Instructions for Form 1040X

(Revised October 1978)

Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return

Use of Form 1040X

Use Form 1040X to correct your income tax return, Form 1040A or Form 1040. Also use Form 1040X to claim a refund of individual income taxes.

Information on Income, Deductions, etc.

If you have questions such as what income is taxable or what expenses are deductible, the instructions for the return you are amending may help you. Be sure to use the tax table(s) or tax rate schedules for that year to figure the corrected tax. The related schedules and forms may help you also. If you need more information, contact any Internal Revenue Service office.

When to File

File Form 1040X only after you have filed your original return. Generally, it must be filed within three years from the later of the due date or date of filing the original return. However, a Form 1040X based only on a net operating loss carryback, investment credit carryback, WIN credit carryback, or jobs credit carryback generally must be filed on or before the 15th day of the 40th month following the close of the taxable year of the net operating loss or unused credit.

Preparer Information

If you fill in your own return, the space under your signature should remain blank.

If someone prepares your return and does not charge you, that person should not sign your return. Certain others who prepare your return should not sign. For example, your regular, full-time employee or your partner in business does not have to sign. (This list is not all inclusive.)

Generally, anyone who is paid to prepare your tax return must sign your return and fill in the other blanks in the Paid Preparer’s Information area of your return.

When more than one person prepares your return, the preparer with primary responsibility for the overall accuracy of your return must sign as the preparer.

If the preparer is self-employed (i.e., is not employed by any person or business entity to prepare the return), he or she should check the “SE” box.

If you have questions about whether a preparer is required to sign your return, please contact an IRS office.

The person required to sign your return MUST:

- Sign it, by hand, in the space provided for the preparer’s signature (Signature stamps or labels are not acceptable).
- Give you a copy of your return in addition to the copy filed with IRS.

Publication 1054 is a guide listing some of the preparer’s other responsibilities and penalties for which he or she may be liable. The publication also contains the regulations which govern their work. Tax return preparers should be familiar with their responsibilities. This publication is available at IRS offices.

Net Operating Loss

A refund, based on a net operating loss should not include the return of self-employment tax, if any, reported on line 11. For further information, contact any Internal Revenue Service office.

Column C.—Add the increase in column B to the amount in column A or subtract the column B decrease from column A. Report the result in column C. If there are no changes, enter the amount from column A in column C.

If Your Amended Return Results Only In Changes To Credits Or the excesses, You May Skip Lines 1-7 And Start With Line 8. If It Results Only In Changes To Payments, You May Skip Lines 1-11 And Start With Line 12.

Line 1—Total Income.—Enter on page 2 any changes you make on this line. To determine this amount, add income from all sources, such as wages, interest, dividends, and pensions reported on Form 1040, line 13 or Form 1040A, line 12 for 1975 and 1976. For 1977 and 1978 use the total reportable on line 21 of your Form 1040 or line 10 of your Form 1040A.

If you are correcting wages or other employee compensation, attach copy B of any additional or corrected Forms W-2 that you received after you filed your original return.

Line 2—Adjustments to Income.—Enter on this line all adjustments to income such as sick pay, moving expense, employee business expense, etc. from Part II of Form 1040 for 1975 and 1976 and line 15(b) for 1977. For Years 1977 and 1978: Make entry on this line only for the excess, if any, of your total itemized deductions over $3,200 (if you are married filing joint return or making an election with dependent child), $2,200 (if you are single or unmarried head of household), or $1,600 (if married filing separately). If you do not itemize, enter zero.

If you made an entry on Schedule TC, Form 1040, Part II, line 4, for 1977 or 1978, enter that amount on this line and add lines 3 and 4, instead of subtracting, to arrive at the amount to enter on line 5.

Line 5—Tax.—Enter on this line your income tax before any credits. Indicate in each column the method used in figuring your tax. For example, if you used the alternate schedules, indicate “ATS.” If you used income averaging, indicate “Sch. G,” etc.

Also include in the amount on line 20 any additional overpayment of tax that may have resulted from an examination of your original return. Do not include any interest you received on any refund.

Lines 21 and 22—Caution: If line 21 results in a minus figure, add it to line 12, instead of subtracting. Enter the result on line 22.
