dear Taxpayer:

The Internal Revenue Service has embarked on several major initiatives that will improve our service to you, the American taxpayer.

The National Performance Review (NPR), chartered by the President and led by the Vice President, conducted an extensive review of the Federal government. Its purpose is to ensure a government that works for people. The NPR recognized the Internal Revenue Service as a leader among government agencies in customer service, but challenged the IRS to make even more progress toward customer service, with emphasis on quality, fairness, and efficiency. Improving customer service is central to the job of reinventing government to make it work better and cost less.

IRS accepted the NPR's challenge. Our plans for customer service are a major step toward making better IRS customer service a reality.

I want you to know that the "S" in IRS represents a commitment to serve you. We intend to meet your needs and expectations as taxpayers and as customers. If the service you receive from the IRS does not measure up to our Customer Service Standards, please let us know.

We are also increasing our efforts to ensure accuracy of return information, particularly Social Security Numbers. Not providing correct information may delay your tax refund until accurate information is provided.

With improved service and increased accuracy, I believe that, together, we can make this the most effective filing season ever.

Margaret Milner Richardson

Customer Service Standards for 1995

For 1995, we have set the following Customer Service Standards.

- To make it easier for you to meet your tax obligations, we will expand your opportunity for simplified return filing and payment of your taxes through our electronic filing, joint federal/state filing, touchtone phone, and electronic payment programs.
- You will have more convenient access to tax law and account information. Our pre-recorded tax information will continue to be available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, and access to refund status information will be extended. We will also extend the time that you will be able to contact our tax assistants to 10 hours each business day. (See pages 25 and 26.)
- Our goal is to answer your questions and process your tax returns accurately. To reach that goal, we will continue to make improvements yearly.

- If you file a complete and accurate tax return and you are due a refund, your refund will be issued within 40 days if you file a paper return or within 21 days if you file electronically.
- Our goal is to resolve your account inquiries with one contact. To reach that goal, we will make improvements yearly.
- If you provide sufficient and accurate information to our tax assistants but are given and reasonably rely on an incorrect answer, we will cancel related penalties.
- If you have a problem that has not been resolved through normal processes, you may contact our Problem Resolution Office. A caseworker will contact you within one week and will work with you to resolve the problem. (See page 9.)
- We will make tax forms and instructions simpler and easier for you to use. We made some good changes this year, but we want your ideas for future improvements. Please call us toll free or write to us. (See page 4.)

What should I know about the Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice?

The law says that when we ask you for information we must tell you our legal right to ask for the information, why we are asking for it, and how it will be used. We must also tell you what could happen if we do not receive the information and whether your response is voluntary, needed for a benefit, or mandatory under the law.

This notice applies to all papers you file with us, including this tax return. It also applies to any questions we need to ask you so we can complete, correct, or process your return; figure your tax; and collect the tax, interest, or penalties. Internal Revenue Code sections 6001, 6011, and 6012(a) say that you must file a return or statement with us for any tax for which you are liable. Your response is mandatory under these sections. Code section 6109 says that you must show your social security number on what you file, so we know who you are and can process your return and other papers. You must fill in all parts of the tax form that apply to you. However, you do not have to check the boxes for the Presidential Election Campaign Fund.

We may give the information to the Department of Justice and to other Federal agencies, as provided by law. We may also give it to cities, states, the District of Columbia, U.S. commonwealths or possessions, and certain foreign governments to carry out their tax laws.

If you do not file a return, do not give the information asked for, or give false information, you may be charged penalties and you may be subject to criminal prosecution. We may also have to disallow the exemptions, credits, or deduction shown on your tax return. This could make the tax higher or delay any refund. Interest may also be charged.

Please keep this notice with your records. It may help you if we ask you for other information. If you have questions about the rules for filing and giving information, please call or visit any Internal Revenue Service office.

The time it takes to prepare your return. The time needed to complete and file Form 1040EZ will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average time is:

Recordkeeping	5 min.	Preparing the form	1 hr., 20 min.
Learning about the law or the form	49 min.	Copying, assembling, and sending the form to the IRS	40 min.

We welcome comments on forms. If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. You can write to both the Internal Revenue Service, Attention: Tax Forms Committee, PC:FP, Washington, DC 20224; and the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project (1545-0675), Washington, DC 20503. Or, you can call the IRS with your suggestions at 1-800-829-9043 and leave a recorded message 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

DO NOT send your return to either of these offices. Instead, see Where do I file? on page 33.

What are my rights as a taxpayer?

You have the right to be treated fairly, professionally, promptly, and courteously by Internal Revenue Service employees. Our goal at the IRS is to protect your rights so that you will have the highest confidence in the integrity, efficiency, and fairness of our tax system. To ensure that you always receive such treatment, you should know about the many rights you have at each step of the tax process. For details, get Pub. 1 by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676) or use the order blank on page 23.

Electronic filing

Last year, 14 million people filed their tax returns electronically. Electronic filing offers the following benefits:

- Accuracy. Computer programs quickly catch mistakes before they become problems.
- Acknowledgement. The IRS notifies your transmitter that your return has been received and accepted.
- Refunds. If you file a complete and accurate return, your refund will be issued within 21 days.* You can also get the convenience and safety of direct deposit.
- File now, pay later. If you owe tax, file early and pay by April 17, 1995.
- Simultaneous Federal/state filing. You may be able to file your state return electronically with your Federal return. Check with your preparer or transmitter.

Electronic filing is available whether you prepare your own return or use a preparer. In addition to many tax preparers, other firms are approved by the IRS to offer electronic filing services. An approved transmitter must sign your Form 8453, U.S. Individual Income Tax Declaration for Electronic Filing. For more details on electronic filing, call Tele-Tax (see page 26) and listen to topic 252.

Another way to file your return with the IRS is to file an "answer sheet" return. This return, called Form 1040PC, can be created only by using a personal computer. It is shorter than the regular tax return and can be processed faster and more accurately. A paid tax preparer may give you Form 1040PC to sign and file instead of the tax return you are used to seeing. If you prepare your own return on a computer, you can produce Form 1040PC using one of the many tax preparation software programs sold in computer stores. The form is not available from the IRS. For more details, call Tele-Tax (see page 26) and listen to topic 251.

* Some refunds may be temporarily delayed as a result of compliance reviews to ensure that the returns are accurate.

Recycling

The IRS tries to use recycled paper for all of its forms and instructions. The tax forms and instructions you received are printed on recyclable paper. If your community has a recycling program, please recycle. But remember to keep a copy of your return and any worksheets you used.

Answers to frequently asked questions

How can I check on the status of my refund? Call Tele-Tax to get automated refund information. See page 26 for the number.

Can I get the earned income credit? If you earned less than $9,000 (less than $25,296 if a child lived with you), you may be able to take this credit. But other rules apply. For details, see the instructions for line 7 on page 15.

How can I get forms and publications? Call 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676) during the times shown on page 22; or visit your local IRS office, participating library, bank, or post office; or use the order blank on page 23.

I received unemployment compensation in 1994 in addition to my wages. But Form 1040EZ doesn't have a line for unemployment compensation. Should I report it on line 1? No. You cannot file Form 1040EZ. Instead, you must file Form 1040A or Form 1040.

I asked my employer several times for my W-2 form, but I still don't have it. What should I do? If you don't get it by February 15, call the number listed on page 25 for your area. We will ask you for certain information. For details, see page 14.

I received an IRS notice. I've contacted the IRS at least three times about it, but the problem still hasn't been fixed. What can I do? Call your local IRS office and ask for Problem Resolution assistance. The number is listed in your phone book.

Do I have to file a return? It usually depends on your filing status, the amount of your gross income, and whether you can be claimed as a dependent on another person's 1994 return. For details, see page 10.

In addition to my regular job, I had a part-time business fixing cars. Do I have to report the money I made in 1994 fixing cars? Yes. This is self-employment income. You cannot file Form 1040EZ. Instead, you must file Form 1040 and Schedule C or C-EZ. You may also have to file Schedule SE to pay self-employment tax.

Section 1—Before you fill in Form 1040EZ

Should I use Form 1040EZ?

You can use Form 1040EZ if all eight of the following apply:

1. Your filing status is single or married filing jointly (see below).
2. You do not claim any dependents.
3. You (and your spouse if married filing a joint return) were under age 65 on January 1, 1995, and not blind at the end of 1994.
4. Your taxable income (line 5 of Form 1040EZ) is less than $50,000.
5. You had only wages, salaries, tips, and taxable scholarship or fellowship grants, and your taxable interest income was $400 or less.
6. You did not receive any advance earned income credit payments.
7. If you were a nonresident alien at any time in 1994, your filing status must be married filing jointly. Specific rules apply to determine if you were a nonresident or resident alien. Get Pub. 519 for details, including the rules for students and scholars.
8. If you are married filing jointly and either you or your spouse worked for more than one employer, the total wages of that person were not over $60,600.

If you don't meet all eight of the requirements above, you must use Form 1040A or Form 1040. To find out which form to use, call Tele-Tax (see page 26) and listen to topic 352. But if you were a nonresident alien at any time in 1994 and do not file a joint return, you may have to use Form 1040NR. See Pub. 519.

Even if you can use Form 1040EZ, it may benefit you to use Form 1040A or Form 1040 instead. For example, you can claim the head of household filing status (which usually results in a lower tax than single) only on Form 1040A or Form 1040. Call Tele-Tax (see page 26) and listen to topic 353. Also, you can itemize deductions only on Form 1040. It would benefit you to itemize deductions if they total more than your standard deduction, which is $3,800 for most single people and $6,350 for most married people filing a joint return. Call Tele-Tax (see page 26) and listen to topic 501. But if someone can claim you (or your spouse if married) as a dependent, your standard deduction is the amount entered on line E of the worksheet on the back of Form 1040EZ.

Single. You may use this filing status if any of the following was true on December 31, 1994:

- You were never married, or
- You were legally separated, according to your state law, under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance, or
- You were widowed before January 1, 1994, and did not remarry in 1994.

Married filing joint return. You may use this filing status if any of the following is true:

- You were married as of December 31, 1994, even if you did not live with your spouse at the end of 1994, or
- Your spouse died in 1994 and you did not remarry in 1994, or
- Your spouse died in 1995 before filing a 1994 return.

A husband and wife may file a joint return even if only one had income or if they did not live together all year. However, both persons must sign the return and both are responsible. This means that if one spouse does not pay the tax due, the other may have to. If you file a joint return for 1994, you may not, after the due date for filing that return, amend it to file as married filing a separate return.

Nonresident aliens and dual-status aliens. You may be able to file a joint return. Get Pub. 519 for details.

What's new for 1994?

Social security number (SSN). If you don't have the mailing label, make sure you enter your SSN. If filing a joint return, also be sure to enter you spouse's SSN. If you don't enter an SSN or if the SSN you enter is incorrect, it will take us longer to issue any refund shown on your return. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5 from your local Social Security Administration (SSA) office or call the SSA at 1-800-772-1213. Fill it in and return it to the SSA. It usually takes about 2 weeks to get a number.

Earned income credit. If you do not have any qualifying children, you earned less than $9,000, and you or your spouse were at least age 25, you may be able to take this credit. See the instructions for line 7 on page 15. If you can take the credit, you do not have to file Schedule EIC.

If you have a qualifying child (see page 17) and you earned less than $25,296, you may be able to take a larger credit. But you must use Schedule EIC and Form 1040A or Form 1040 to do so.

Tax law changes. For more details, get Pub. 553.

How do I make a gift to reduce the public debt?

If you wish to do so, enclose a separate check with your income tax return. Make it payable to "Bureau of the Public Debt." If you file Form 1040 for 1995 and itemize your deductions, you may be able to deduct this gift.

What free tax help is available?

Tax forms and publications. You can answer most of your tax questions by reading the tax form instructions or one of our many free tax publications. See page 22.

Refund information. Our Tele-Tax service can tell you the status of your refund. For details, see page 26.

Recorded tax information by telephone. Tele-Tax also has recorded tax information covering many topics. See page 26 for the number to call.

Telephone help. IRS representatives are available to help you with your tax questions. If, after reading the tax form instructions and publications, you are not sure how to fill in your return, or have a question about a notice you received from us, please call us. Use the number for your area on page 25.

Send the IRS written questions. You may send your written tax questions to your IRS District Director. You should get an answer in about 30 days. If you don't have the address, you can get it by calling the number for your area on page 25.

Walk-in help. Assistors are available in most IRS offices throughout the country to help you prepare your return. An assistor will explain Form 1040EZ, Form 1040A, or Form 1040 and Schedules A and B to you and a number of other taxpayers in a group setting. To find the location of the IRS office nearest you, look in the phone book under "United States Government, Internal Revenue Service."

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) and Tax Counseling for the Elderly (TCE). These programs help older, disabled, low-income, and non-English-speaking people fill in their returns. For details, call the number for your area on page 25. If you received a Federal income tax package in the mail, take it with you when you go for help.

Videotaped instructions for completing your return are available in English and Spanish at many libraries.

Telephone help for people with impaired hearing is available. See page 25 for the number to call. Braille materials are available at regional libraries that have special services for people with disabilities.

Unresolved tax problems. The Problem Resolution Program is for people who have been unable to resolve their problems with the IRS. If you have a tax problem you cannot clear up through normal channels, write to your local IRS District Director or call your local IRS office and ask for Problem Resolution assistance. People with impaired hearing who have access to TDD equipment may call 1-800-829-4059 to ask for help from Problem Resolution. This office cannot change the tax law or technical decisions. But it can help you clear up problems that resulted from previous contacts. For more details, call Tele-Tax (see page 26) and listen to topic 104 or get Pub. 1546.

Do both the name and social security number on your tax forms agree with your social security card?

If not, your refund may be delayed or you may not receive credit for your social security earnings.

If your Form W-2, Form 1099, or other tax document shows an incorrect social security number or name, notify your employer or the form-issuing agent as soon as possible to make sure your earnings are credited to your social security record. If the name or number on your social security card is incorrect, call the Social Security Administration at 1-800-772-1213.

What if a taxpayer died?

If a taxpayer died before filing a return for 1994, the taxpayer's spouse or personal representative may have to file and sign a return for that taxpayer. A personal representative can be an executor, administrator, or anyone who is in charge of the deceased taxpayer's property. If the deceased taxpayer did not have to file a return but had tax withheld, a return must be filed to get a refund. The person who files the return should print "DECEASED," the deceased taxpayer's name, and the date of death across the top of the return. If your spouse died in 1994 and you did not remarry in 1994, or if your spouse died in 1995 before filing a return for 1994, you can file a joint return. A joint return should show your spouse's 1994 income before death and your income for all of 1994. Write "Filing as surviving spouse" in the area where you sign the return. If someone else is the personal representative, he or she must also sign. The surviving spouse or personal representative should promptly notify all payers of income, including financial institutions, of the taxpayer's death. This will ensure the proper reporting of income earned by the taxpayer's estate or heirs.

Claiming a refund for a deceased taxpayer. If you are filing a joint return as a surviving spouse, file only the tax return to claim the refund. If you are a court-appointed representative, file the return and attach a copy of the certificate that shows your appointment. All other filers requesting the deceased taxpayer's refund must file the return and attach Form 1310.

For more details, call Tele-Tax (see page 26) and listen to topic 356 or get Pub. 559.

What are the filing dates and penalties?

When is my tax return due? Your tax return must be postmarked by April 17, 1995. If you need more time to complete your return, you can get an automatic 4-month extension by filing Form 4868 with the IRS by April 17, 1995. If you later find that you still need more time, Form 2688 may get you an additional extension. However, even if you get an extension, the tax you owe is still due April 17, 1995. If you make a payment with Form 4868 or Form 2688, see the instructions for line 8 on page 20.

What if I file or pay late? If you file or pay late, the IRS can charge you interest and penalties on the amount you owe.

If you file late, the penalty is usually 5% of the amount due for each month or part of a month your return is late, unless you have a reasonable explanation. If you do, attach it to your return. The penalty cannot usually be more than 25% of the tax due. We will charge you interest on the penalty from the due date of the return (including extensions). If your return is more than 60 days late, the minimum penalty will be $100 or the amount of any tax you owe, whichever is smaller.

If you pay your taxes late, the penalty is usually $\frac{1}{2}$ of 1% of the unpaid amount for each month or part of a month the tax is not paid. The penalty cannot be more than 25% of the unpaid amount. It applies to any unpaid tax on the return. It also applies to any additional tax shown on a bill not paid within 10 days of the date of the bill.

Are there other penalties? Yes. Other penalties can be imposed for negligence, substantial understatement of tax, and fraud. We will charge you interest on these penalties from the due date of the return (including extensions). Criminal penalties may be imposed for willful failure to file, tax evasion, or making a false statement. Get Pub. 17 for details.

In addition to any other penalties, the law imposes a penalty of $500 for filing a frivolous return. A frivolous return is one that does not contain information needed to figure the correct tax or shows a substantially incorrect tax, because you take a frivolous position or desire to delay or interfere with the tax laws. This includes altering or striking out the preprinted language above the space where you sign.

Operation Desert Storm

If you were a participant in Operation Desert Storm, get Pub. 945.

How do I get copies of my tax returns?

If you need a copy of your tax return, use Form 4506. If you have questions about your account, call or write your local IRS office. If you want a printed copy of your account, it will be mailed to you free of charge.

Section 2—Filing requirements

Do I have to file?

The following rules apply to all U.S. citizens and resident aliens. They also apply to nonresident aliens and dual-status aliens who were married to U.S. citizens or residents at the end of 1994 and who have elected to be treated as resident aliens. Specific rules apply to determine if you are a resident or nonresident alien. Get Pub. 519 for details.

Even if you do not have to file a return, you should file one to get a refund of any Federal income tax withheld. You should also file to get a refund of the earned income credit if you can take the credit.

Note to parents—Exception for children under age 14. If you are planning to file a tax return for your child who was under age 14 on January 1, 1995, and certain other conditions apply, you can elect to include your child's income on your return. But you must use Form 1040 and Form 8814 to do so. If you make this election, your child will not have to file a return. Call Tele-Tax (see page 26) and listen to topic 553 or get Pub. 929 for details.

If you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) were age 65 or older on January 1, 1995, call Tele-Tax (see page 26) and listen to topic 351 to see if you must file a return. If you do, you must use Form 1040A or Form 1040. If you (and your spouse if filing a joint return) were under age 65 on January 1, 1995, and any of the following three conditions apply to you, you must file a return.

1. Your filing status is single and your gross income (see below) was at least $6,250.
2. Your filing status is married filing jointly and your gross income (see below) was at least $11,250. But if you did not live with your spouse at the end of 1994 (or on the date your spouse died), you must file a return if your gross income was at least $2,450.
3. Your parents (or someone else) can claim you as a dependent on their 1994 return (even if they chose not to claim you) and—

Your taxable interest income was:	AND	The total of that income plus your earned income was:
$1 or more		more than $600
$0		more than $3,800 if single more than $3,175 if married

In the above chart, earned income includes wages, tips, and taxable scholarship and fellowship grants.

Caution: If your gross income was $2,450 or more, you usually cannot be claimed as a dependent unless you were under age 19 or under age 24 and a student. For details, call Tele-Tax (see page 26) and listen to topic 354.

Gross income means all income you received in the form of money, goods, property, and services that is not exempt from tax.

Other situations when you must file. You must also file a return using Form 1040A or Form 1040 if you received any advance earned income credit payments from your employer. These payments should be shown in box 9 of your W-2 form. You must file a return using Form 1040 if any of the following applies for 1994:

- You owe any special taxes, such as social security and Medicare tax on tips you did not report to your employer, or
- You owe uncollected social security and Medicare or RRTA tax on tips you reported to your employer or on your group-term life insurance, or
- You had net earnings from self-employment of at least $400, or
- You earned wages of $108.28 or more from a church or qualified church-controlled organization that is exempt from employer social security and Medicare taxes, or
- You owe tax on a qualified retirement plan, including an individual retirement arrangement (IRA). But if you are filing a return only because you owe this tax, you can file Form 5329 by itself.

Section 3—Line instructions for Form 1040EZ

Name, address, and social security number

Why use the label? The mailing label on the front of the instruction booklet is designed to speed processing at Internal Revenue Service Centers and prevent errors that delay refund checks. But don't attach it until you have finished your return. Cross out any errors and print the correct information. Add any missing items, such as your apartment number.

Address change. If the address on your mailing label is not your current address, cross out your old address and print your new address. If you move after you file your 1994 return, see page 33.

Name change. If you changed your name because of marriage, divorce, etc., be sure to report this to your local Social Security Administration office before you file your return. This prevents delays in processing your return and issuing refunds. It also safeguards your future social security benefits. If you received a mailing label, cross out your former name and print your new name.

If you did not receive a label, print the information in the spaces provided.

Social security number (SSN). Enter your SSN in the area marked "Your social security number." If you are married, enter your husband's or wife's SSN in the area marked "Spouse's social security number." An incorrect or missing SSN will delay your refund. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5 from your local Social Security Administration (SSA) office or call the SSA at 1-800-772-1213. Fill it in and return it to the SSA. It usually takes about 2 weeks to get a number.

Nonresident alien spouse. If your spouse is a nonresident alien, he or she must get a social security number. But if your spouse cannot get a number because he or she had no income from U.S. sources, print "NRA" in the space for your spouse's number.

P.O. box. If your post office does not deliver mail to your home and you have a P.O. box, show your box number instead of your home address.

Foreign address. If your address is outside the United States or its possessions or territories, print the information on the line for "City, town or post office, state, and ZIP code" in the following order: city, province or state, postal code, and the name of the country. Do not abbreviate the country name.

Presidential Election
Campaign Fund

Congress set up this fund to help pay for Presidential election campaign costs. The fund reduces candidates' dependence on large contributions from individuals and groups and places candidates on an equal financial footing in the general election. If you want $3 to go to this fund, check the "Yes" box. If you are filing a joint return, your spouse may also have $3 go to the fund. If you check "Yes," your tax or refund will not change.

Income
Lines 1-5

Rounding off to whole dollars. You may find it easier to do your return if you round off cents to the nearest whole dollar. You can drop amounts that are less than 50 cents. For example, $129.39 becomes $129. Increase amounts that are 50 cents or more to the next whole dollar. For example, $235.50 becomes $236. If you do round off, do so for all amounts. But if you have to add two or more amounts to figure the amount to enter on a line, include cents when adding and only round off the total.

Example. You received two W-2 forms, one showing wages of $5,009.55 and one showing wages of $8,760.73. On Form 1040EZ, line 1, you would enter 13,770.00 ($$5,009.55 + $8,760.73 = $13,770.28$).

Refunds of state or local income taxes. If you received a refund, credit, or offset in 1994 of state or local income taxes, the state or other taxing authority may send you a Form 1099-G. You do not have to include any of it as income for 1994 if, in the year you paid the tax, you filed Form 1040EZ or Form 1040A. But if the refund, credit, or offset was for a tax you deducted as an itemized deduction on Form 1040, you may have to report part or all of it as income on Form 1040 for 1994. Call Tele-Tax (see page 26) and listen to topic 405 for details.

Social security benefits. Social security and equivalent railroad retirement benefits you received may be taxable in some instances. Use the worksheet below to see if any of your benefits are taxable. If they are, you MUST use Form 1040A or Form 1040.

Social security benefits include any monthly benefit under title II of the Social Security Act or the part of a tier 1 railroad retirement benefit treated as a social security benefit. Social security benefits include monthly survivor and disability benefits paid to you. They do not include any supplemental security income (SSI) payments. By January 31, 1995, you should receive Form SSA-1099 or Form RRB-1099. These forms will show the total benefits paid to you in 1994 and the amount of any benefits you repaid in 1994. For more details, get Pub. 915.

Worksheet to see if any of your social security and/or equivalent railroad retirement benefits are taxable (keep for your records)

If you are filing a joint return and your spouse also received a Form SSA-1099 or Form RRB-1099, add your spouse's amounts to yours on lines 1, 3, and 4 below.

- | | |
|---|----------|
| 1. Enter the amount from box 5 of all your Forms SSA-1099 and Forms RRB-1099. If the amount on line 1 is zero or less, stop here; none of your social security benefits are taxable. | 1. _____ |
| 2. Enter one-half of the amount on line 1. | 2. _____ |
| 3. Enter your total wages, salaries, tips, etc., from Form(s) W-2. | 3. _____ |
| 4. Enter your total interest income, including any tax-exempt interest. | 4. _____ |
| 5. Add lines 2 through 4. | 5. _____ |
| 6. Enter 25,000 if single; 32,000 if filing a joint return. | 6. _____ |
| 7. Subtract line 6 from line 5. If zero or less, enter -0-. | 7. _____ |

If the amount on line 7 of the worksheet is zero, none of your social security benefits are taxable this year. You can use Form 1040EZ. Do not list your benefits as income. If the amount on line 7 is more than zero, some of your benefits are taxable this year. You MUST use Form 1040A or Form 1040.

- Line 1 Enter the total of your income from wages, salaries, and tips. This should be shown in box 1 of your W-2 form from your employer. For a joint return, be sure to include your spouse's income on line 1.

You must use Form 1040A or Form 1040 if you received benefits for 1994 under your employer's dependent care plan.

If you used an employer-provided vehicle for both personal and business purposes and 100% of its annual lease value was included as wages on your W-2 form, you may be able to deduct the business use of the vehicle. But you must use Form 1040 and Form 2106 to do so. For details, get Pub. 917.

If you don't get a W-2 form by January 31, 1995, ask your employer for one. If you don't get it by February 15, call the number for your area listed on page 25. You will be asked for your employer's name, address, telephone number, and, if known, identification number. You will also be asked for your address, social security number, daytime telephone number, dates of employment, and your best estimate of your total wages and Federal income tax withheld. Even if you don't get a W-2 form, you must still report your earnings. If you lose your W-2 form or it is incorrect, ask your employer for a new one.

Tip income. Be sure to report all tip income you actually received, even if it is not included in box 1 of your W-2 form(s). But you must use Form 1040 and Form 4137 instead of Form 1040EZ if (1) you received tips of $20 or more in any month and did not report the full amount to your employer OR (2) your W-2 form(s) shows allocated tips that you must report as income. You must report as income the amount of allocated tips shown on your W-2 form(s) unless you can prove with adequate records that you received a smaller amount. Allocated tips should be shown in box 8 of your W-2 form(s). They are not included in box 1 of your W-2 form(s). Use Form 4137 to figure the social security and Medicare tax on unreported tips. If you reported the full amount to your employer but the social security and Medicare tax was not withheld, you must still pay the taxes. For more details on tips, get Pub. 531.

Scholarship and fellowship grants. If you received a scholarship or fellowship, part or all of it may be taxable even if you didn't receive a W-2 form. If you were a degree candidate, the amounts you used for expenses other than tuition and course-related expenses are taxable. For example, amounts used for room, board, and travel are taxable. If you were not a degree candidate, the full amount of the scholarship or fellowship grant is taxable. Add the taxable amount not reported on a W-2 form to any other amounts on line 1. Then, print "SCH" in the space to the right of the words "W-2 form(s)" on line 1. After "SCH," show the taxable amount not reported on a W-2 form.

Line 2 Interest. Report all of your taxable interest income on line 2. Include taxable interest from banks, savings and loan associations, money market certificates, credit unions, savings bonds, etc. Also, include any interest you received or that was credited to your account so you could withdraw it, even if it wasn't entered in your passbook. If interest was credited in 1994 on deposits that you could not withdraw because of the bankruptcy or insolvency of the financial institution, you may be able to exclude part or all of that interest from your 1994 income. But you must use Form 1040A or Form 1040 to do so. Get Pub. 550 for details.

Each payer should send you a Form 1099-INT or Form 1099-OID showing interest you must report. A copy of the form is also sent to the IRS. Even if you did not receive a Form 1099-INT or Form 1099-OID, you must report all taxable interest.

Be sure each payer of interest income has your correct social security number. Otherwise, the payer may withhold 31% of the interest income (backup withholding). You may also be subject to penalties.

If you cashed series EE U.S. savings bonds in 1994 that were issued after 1989 and you paid certain higher education expenses during the year, you may be able to exclude from income part or all of the interest on those bonds. But you must use Form 8815 and Form 1040A or Form 1040 to do so.

You must use Form 1040A or Form 1040 if either of the following applies:

- You received interest as a nominee (that is, in your name but the interest income actually belongs to someone else), or
- You received a 1994 Form 1099-INT for U.S. savings bond interest that includes amounts you reported before 1994.

For more details, call Tele-Tax (see page 26) and listen to topic 403.

Tax-exempt interest. If you had tax-exempt interest, such as from municipal bonds, print "TEI" in the space to right of the words "Form 1040EZ" on line 2. After "TEI," show the amount of your tax-exempt interest. Do not add tax-exempt interest in the total on line 2.

Line 5 Subtract line 4 from line 3. Your tax is figured on this amount.

Tax figured by the IRS. If you want the IRS to figure your tax, complete lines 6 and 7 if they apply to you. But if you want us to figure your earned income credit, read the instructions below. If you are filing a joint return, use the space under the "Note" to the left of line 5 to show separately your taxable income and your spouse's taxable income. Skip lines 8 through 11. Sign and date your return (both spouses must sign a joint return) and enter your occupation(s). Attach the first copy or Copy B of all your W-2 forms and mail your return by April 17, 1995.

If you paid too much tax, we will send you a refund. If you didn't pay enough tax, we will send you a bill. We won't charge you interest or a late payment penalty if you pay within 30 days of the notice date or by April 17, 1995, whichever is later. If you want to figure your own tax, complete the rest of your return.

We will also figure the earned income credit (EIC). If you can take this credit, enter the type and amount of any nontaxable earned income (see page 18) in the spaces marked "Type" and "$" to the left of line 7. Then, print "EIC" in the space to the right of the words "earned income below" on line 7. If you don't have to file a return but are filing only to take the earned income credit, follow all of the above instructions.

Payments and tax

Lines 6-9

Line 6 Enter the total amount of Federal income tax withheld. This should be shown in box 2 of your 1994 Form(s) W-2.

Backup withholding. If you received a 1994 Form 1099-INT or Form 1099-OID showing Federal income tax withheld (backup withholding), include the tax withheld in the total on line 6. This should be shown in box 4 of Form 1099-INT or Form 1099-OID. To the left of line 6, print "Form 1099."

Line 7 Earned income credit (EIC). The EIC is a special credit for certain workers. It reduces tax you owe. It may give you a refund even if you don't owe any tax. To see if you can take this credit, answer the questions on page 16. But first see the Caution below. The credit can be as much as $306 if you don't have a qualifying child (defined on page 17). If you have one qualifying child, the credit can be as much as $2,038. If you have more than one qualifying child, it can be as much as $2,528.

Caution: You cannot take the credit if you were the qualifying child of another person in 1994. If you were, print "No" next to line 7.

 - any age and permanently and totally disabled, and
3. Either lived with you in the United States for more than half of 1994 (for all of 1994 if a foster child) OR was born or died in 1994 and your home was the child's home for the entire time he or she was alive during 1994.

Special rules apply if the child was married or is also a qualifying child of another person (other than your spouse if filing a joint return). For details, call Tele-Tax (see page 26) and listen to topic 601 or get Pub. 596.

Taxable earned income. This is usually the amount reported on Form 1040EZ, line 1. But if line 1 includes an amount for a taxable scholarship or fellowship grant that wasn't reported on a W-2 form, subtract that amount from the total on line 1. The result is your taxable earned income for purposes of the earned income credit.

Nontaxable earned income. Certain earned income is not taxable, but it must be included to see if you can take the earned income credit. It is also used to figure the credit. It includes anything of value (money, goods, or services) that is not taxable which you received from your employer for your work. Some examples are listed below.

- Basic quarters and subsistence allowances and the value of in-kind quarters and subsistence received from the U.S. military. This amount may be shown on your last Leave and Earnings Statement for 1994. If it isn't or you need additional help, contact your legal assistance office or unit tax advisor.
- Housing allowances or rental value of a parsonage for clergy members.
- Meals and lodging provided for the convenience of your employer.
- Voluntary salary deferrals. If you chose to have your employer contribute part of your pay to certain retirement plans (such as a 401(k) plan or the Federal Thrift Savings Plan) instead of having it paid to you, the "Deferred compensation" box in box 15 of your W-2 form should be checked. The amount deferred should be shown in box 13 of your W-2 form.
- Voluntary salary reductions, such as under a cafeteria plan, unless they are included in box 1 of your W-2 form(s). For details, see Pub. 596.
- Combat zone excluded pay. If you served in Operation Desert Storm, contact your legal assistance office or unit tax advisor to find out the amount you received in 1994.

Note: Nontaxable earned income does not include welfare benefits.

Effect of credit on certain welfare benefits. Any refund you receive as the result of claiming the earned income credit will not be used to determine if you are eligible for the following benefit programs, or how much you can receive from them.

- Aid to Families With Dependent Children (AFDC).
 - Medicaid and supplemental security income (SSI).
 - Food stamps and low-income housing.

Caution: This is not a tax table.

To find your credit: First, read down the "At least—But less than" columns and find the line that includes the amount you entered on line 5 or line 7 of the Earned income credit worksheet on page 17. Next, read across and find the credit. Then, enter the credit on line 6 or line 8 of the worksheet, whichever applies.

Line 8 Add lines 6 and 7. Enter the total on line 8.

Amount paid with extensions of time to file. If you filed Form 4868 to get an automatic extension of time to file, include in the total on line 8 the amount you paid with that form. To the left of line 8, print "Form 4868" and show the amount paid. Also, include any amount paid with Form 2688 if you filed for an additional extension.

Refund or amount you

Lines 10 and 11

Line 10 Refund. If line 10 is less than $1, we will send the refund only if you request it when you file your return. If your refund is large, you may want to decrease the amount of income tax withheld from your pay. See Income tax withholding and estimated tax payments for 1995 on page 34.

Injured spouse claim. If you file a joint return and your spouse has not paid child or spousal support payments or certain Federal debts such as student loans, all or part of the refund on line 10 may be used to pay the past due amount. But your part of the amount on line 10 may be refunded to you if all three of the following apply:

1. You are not required to pay the past due amount.
2. You received and reported income (such as wages, taxable interest, etc.) on the joint return.
3. You made and reported payments (such as Federal income tax withheld from your wages) on the joint return.

If all three of the above apply to you and you want your part of the amount on line 10 refunded to you, complete Form 8379. Print "Injured spouse" at the top of Form 1040EZ and attach Form 8379. If you have already filed your return for 1994, file Form 8379 by itself to get your refund. You may also be able to file an injured spouse claim for prior years. See Form 8379 for details.

Line 11 Amount you owe. Enclose in the envelope with your return a check or money order payable to the Internal Revenue Service for the full amount when you file. Do not attach the payment to the return. Write your name, address, social security number, daytime phone number, and "1994 Form 1040EZ" on your payment. You don't have to pay if line 11 is under $1.

If you owe tax for 1994, you may need to increase the amount of income tax withheld from your pay. See Income tax withholding and estimated tax payments for 1995 on page 34.

Installment payments. If you cannot pay the full amount shown on line 11 with your return, you may ask to make monthly installment payments. However, you will be charged interest and a late payment penalty on the tax not paid by April 17, 1995, even if your request to pay in installments is granted. To limit the interest and penalty charges, pay as much of the tax as possible when you file. But before requesting an installment agreement, you should consider other less costly alternatives, such as a bank loan.

To ask for an installment agreement, use Form 9465, Installment Agreement Request. You can get Form 9465 by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676). You should receive a response to your request for installments within 30 days. But if you file your return after March 31, it may take us longer to reply.

Penalty for not paying enough tax during the year. You may have to pay a penalty if line 11 is at least $500 and it is more than 10% of the tax shown on line 9 of your return. You may choose to have the IRS figure the penalty for you. If you owe a penalty, the IRS will send you a bill. However, if you want to figure the penalty yourself on Form 2210, you must file Form 1040A or Form 1040 to do so. The penalty may be waived under certain conditions. Get Pub. 505 for details.

Exceptions to the penalty. You will not owe the penalty if:

1. You had no tax liability for 1993, you were a U.S. citizen or resident for all of 1993, AND your 1993 tax return was for a tax year of 12 full months, or
2. Line 6 on your 1994 return is at least as much as your 1993 tax liability, AND your 1993 tax return was for a tax year of 12 full months.

Sign your return

Form 1040EZ is not considered a valid return unless you sign it. If you are filing a joint return, your spouse must also sign. Be sure to date your return and enter your occupation(s). If you are filing a joint return as a surviving spouse, see What if a taxpayer died? on page 9.

Child's return. If your child cannot sign the return, sign your child's name in the space provided. Then, add "By (your signature), parent for minor child."

Paid preparers must sign your return. Generally, anyone you pay to prepare your return must sign it in the space below your signature and provide certain other information. The preparer must give you a copy of the return for your records. Someone who prepares your return but does not charge you should not sign your return.

Avoid common mistakes

Errors may delay your refund

1. Did you check your additions, subtractions, etc., especially when figuring your taxable income, Federal income tax withheld, and your refund or amount you owe?
2. Did you check the "Yes" box on line 4 if your parents (or someone else) can claim you as a dependent on their 1994 return, even if they choose not to claim you? If no one can claim you as a dependent, did you check the "No" box?
3. Did you enter an amount on line 4? If you checked the "Yes" box on line 4, did you fill in the worksheet on the back of Form 1040EZ to figure the amount to enter? If you checked the "No" box, did you enter 6,250.00 if single; 11,250.00 if married filing jointly?
4. Did you use the amount from line 5 to find your tax in the tax table? Did you enter the correct tax on line 9?
5. If the amount on line 3 is under $9,000 and you (or your spouse if filing a joint return) were at least age 25, did you read the instructions for line 7 to see if you can take the earned income credit?
6. If you didn't get a label, did you enter your name, address, and social security number in the spaces provided on Form 1040EZ? If you are married filing jointly, did you enter your spouse's name and social security number?
7. If you got a label, does it show the correct name(s), address, and social security number(s)? If not, did you enter the correct information?
8. Did you attach your W-2 form(s) to the left margin of your return? Did you sign and date Form 1040EZ and enter your occupation?

Where do I call to get answers to my Federal tax questions?

If you want to check on the status of your refund, call Tele-Tax. See page 26 for the number.

Call the IRS with your tax question. If you cannot answer your tax question by reading the tax form instructions or one of our free tax publications, please call us. You will not be charged for the call unless your phone company charges you for local calls. This service is available Monday through Friday from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. (hours in Alaska and Hawaii may vary).

Before you call—IRS representatives care about the quality of the service we provide to you, our customer. You can help us provide accurate, complete answers to your tax questions by having the following information available:

1. The tax form, schedule, or notice to which your question relates.
2. The facts about your particular situation. The answer to the same question often varies from one taxpayer to another because of differences in their age, income, whether they can be claimed as a dependent, etc.
3. The name of any IRS publication or other source of information that you used to look for the answer.

Before you hang up—If you do not fully understand the answer you receive, or you feel our representative may not fully understand your question, our representative needs to know this. The representative will be happy to take the additional time required to be sure he or she has answered your question fully and in the manner that is most helpful to you. By law, you are responsible for paying your fair share of Federal income tax. If we should make an error in answering your question, you are still responsible for the payment of the correct tax. Should this occur, however, you will not be charged any penalty. To make sure that IRS representatives give accurate and courteous answers, a second IRS representative sometimes listens in on telephone calls. No record is kept of any taxpayer's identity.

Example. Mr. Brown is single. His taxable income on line 5 of Form 1040EZ is $23,250. First, he finds the $23,250–23,300 income line. Next, he finds the “Single” column and reads down the column. The amount shown where the income line and filing status column meet is $3,560. This is the tax amount he must enter on line 9 of Form 1040EZ.

What do I need if I write to the IRS?

If you write to the IRS, include your social security number on your correspondence. If you don't include it, it may take us longer to reply.

What should I do if I move?

If you move after you file your return, always notify, in writing, the Internal Revenue Service Center where you filed your last return or the Chief, Taxpayer Service Division, in your local IRS district office. You can use Form 8822 to notify us of your new address. If you are expecting a refund, you should also notify the post office serving your old address. This will help forward your check to your new address.

How long should I keep my tax return?

Keep a copy of your tax return, worksheets you used, and records of all items appearing on it (such as W-2 and 1099 forms) until the statute of limitations runs out for that return. Usually, this is 3 years from the date the return was due or filed, or 2 years from the date the tax was paid, whichever is later. You should keep some records longer. For example, keep property records (including those on your home) as long as they are needed to figure the basis of the original or replacement property. For more details, get Pub. 552.

Income tax withholding and estimated tax payments for 1995

If the amount you owe the IRS (line 11) or the refund the IRS owes you (line 10) is large, you may want to file a new Form W-4 with your employer to change the amount of income tax to be withheld from your pay.

In general, you do not have to make estimated tax payments if you expect that your 1995 tax return will show a tax refund OR a tax balance due the IRS of less than $500.

Get Pub. 505 for more details.

How do I amend my tax return?

Use Form 1040X to change the return you already filed. If you filed a joint return, you may not, after the due date of that return, amend it to file as married filing a separate return. Generally, Form 1040X must be filed within 3 years after the date the original return was filed, or within 2 years after the date the tax was paid, whichever is later.

Major categories of Federal income and outlays for fiscal year 1993

On or before the first Monday in February of each year, the President is required by law to submit to the Congress a budget proposal for the fiscal year that begins the following October. The budget plan sets forth the President's proposed receipts, spending, and the deficit for the Federal Government. The plan includes recommendations for new legislation as well as recommendations to change, eliminate, and add programs. After receipt of the President's proposal, the Congress reviews the proposal and makes changes. It first passes a budget resolution setting its own targets for receipts, outlays, and the deficit. Individual spending and revenue bills are then enacted consistent with the goals of the budget resolution.

In fiscal year 1993 (which began on October 1, 1992, and ended on September 30, 1993), Federal income was $1,154 billion and outlays were $1,408 billion, leaving a deficit of $255 billion.

Federal income

Income and social insurance taxes are, by far, the largest source of receipts. In 1993, individuals paid $510 billion in income taxes and corporations paid $118 billion. Social security and other insurance and retirement contributions were $428 billion. Excise taxes were $48 billion. The remaining $50 billion of receipts were from Federal Reserve deposits, customs duties, estate and gift taxes, and other miscellaneous receipts.

Federal outlays

About 82% of total outlays were financed by tax receipts and the remaining 18% were financed by borrowing. Government receipts and borrowing finance a wide range of public services. The following is the breakdown of total outlays for fiscal year 1993:*

1. Social security, Medicare, and other retirement: $500 billion. These programs were 35% of total outlays. These programs provide income support for the retired and disabled and medical care for the elderly.

2. National defense, veterans, and foreign affairs: $344 billion. About 20% of total outlays were to equip, modernize, and pay our armed forces and to fund other national defense activities; about 3% went for veterans benefits and services; and about 1% went for international activities, including military and economic assistance to foreign countries and the maintenance of U.S. embassies abroad.

3. Net interest: $199 billion. About 14% of total outlays were for net interest payments on the public debt.

4. Physical, human, and community development: $119 billion. About 8% of total outlays were for agriculture; natural resources and environmental programs; transportation programs; aid for elementary and secondary education and direct assistance to college students; job training programs; deposit insurance, commerce and housing credit, and community development; and space, energy, and general science programs.

5. Social programs: $254 billion. The Federal Government spent 11% of total outlays to fund Medicaid, food stamps, aid to families with dependent children, supplemental security income, and related programs. Over 6% was spent for health research and public health programs, unemployment compensation, assisted housing, and social services.

6. Law enforcement and general government: $28 billion. About 2% of total outlays were for judicial activities, Federal law enforcement, and prisons; and to provide for the general costs of the Federal Government, including the collection of taxes and legislative activities.

Note: The above outlay amounts do not total $1,408 billion due to rounding.

* The percentages on this page exclude undistributed offsetting receipts, which were -$37 billion in fiscal year 1993. In the budget, these receipts are offset against spending in figuring the outlay totals shown above. These receipts are primarily for the U.S. Government's share of its employee retirement programs and rents and royalties on the Outer Continental Shelf.
