Paperwork Reduction Act Notice.—We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to give us the information. We need it to ensure that you are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax.

The time needed to complete and file this form and payment-voucher will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average time is:

- Recordkeeping, 1 hr., 12 min.;
- Learning about the law or the form, 21 min.;
- Preparing the form and payment-voucher, 1 hr., 20 min.;
- Copying, assembling, and sending the form and payment-voucher to the IRS, 41 min.

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making this form more simple, we would be happy to hear from you. You can write to both the Internal Revenue Service, Washington, DC 20224, Attention: IRS Reports Clearance Officer, TFP; and the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project (1545-0091), Washington, DC 20503. DO NOT send the tax form to either of these offices. Instead, see Where To File on page 2.

General Instructions

A Change You Should Note

A payment-voucher has been added to the instructions. If you owe tax, use the voucher on page 4 to send in your payment. For more details, see page 4.

Purpose of Form

Use Form 1040X to correct Form 1040, Form 1040A, or Form 1040EZ. Please note that it often takes 2 to 3 months to process Form 1040X. If you are changing your Federal return, you may also have to change your state return.

Filing Form 1045

You may use Form 1045, Application for Tentative Refund, instead of Form 1040X if:
- You are applying for a refund resulting from a net operating loss or credit carryback (other than a foreign tax credit carryback), AND
- Less than one year has elapsed since the end of the year in which the loss or credit arose.

For more details, see the separate instructions for Form 1045.

Carryback Claims

You must attach copies of the following to Form 1040X if it is used as a carryback claim:
- Pages 1 and 2 of Form 1040 and Schedules A and D (if applicable) for the year in which the loss or credit originated. At the top of these forms write "Attachment to Form 1040X—Copy Only—Do Not Process."
- Any Schedules K-1 you received from any partnership, S corporation, estate, or trust for the year of the loss or credit that contribute to the loss or credit carryback.
- Any form or schedule from which the carryback results (such as Form 3800 or Schedule C or F).
- The forms or schedules for items refigured in the carryback year (such as Form 6251, Form 3468, or Schedule A).

All information described above must be attached to your Form 1040X, if applicable, or your Form 1040X will be returned for the attachments.

Note: If you filed a joint return (or a separate return) for some, but not all, of the years involved in figuring the loss or credit carryback, you may have to allocate your income, deductions, and credits. For details, get the publication that explains the type of carryback you are claiming. For example, get Pub. 536, Net Operating Losses, if you are claiming a net operating loss carryback, or Pub. 514, Foreign Tax Credit for Individuals, for a foreign tax credit carryback.

Net Operating Loss

Attach a computation of your net operating loss using Schedule A (Form 1045) and, if applicable, your net operating loss carryover using Schedule B (Form 1045).

A refund based on a net operating loss should not include the refund of any self-employment tax reported on line 11 of Form 1040X. For more details, see Pub. 536.

Other Claims

Attach to Form 1040X any schedule or form related to the item changed. For example, if you are amending your return to change amounts reported on Schedule D (Form 1040), attach the corrected Schedule D.

Injured Spouse Claim. Do not use Form 1040X to file an injured spouse claim. Instead, file only Form 8379, Injured Spouse Claim and Allocation.

Information on Income, Deductions, etc.

If you have questions, such as what income is taxable or what expenses are deductible, the instructions for the return you are amending may help you. Be sure to use the Tax Table or Tax Rate Schedules for the right year to figure the corrected tax. The related schedules and forms may also help you.

Death of Taxpayer

If you are filing a Form 1040X for a deceased person, write "DECEASED," the deceased person’s name, and the date of death across the top of Form 1040X.

If you are filing Form 1040X as a surviving spouse filing a joint return with the deceased person, write "Filing as surviving spouse" in the area where you sign the return. If someone else is the personal representative, he or she must also sign.

Claiming a Refund for a Deceased Person. If you are claiming a refund as a surviving spouse filing a joint return with the deceased person, file only Form 1040X to claim the refund. If you are a court-appointed representative, file Form 1040X AND attach a copy of the certificate that shows your appointment. All other filers requesting the deceased person’s refund should file Form 1040X and attach Form 1310, Statement of Person Claiming Refund Due a Deceased Taxpayer.

For more details, get Pub. 559, Tax Information for Survivors, Executors, and Administrators.

When To File

File Form 1040X after you file your original return. Generally, Form 1040X must be filed within 3 years after the date the original return was filed, or within 2 years after the date the tax was paid, whichever is later. A return filed early is considered filed on the date it was due.

A Form 1040X based on a bad debt or worthless security must generally be filed within 7 years after the due date of the return for the tax year in which the debt or security became worthless. For more details, see section 6511. A Form 1040X based on a net operating loss carryback, or a general business credit carryback, generally must be filed within 3 years after the due date of the return for the tax year of the net operating loss or unused credit.

Paid Preparers
Generally, anyone you pay to prepare your return must sign it. A preparer who signs your return must sign it by hand in the space provided (signature stamps or labels cannot be used) and give you a copy of the return for your records. Someone who prepares your return for you but does not charge you should not sign your return.

Line Instructions
Above your name, enter the calendar year or fiscal year of the return you are amending.

Name, Address, and Social Security Number
If amending a joint return, list your names and social security numbers in the same order as shown on the original return.
If changing from a separate to joint return and your spouse did not file an original return, enter your name and social security number first.

P.O. Box. If your post office does not deliver mail to your home and you have a P.O. box, enter your P.O. box number instead of your home address.

Foreign Address. If your address is outside of the United States or its possessions or territories, enter the information on the line for “City, town or post office, state, and ZIP code” in the following order: city, province or state, postal code, and the name of the country. Do not abbreviate the country name.

Line D—Filing Status
If you are changing from separate returns to a joint return, both of you must sign Form 1040X. If there is any tax due, it must be paid in full.

Column A
Enter the amounts from your return as originally filed or as you later amended it. If your return was changed or audited by the IRS, enter the amounts as adjusted.

Column B
Enter the net increase or net decrease for each line you are changing. Show all decreases in parentheses. Explain each change on page 2, Part II, and attach any related schedule or form. For example, if you are amending your return to itemize deductions, attach Schedule A (Form 1040). If you need more space, show the required information on an attached statement.

Column C
Add the increase in column B to the amount in column A, or subtract the column B decrease from column A. Show the result in column C. For any item you do not change, enter the amount from column A in column C.
Note: If you are changing only credits or other taxes, skip lines 1–7 and start with line 8. If changing only payments, skip lines 1–11 and start with line 12.

Line 1
To figure this amount, add income from all sources, such as wages, taxable interest, dividends, and net profit from business. On Form 1040 for 1988–1991, use line 23.
On Form 1040EZ, use line 3.
If you are correcting wages or other employee compensation, attach the first copy or Copy B of all additional or corrected Forms W-2 that you got after you filed your original return.

Line 2
Enter all adjustments to income, such as an IRA deduction or alimony paid. On Form 1040 for 1988 and 1989, use lines 24–29. For 1990 and 1991, use lines 24a–29a. Be sure to include as an adjustment to income any write-in adjustment. For more details, see your Form 1040 instructions.
Note: If you are amending your Form 1040 or Form 1040A to change the amount of your IRA deduction, write in Part II on page 2 of Form 1040X “IRA deduction” and the amount of the increase or decrease.

Line 3
Changes you make to your adjusted gross income (AGI) can cause other amounts to increase or decrease. For example, increasing your AGI may decrease your medical expense deduction or your miscellaneous itemized deductions. It may also increase the allowable deduction for charitable contributions or the amount of social security benefits that is taxable. If you are amending your 1991 return, increasing your AGI may also decrease your total itemized deductions or your deduction for exemptions. You should refigure these items whenever you change your AGI.

Caution: If amending your 1991 return and your AGI in column A or C is over $150,000 ($100,000 if single; $125,000 if head of household; $75,000 if married filing separately), use the Deduction for Exemptions Worksheet in the 1991 Form 1040 instructions to figure the amount to enter on Form 1040X, line 6, and if applicable, line 29.

Line 4

Itemized Deductions. If you itemize deductions on Schedule A (Form 1040), enter on line 4 your total itemized deductions. On Schedule A (Form 1040) for 1988, 1989, and 1991, use line 26. For 1990, use line 27.

Standard Deduction. If you are amending your return and you do not itemize, enter on line 4 your standard deduction. On Form 1040 for 1988–1991, use line 34.

On Form 1040EZ for 1988, use line 4. For 1989–1991, if you checked the “Yes” box on Form 1040EZ, line 4, enter the amount from line 4 of Form 1040EZ on line 4 of Form 1040X. If you checked the “No” box for 1989, enter $3,100 on line 4 of Form 1040X. If you checked the “No” box for 1990, enter $3,250. If you checked the “No” box for 1991, enter $3,400.

Line 6

If you are changing your exemptions, complete the applicable lines in Part I on page 2 to figure the amounts to enter on line 6.

If you are not changing your exemptions and the Caution under the line 3 instructions does not apply to you, enter in columns A and C of line 6 the amount you claimed for exemptions on your original return. On Form 1040 for 1988–1991, use line 36.

On Form 1040EZ for 1988, use line 6. For 1989–1991, enter -0- on line 6 if you checked the “Yes” box on Form 1040EZ, line 4. If you checked the “No” box for 1989, enter $2,000 on line 6 of Form 1040X. If you checked the “No” box for 1990, enter $2,050. If you checked the “No” box for 1991, enter $2,150.

Line 8

Enter your income tax before subtracting any credits. Show on this line the method you use in column C to figure your tax. For example, if you use the Tax Rate Schedules, write “TRS.” If, for 1991, you use Part IV of Schedule D (Form 1040), write “Sch. D.”

Figure the tax on the taxable income you reported on line 7, column C. Attach the appropriate schedules or forms. Include on line 8 any additional taxes from Form 4970 or Form 4972. The forms and instructions for the right year will help you with line 8.

Line 9

Enter your total credits, such as the credit for the elderly or the disabled, credit for child and dependent care expenses, or credit for prior year minimum tax. On Form 1040 for 1988–1990, use lines 41–45. For 1991, use lines 41–44. Include as a credit any write-in credit. For more details, see your Form 1040 instructions.

Line 11

Include other taxes, such as tax from recapture of investment credit or low-income housing credit, alternative minimum tax, self-employment tax, advance earned income credit payments, or, for 1991, recapture of federal mortgage subsidy. On Form 1040 for 1988–1989, use lines 48–52. For 1990, use lines 48–53. For 1991, use lines 47–52. Be sure to include any write-in tax. For more details, see your Form 1040 instructions.

On Form 1040A, use advance earned income credit (AEIC) payments received.

Lines 13–17

Enter on the applicable lines your payments and credits. On Form 1040 for 1988, use lines 54–60. For 1989, use lines 56–62. For 1990, use lines 55–61. For 1991, use lines 54–59. Also include any credit for overpaid windfall profit tax on line 16 of Form 1040X and write “OWPT” to the left of line 16.

On Form 1040A for 1988, use lines 23a and 23b. For 1989, use lines 25a and 25b. For 1990 and 1991, use lines 28a–28c. Also, for 1990 and 1991, be sure to include any write-in payment. For more details, see your 1990 or 1991 Form 1040A instructions.

Line 13

If you change these amounts, attach the first copy or Copy B of all additional or corrected Forms W-2 or, for 1991, Forms 1099-R that you got after you filed your original return.

Line 14

Enter the estimated tax payments you claimed on your return. If you filed Form 1040C, include the amount you paid as the balance due with the return.

Line 18

Enter the amount you paid from the “Amount You Owe” line on your original return. Also include any additional tax that may have resulted if your original return was changed or examined. Do not include payments of interest or penalties.
Line 20
Enter the overpayment from your original return. On Form 1040 for 1988-1991, it is called "amount overpaid." On Form 1040A and Form 1040EZ for 1988, it is called "amount of your refund." For 1989, it is called "refund." For 1990 and 1991, it is called "amount overpaid" on Form 1040A; on Form 1040EZ it is called "refund." That amount must be considered in preparing Form 1040X since any refund you have not yet received from your original return will be refunded separately from any additional refund claimed on your Form 1040X. If your original return was changed or audited by the IRS and as a result of the change or audit there was an additional overpayment of tax, also include that amount on line 20. Do not include any interest you received on any refund.

Lines 21 and 22
If line 21 is a minus figure, add it to line 12, column C, instead of subtracting. Enter the result on line 22.

See How To Complete and Use the Payment-Voucher on this page.

Line 23
If you are entitled to a larger refund than you claimed on your original return, show only the additional amount due you. This will be refunded separately from the amount claimed on your original return (see the instructions for line 20). We will figure the interest and include it in your refund.

Lines 24-28
In column A, enter the number of exemptions claimed on your original return. In column B, enter any changes to exemptions claimed on your original return. Enter in column C the corrected number of exemptions you are claiming.

Line 29
If amending your 1991 return and the amount on page 1, line 3, column A or C, is more than $75,000, you may have to use the Deduction for Exemptions

Worksheet in the 1991 Form 1040 instructions to figure the amount to enter on line 29. For details, see the Caution under the instructions for line 3.

Line 30
If you are amending your return to claim an exemption for a dependent, you may be required to enter the dependent's social security number in column (c) of line 30. For 1988, you must enter the social security number of any dependent who was age 5 or older on December 31, 1988. For 1989 and 1990, you must enter the social security number of any dependent who was age 2 or older on December 31 of the year you are amending. For 1991, you must enter the social security number of any dependent who was age 1 or older on December 31, 1991. If you don’t enter the number, or if the number entered is incorrect, you may have to pay a $50 penalty. If your dependent does not have a social security number, see your 1991 Form 1040 or Form 1040A instructions for line 6c.

If you are claiming more than five additional dependents, show the information requested in columns (a) through (e) on an attached statement. When entering the total number of dependents in the boxes to the right of line 30, be sure to include these dependents.

If you are claiming a child who didn't live with you under the special rules for children of divorced or separated parents, you must do one of the following:

- Check the box on line 31 if your divorce decree or written separation agreement was in effect before 1985 and it states that you can claim the child as your dependent.
- Attach Form 8332, Release of Claim to Exemption for Child of Divorced or Separated Parents, or similar statement. If your divorce decree or separation agreement went into effect after 1984 and it unconditionally states that you can claim the child as your dependent, you may attach a copy of the following pages from the decree or agreement instead of Form 8332:
  1. Cover page (write the other parent's social security number on this page), and
  2. The page that unconditionally states you can claim the child as your dependent, and
  3. Signature page showing the date of the agreement.

For more details, see your 1991 Form 1040 or Form 1040A instructions for line 6c.

Part III—Presidential Election Campaign Fund
You may use Form 1040X to have $1 go to the Presidential Election Campaign Fund if you (or your spouse on a joint return) did not do so on your original return. This must be done within 20½ months after the original due date for filing the return. For the calendar year 1991, this period ends on December 31, 1993.

Note: A “Yes” designation cannot be changed.

How To Complete and Use the Payment-Voucher
Complete and send in the voucher only if a payment is due. We will figure the interest due and send you a bill.

To complete your voucher:
- Print or type your name, address, and social security number in the space provided on the voucher. If filing a joint return, also enter your spouse’s name and social security number.
- Enter the amount you are sending in on the payment line of the voucher.
- Enclose your payment, making the check or money order payable to: "Internal Revenue Service" (not “IRS”).
- Do not staple or attach your payment to the voucher.
- Write your social security number on your check or money order.
